PREFACE

THE CHURCH HYMNARY is the outgrowth of a smaller collection prepared some years ago for the use of the Church and Sabbath School of which the compiler is a member. The value and availability of much of the new music have thus been proven by practical use. From the treasures of the whole Church, "things new and old" have been brought together; very little of importance, it is believed, has been omitted, while much valuable matter not hitherto used in our Church Hymnals is now made available. It has been sought to make the CHURCH HYMNARY so varied, full, and rich, both in hymns and tunes, that it would commend itself to all Evangelical Churches.

Special thanks are due to William H. Clark, D.D., Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Bay City, Mich., Edward A. Collier, D.D., of Kinderhook, N. Y., and Rev. Frederic M. Bird, of South Bethlehem, Pa., for constant assistance in preparing the work and for many valuable suggestions. To their critical taste and judgment, as well as to their painstaking labor, the compiler is under many obligations.

The CHURCH HYMNARY is published both with and without the CHURCH PSALTER, a topical arrangement of the best Psalms for Responsive Reading, prepared by the Rev. Henry van Dyke, D.D., Pastor of the Brick Presbyterian Church in New York City, or with the Psalter following the Revised Version prepared by Rev. T. Ralston Smith, D.D., pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Buffalo, N. Y. It is believed that the increasing number of Congregational and Presbyterian Churches, in which Responsive Reading forms a regular part of Public Worship, will welcome this new Psalter designed especially to meet their needs, and arranged so as to make its use easy and helpful.

Permission to use hymns and tunes has been freely granted, and the compiler desires to express his appreciation of their courtesy to Houghton, Mifflin & Co., for the use of the hymns of John Greenleaf Whittier and Oliver Wendell Holmes; to Charles Scribner's Sons, for the use of No. 928 (from "Saxe Holm Stories," Vol. I.); to Denis Wortman, D.D., for the use of Nos. 702, 713, and 971 (the last from "Reliques of the Christ"); to U. C. Burnap, Richard Storrs Willis, George E. Oliver, Frederick W. Mills and many others—Authors, Composers, and Publishers, whose names appear in the body of the book.

If the CHURCH HYMNARY shall be accorded by the Church at large some measure of the favor with which, in a more limited sphere, much of it has already been received, the compiler will feel thankful for the opportunity of making this contribution to the promotion of the Service of Sacred Song.

The Law of God

As it is Written in the Twentieth Chapter of the Book of Exodus

GOD SPAKE ALL THESE WORDS, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I.—Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II.—Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III.—Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV.—Remember the Sabbath-day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day and hallowed it.

V.—Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI.—Thou shalt not kill.

VII.—Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII.—Thou shalt not steal.

IX.—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X.—Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

The Summary of the Law by our Lord Jesus Christ

St. Matthew, xxii: 37-40

THOU shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The Apostles' Creed

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth :

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord ;

Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary ;

Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried ;
He descended into hell ;

The third day He rose again from the dead ;

He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God
the Father Almighty ;

From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost :

The Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints,

The forgiveness of sins :

The resurrection of the body :

And the life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil :

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Je - sus, Lord, for - ev - er liv - ing, From Thy Church what glad thanks-giv - ing

Should to Thee for - ev - er flow! Thine this day our heart's ob - la - tion,

All our praise and a - dor - a - tion, All we are, and have, and know.

JESUS, Lord, forever living,
From Thy Church what glad thanksgiving
Should to Thee forever flow!
Thine this day our heart's oblation,
All our praise and adoration,
All we are, and have, and know.

2 Here may prayer and sins' confession,
Perfumed by Thine intercession,
As sweet incense heavenward rise:
Here to contrite hearts and broken,
Give, O Lord, the secret token
Of accepted sacrifice.

3 On the children of affliction,
Let Thy hands of benediction
Drop Thy comfort from above:
Be Thyself our hidden Manna,
And above us let the banner
Of Thy banquet-house be love.

4 Thus with Thee and Thine in union,
Glad we own the blest communion
Of the saints' unnumbered host,
Who with angels bow before Thee,
And with endless praise adore Thee,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

O day of rest and gladness, O day of joy and light, O balm of care and sadness, Most beautiful, most bright:

On thee, the high and lowly, Through ages joined in tune, Sing holy, holy, ho - ly, To the Great God Triune

O DAY of rest and gladness,
 O day of joy and light,
 O balm of care and sadness,
 Most beautiful, most bright:
 On thee, the high and lowly,
 Through ages joined in tune,
 Sing holy, holy, holy,
 To the Great God Triune.

2 On thee, at the creation,
 The light first had its birth;
 On thee, for our salvation,
 Christ rose from depths of earth;
 On thee our Lord, victorious,
 The Spirit sent from heaven,
 And thus on thee, most glorious,
 A triple light was given.

3 To-day on weary nations
 The heavenly manna falls;
 To holy convocations
 The silver trumpet calls,
 Where gospel light is glowing
 With pure and radiant beams,
 And living water flowing
 With soul-refreshing streams.

4 New graces ever gaining
 From this our day of rest,
 We reach the rest remaining
 To spirits of the blest;
 To Holy Ghost be praises,
 To Father, and to Son;
 The Church her voice upraises
 To Thee, blest Three in One.

The dawn of God's new Sabbath Breaks o'er the earth again, As some sweet summer morning After a night of pain.

The dawn of God's new Sabbath
Breaks o'er the earth again,
As some sweet summer morning
After a night of pain.
It comes as cooling showers
To cheer a thirsting land,
As shades of clustered palm-trees
'Mid weary wastes of sand.

2 Lord, we would bring our burden
Of sinful thought and deed,
In Thy pure presence kneeling
From bondage to be freed;
Our heart's most bitter sorrow
For all our work undone,
So many talents wasted,
So few true conquests won.

3 Yet still, O Lord long-suffering,
Still grant us in our need
Here in Thy holy presence
The saving name to plead;
And on Thy day of blessings,
Within Thy temple walls,
To foretaste the pure worship
Of Zion's golden halls:

4 Until in joy and gladness
We reach that home at last,
When life's short week of sorrow
And sin and strife is past;
When angel-hands have gathered
The first ripe fruit for Thee,
O Father, Son, and Spirit,
Most Holy Trinity!

OPEN now thy gates of beauty,
 Zion, let me enter there,
 Where my soul in joyful duty
 Waits for Him who answers prayer;
 O how blessed is this place,
 Filled with solace, light, and grace.
 2 Yes, my God, I come before Thee,
 Come Thou also down to me:
 Where we find Thee and adore Thee,
 There a heaven on earth must be.
 To my heart, O enter Thou,
 Let it be Thy temple now.

3 Here Thy praise is gladly chanted,
 Here Thy seed is duly sown,
 Let my soul, where it is planted,
 Bring forth precious sheaves alone,
 So that all I hear may be Fruitful unto life in me.

4 Speak, O God, and I will hear Thee,
 Let Thy will be done indeed;
 May I undisturbed draw near Thee
 While Thou dost Thy people feed;
 Here of Life the Fountain flows,
 Here is balm for all our woes.

SAFELY, thro' another week, God has brought us on our way; Let us now a blessing seek, Waiting in His courts to-day:

Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e-ter-nal rest, Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e-ter-nal rest.

SAFELY, through another week,
 God has brought us on our way;
 Let us now a blessing seek,
 Waiting in His courts to-day:
 Day of all the week the best,
 Emblem of eternal rest.
 2 While we pray for pardoning grace,
 Through the dear Redeemer's name,
 Show Thy reconciled face,
 Take away our sin and shame:
 From our worldly cares set free,
 May we rest this day in Thee.

3 Here we come Thy name to praise;
 May we feel Thy presence near:
 May Thy glory meet our eyes,
 While we in Thy house appear:
 Here afford us, Lord, a taste
 Of our everlasting feast.

4 May Thy gospel's joyful sound
 Conquer sinners, comfort saints;
 Make the fruits of grace abound,
 Bring relief for all complaints:
 Thus may all our Sabbaths prove,
 Till we join the Church above.

To Thee, my God and Saviour, My heart ex-ult-ing sings, Re - joic-ing in Thy fa - vor, Al - mighty King of kings: I'll cel-e-brate Thy glo-ry, With all Thy saints above, And tell the joy-ful

To Thee, my God and Saviour,
My heart exulting sings,
Rejoicing in Thy favor,
Almighty King of kings:
I'll celebrate Thy glory,
With all Thy saints above,
And tell the joyful story,
Of Thy redeeming love.

2 Soon as the morn with roses
Bedecks the dewy east,
And when the sun reposes
Upon the ocean's breast,
My voice in supplication,
Well pleaséd, Thou shalt hear:
O grant me Thy salvation,
And to my soul draw near.

3 By Thee through life supported,
I pass the dangerous road.
With heavenly hosts escorted
Up to their bright abode;

There cast my crown before Thee;
Now all my conflicts o'er,
And day and night adore Thee:
What can an angel more?

Thomas Haweis 1792

THINE holy day's returning
Our hearts exult to see;
And with devotion burning,
Ascend, our God, to Thee.
To-day with purest pleasure,
Our thoughts from earth withdraw;
We search for sacred treasure,
We learn Thy holy law.

2 We join to sing Thy praises,
God of the Sabbath day;
Each voice in gladness raises
Its loudest, sweetest lay.
Thy richest mercies sharing,
O fill us with Thy love,
By grace our souls preparing
For nobler praise above.

Rav Palmer 1834

- FATHER, again in Jesus' name we meet,
And bow in penitence beneath Thy feet;
Again to Thee our feeble voices raise,
To sue for mercy, and to sing Thy praise.
- 2 O we would bless Thee for Thy ceaseless care, 4 O by that name in which all fulness dwells,
And all Thy work from day to day declare! O by that love which every love excels,
Is not our life with hourly mercies crowned? O by that blood so freely shed for sin, Does not Thine arm encircle us around? Open blest Mercy's gate, and take us in!

AGAIN returns the day of holy rest,
Which, when He made the world, Jehovah blessed;
When, like His own, He bade our labors
cease,
And all be piety, and all be peace.

2 Let us devote this consecrated day
To learn His will, and all we learn obey;

So shall He hear, when fervently we raise
Our supplications and our songs of praise.
3 Father of heaven! in whom our hopes confide,
Whose power defends us, and whose precepts guide,
In life our Guardian, and in death our Friend,
Glory supreme be Thine, till time shall end.

Welcome, delightful morn, Thou day of sacred rest;
 I hail thy kind return, Lord, make these moments blest;
 From the low train of mortal toys,
 I soar to reach immortal joys, I soar to reach immortal joys.

WELCOME, delightful morn,
 Thou day of sacred rest:
 I hail thy kind return;
 Lord, make these moments blest;
 From the low train of mortal toys,
 I soar to reach immortal joys.

2 Now may the King descend,
 And fill His throne of grace:
 Thy sceptre, Lord, extend,
 While saints address Thy face;
 Let sinners feel Thy quickening word,
 And learn to know and fear the Lord.

3 Descend, celestial Dove,
 With all Thy quickening powers,
 Disclose a Saviour's love,
 And bless these sacred hours;
 Then shall my soul new life obtain,
 Nor Sabbaths e'er be spent in vain.

Hayward, In John Dobell's Collection, 1806

LORD of the worlds above,
 How pleasant and how fair
 The dwellings of Thy love,
 Thine earthly temples are!
 To Thine abode my heart aspires,
 With warm desires, to see my God.

2 O happy souls, that pray
 Where God appoints to hear;
 O happy men, that pay

Their constant service there!
 They praise Thee still; and happy they,
 That love the way to Zion's hill.

3 They go from strength to strength,
 Through this dark vale of tears,
 Till each arrives at length,
 Till each in heaven appears:
 O glorious seat, when God, our King,
 Shall thither bring our willing feet!

Isaac Watts 1719

12

AWAKE, ye saints, awake!
 And hail this sacred day:
 In loftiest songs of praise
 Your joyful homage pay:
 Come, bless the day that God hath blest,
 The type of heaven's eternal rest.

2 On this auspicious morn
 The Lord of life arose;
 He burst the bars of death,
 And vanquished all our foes;
 And now He pleads our cause above,
 And reaps the fruit of all His love.

3 All hail, triumphant Lord!
 Heaven with hosannas rings,
 And earth, in humbler strains,
 Thy praise responsive sings:
 Worthy the Lamb, that once was slain,
 Through endless years to live and reign.

- How charming is the place,
Where my Redeemer God
Unveils the beauties of His face,
And sheds His love abroad.
- 2 Here, on the mercy-seat,
With radiant glory crowned,
Our joyful eyes behold Him sit,
And smile on all around.
- 3 To Him their prayers and cries
Each humble soul presents :
He listens to their broken sighs,
And grants them all their wants.
- 4 To them His sovereign will
He graciously imparts;
And in return accepts, with smiles,
The tribute of their hearts.
- 5 Give me, O Lord, a place
Within Thy blest abode,
Among the children of Thy grace,
The servants of my God.

Samuel Stennett 1772

14

- HAIL to the Sabbath day :
The day divinely given;
When men to God their homage pay,
And earth draws near to heaven.
- 2 Lord, in this sacred hour
Within Thy courts we bend,
And bless Thy love, and own Thy power,
Our Father and our Friend.
- 3 But Thou art not alone
In courts by mortals trod;
Nor only is the day Thine own
When man draws near to God.
- 4 Thy temple is the arch
Of yon unmeasured sky;
Thy Sabbath, the stupendous march
Of grand eternity.
- 5 Lord, may that holier day
Dawn on Thy servants' sight;
And purer worship may we pay
In heaven's unclouded light.

- WELCOME, sweet day of rest,
That saw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving breast,
And these rejoicing eyes.
- 2 The King Himself comes near,
And feasts His saints to-day;
Here we may sit, and see Him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.
- 3 One day amidst the place
Where my dear Lord hath been,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Of pleasurable sin.
- 4 My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this,
And sit, and sing herself away
To everlasting bliss.

- THIS is the day of light;
Let there be light to-day:
O Dayspring, rise upon our night,
And chase its gloom away.
- 2 This is the day of rest:
Our failing strength renew!
On weary brain and troubled breast
Shed Thou Thy freshening dew
- 3 This is the day of peace;
Thy peace our spirits fill:
Bid Thou the blast of discord cease,
The waves of strife be still.
- 4 This is the day of prayer;
Let earth to heaven draw near:
Lift up our hearts to seek Thee there;
Come down to meet us here.
- 5 This is the first of days!
Send forth Thy quickening breath,
And wake dead souls to love and praise,
O Vanquisher of death!

John Ellerton 1868

- Sing to the Lord, our Might,
With holy fervor sing;
Let hearts and instruments unite
To praise our heavenly King.
- 2 This is His holy house,
And this His festal day,
When He accepts the humblest vows
That we sincerely pay.
- 3 The Sabbath to our sires
In mercy first was given;
The Church her Sabbaths still requires
To speed her on to heaven.
- 4 We still, like them of old,
Are in the wilderness;
And God is still as near His fold,
To pity and to bless.
- 5 Then let us open wide
Our hearts for Him to fill;
And He that Israel then supplied,
Will help His Israel still.

- SWEET is the work, O Lord,
Thy glorious acts to sing,
To praise Thy name, and hear Thy word,
And grateful offerings bring.
- 2 Sweet, at the dawning light,
Thy boundless love to tell:
And, when approach the shades of night,
Still on the theme to dwell.
- 3 Sweet, on this day of rest,
To join in heart and voice
With those who love and serve Thee best,
And in Thy name rejoice.
- 4 To songs of praise and joy
Be every Sabbath given,
That such may be our blest employ Eternally in heaven,

BLEST day of God, most calm, most bright,
The first and best of days;
The laborer's rest, the saint's delight,
A day of mirth and praise.

2 My Saviour's face did make thee shine.
His rising did thee raise:
This made thee heavenly and divine
Beyond the common days.

3 The first-fruits do a blessing prove
To all the sheaves behind;
And they that do a Sabbath love
A happy week shall find.

4 This day must I fore God appear,
For, Lord, the day is Thine:
O let me spend it in Thy fear,
Then shall the day be mine.

A rise, O King of grace, a rise, And en - ter to Thy rest: Lo, Thy Church

20

ARISE, O King of grace, arise,
And enter to Thy rest:
Lo, Thy Church waits with longing eyes,
Thus to be owned and blest.

2 Enter with all Thy glorious train,
Thy Spirit and Thy word;
All that the ark did once contain
Could no such grace afford.

3 Here, mighty God, accept our vows,
Here let Thy praise be spread;
Bless the provisions of Thy house,
And fill Thy poor with bread.

4 Here let the Son of David reign,
Let God's Anointed shine,
Justice and truth His court maintain,
With love and power divine.

Isaac Watts 1719

WITH joy we hail the sacred day,
Which God has called His own;
With joy the summons we obey
To worship at His throne.

2 Thy chosen temple, Lord, how fair,
Where willing votaries throng,
To breathe the humble, fervent prayer,
And pour the choral song.

3 Spirit of grace, O deign to dwell
Within Thy Church below;
Make her in holiness excel,
With pure devotion glow.

4 Let peace within her walls be found;
Let all her sons unite,
To spread with grateful zeal around
Her clear and shining light.

O very God of very God, And very Light of Light, Whose feet this earth's dark valley trod, That so it might be bright;

Our hopes are weak, our fears are strong, Thick darkness blinds our eyes; Cold is the night, and O we long That Thou, our Sun, wouldst rise!

O very God of very God,
And very Light of Light,
Whose feet this earth's dark valley trod,
That so it might be bright;

2 Our hopes are weak, our fears are strong,
Thick darkness blinds our eyes;
Cold is the night, and O we long
That Thou, our Sun, wouldst rise!

3 And even now, though dull and gray,
The east is brightening fast,
And kindling to the perfect Day,
That never shall be past.

4 O guide us till our path is done,
And we have reached the shore
Where Thou, our Everlasting Sun,
Art shining evermore.

5 We wait in faith, and turn our face
To where the daylight springs,
Till Thou shalt come, our gloom to chase
With healing on Thy wings.

6 To God the Father, power and might Both now and ever be;
To Him That is the Light of Light,
And, Holy Ghost, to Thee!

COME, Thou Desire of all Thy saints!
Our humble strains attend,
While, with our praises and complaints,
Low at Thy feet we bend.

2 How should our songs, like those above,
With warm devotion rise!
How should our souls, on wings of love,
Mount upward to the skies!

3 Come, Lord! Thy love alone can raise
In us the heavenly flame;

Then shall our lips resound Thy praise,
Our hearts adore Thy name.

4 Dear Saviour! let Thy glory shine,
And fill Thy dwellings here,
Till life, and love, and joy divine
A heaven on earth appear.

5 Then shall our hearts enraptured say,
Come, great Redeemer! come,
And bring the bright, the glorious day,
That calls Thy children home.

Lord, in the morn - ing Thou shalt hear My voice as - cend - ing high ; To Thee will 'I di - rect my pray'r, To Thee will I di - rect my pray'r, To Thee lift up mine eye :

LORD, in the morning Thou shalt hear
My voice ascending high ;
To Thee will I direct my prayer,
To Thee lift up mine eye :

2 Up to the hills, where Christ is gone
To plead for all His saints,
Presenting, at His Father's throne,
Our songs and our complaints.

3 Thou art a God, before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand ;
Sinners shall ne'er be Thy delight,
Nor dwell at Thy right hand.

4 But to Thy house will I resort,
To taste Thy mercies there ;
I will frequent Thy holy court,
And worship in Thy fear.

5 O may Thy Spirit guide my feet
In ways of righteousness ;
Make every path of duty straight
And plain before my face.

Isaac Watts 1719

3 Blest be the Lord, who comes to men
With messages of grace ;
Who comes in God His Father's name,
To save our sinful race.

4 Hosanna, in the highest strains
The Church on earth can raise ;
The highest heavens, in which He reigns,
Shall give Him nobler praise.

Isaac Watts 1719

26

EARLY, my God, without delay,
I haste to seek Thy face ;
My thirsty spirit faints away,
Without Thy cheering grace.

2 So pilgrims on the scorching sand,
Beneath a burning sky,
Long for a cooling stream at hand,
And they must drink or die.

3 I've seen Thy glory and Thy power
Through all Thy temple shine :
My God repeat that heavenly hour,
That vision so divine.

4 Not life itself, with all its joys,
Can my best passions move ;
Or raise so high my cheerful voice,
As Thy forgiving love.

5 Thus, till my last expiring day,
I'll bless my God and King ;
Thus will I lift my hands to pray,
And tune my lips to sing.

25

THIS is the day the Lord hath made,
He calls the hours His own ;
Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad,
And praise surround the throne.

2 To-day He rose and left the dead,
And Satan's empire fell ;
To-day the saints His triumphs spread,
And all His wonders tell.

BEHOLD we come, dear Lord, to Thee,
And bow before Thy throne;
We come to offer on our knee
Our vows to Thee alone.

2 What'e'r we have, what'e'r we are,
Thy bounty freely gave;
Thou dost us here in mercy spare,
And wilt hereafter save.

3 Come then, my soul, bring all thy powers,
And grieve thou hast no more;
Bring every day thy choicest hours,
And thy great God adore.

4 But, above all, prepare thine heart
On this, His own blest day,
In its sweet task to bear thy part,
And sing, and love, and pray.

John Austin 1663

2 How sweetly rest Thy saints above
Which in Thy bosom lie;
The Church below doth rest in hope
Of that felicity.

3 Thou, Lord, who daily feed'st Thy sheep,
Mak'st them a weekly feast;
Thy flocks meet in their several folds
Upon this day of rest.

4 Welcome and dear unto my soul
Are these sweet feasts of love;
But what a Sabbath shall I keep
When I shall rest above!

5 I bless Thy wise and wondrous love,
Which binds us to be free;
Which makes us leave our earthly snares,
That we may come to Thee.

28

MY Lord, my Love, was crucified,
He all the pains did bear;
But in the sweetness of His rest
He makes His servants share.

John Mason 1683

AGAIN our earthly cares we leave,
And in Thy courts appear;
Again, with joyful feet, we come
To meet our Saviour here.

2 Within these walls let holy peace,
And love, and concord dwell:
Here give the troubled conscience ease,
The wounded spirit heal.

3 May we in faith receive Thy word,
In faith present our prayers;
And, in the presence of our Lord,
Unbosom all our cares.

4 Show us some token of Thy love,
Our fainting hope to raise;
And pour Thy blessing from above,
That we may render praise.

Forth from the dark and storm-y sky, Lord, to Thine altar's shade we fly; Forth from the world, its hope and fear, Saviour, we seek Thy shel-ter here: Weary and weak, Thy grace we pray; Turn not, O Lord, Thy guests a-way.

FORTH from the dark and stormy sky,
Lord, to Thine altar's shade we fly;
Forth from the world, its hope and fear,
Saviour, we seek Thy shelter here:
Weary and weak, Thy grace we pray;
Turn not, O Lord, Thy guests away.

2 Long have we roamed in want and pain,
Long have we sought Thy rest in vain;
Wildered in doubt, in darkness lost,
Long have our souls been tempest-tossed:
Low at Thy feet our sins we lay;
Turn not, O Lord, Thy guests away

SWEET is the work, my God, my King,
To praise Thy name, give thanks, and sing;
To show Thy love by morning light,
And talk of all Thy truth at night.

31

SWEET is the work, my God, my King,
To praise Thy name, give thanks, and sing;
To show Thy love by morning light,
And talk of all Thy truth at night.

2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest;
No mortal cares shall seize my breast;
O may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound.

3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless His works, and bless His word;
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine,
How deep Thy counsels, how divine

4 Lord, I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil, to cheer my head.

5 Then shall I see, and hear, and know
All I desired or wished below;

And every power find sweet employ,
In that eternal world of joy.

Isaac Watts 1719

32

ALL people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice:
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him, and rejoice.

2 The Lord, ye know, is God indeed,
Without our aid He did us make:
We are His flock, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take

3 O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto:
Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

4 For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is forever sure:
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

How pleasant, how divinely fair,
O Lord of hosts, Thy dwellings are;
With long desire my spirit faints,
To meet the assemblies of Thy saints.

2 Blest are the saints who sit on high,
Around Thy throne of majesty;
Thy brightest glories shine above,
And all their work is praise and love.

3 Blest are the souls who find a place
Within the temple of Thy grace;
There they behold Thy gentler rays,
And seek Thy face, and learn Thy praise.

4 Blest are the men whose hearts are set
To find the way to Zion's gate;
God is their strength, and through the road,
They lean upon their helper, God.

5 Cheerful they walk with growing strength,
Till all shall meet in heaven at length;
Till all before Thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there.

ANOTHER six days' work is done,
Another Sabbath is begun:
Return my soul, enjoy thy rest,
Improve the day thy God hath blest.

2 O that our thoughts and thanks may rise,
As grateful incense, to the skies;
And draw from heaven that sweet repose,
Which none but he that feels it knows.

3 This heavenly calm within the breast
Is the dear pledge of glorious rest,
Which for the Church of God remains,
The end of cares, the end of pains.

4 In holy duties let the day,
In holy pleasures, pass away;
How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend,
In hope of one that ne'er shall end.

Joseph Stennett 1712

35

Come, dearest Lord, descend and dwell,
By faith and love, in every breast;
Then shall we know, and taste, and feel,
The joys that cannot be expressed.

2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength;
Make our enlarged souls possess,
And learn the height and breadth and length
Of Thine unmeasurable grace.

3 Now to the God whose power can do
More than our thoughts or wishes know,
Be everlasting honors done,
By all the Church, through Christ, His Son.

LORD, we come before Thee now,
At Thy feet we humbly bow;
O do not our suit disdain,
Shall we seek Thee, Lord, in vain?

2 Lord, on Thee our souls depend;
In compassion, now descend;
Fill our hearts with Thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing Thy praise.

3 In Thine own appointed way,
Now we seek Thee, here we stay:
Lord, we know not how to go,
Till a blessing Thou bestow.

4 Send some message from Thy word,
That may joy and peace afford;
Let Thy Spirit now impart
Full salvation to each heart.

5 Comfort those who weep and mourn,
Let the time of joy return;
Those that are cast down lift up,
Strong in faith, in love, and hope.

6 Grant that those who seek may find
Thee a God sincere and kind;
Heal the sick, the captive free,
Let us all rejoice in Thee.

To Thy temple I repair;
Lord, I love to worship there,
When within the veil I meet
Christ before the mercy-seat.

2 While Thy glorious praise is sung,
Touch my lips, unloose my tongue,
That my joyful soul may bless
Thee, the Lord my Righteousness.

3 While the prayers of saints ascend,
God of love, to mine attend;
Hear me, for Thy Spirit pleads,
Hear, for Jesus intercedes.

4 While I hearken to Thy law,
Fill my soul with humble awe,
Till Thy gospel bring to me
Life and immortality.

5 While Thy ministers proclaim
Peace and pardon in Thy Name,
Through their voice, by faith, may I
Hear Thee speaking from the sky.

6 From Thy house when I return,
May my heart within me burn;
And at evening let me say,
I have walked with God to-day.

On this day, the first of days,
God the Father's name we praise;
Who, creation's Fount and Spring,
Did the world from darkness bring.

2 On this day the eternal Son
Over death His triumph won;
On this day the Spirit came
With His gifts of living flame.

3 O that fervent love to-day
May in every heart have sway,
Teaching us to praise aright
God, the Source of life and light!

4 Father! who didst fashion me
Image of Thyself to be,
Fill me with Thy love divine,
Let my every thought be Thine.

5 Holy Jesus! may I be Dead and buried here with Thee;
And, by love inflamed, arise
Unto Thee a sacrifice.

COME, my soul, thy suit prepare,
Jesus loves to answer prayer;
He Himself has bid thee pray,
Therefore will not say thee nay.

2 With my burden I begin:
Lord, remove this load of sin;
Let Thy blood, for sinners spilt,
Set my conscience free from guilt.

3 Lord, I come to Thee for rest,
Take possession of my breast;
There Thy blood-bought right maintain
And without a rival reign.

4 While I am a pilgrim here,
Let Thy love my spirit cheer;
As my Guide, my Guard, my Friend,
Lead me to my journey's end.

5 Show me what I have to do,
Every hour my strength renew;
Let me live a life of faith,
Let me die Thy people's death.

HAIL! sacred day of earthly rest,
From toil and trouble free;
Hail! day of light, that bringest light

2 A holy stillness, breathing calm
On all the world around,

Of rest in heaven.

How pleased and blest was I,
To hear the people cry,
"Come, let us seek our God to-day!"

Yes, with a cheerful zeal,
We haste to Zion's hill,
And there our vows and honors pay.

2 Zion, thrice happy place,
Adorned with wondrous grace,
And walls of strength embrace thee round :
In thee our tribes appear,
To pray, and praise, and hear
The sacred gospel's joyful sound.

3 There David's greater Son
Has fixed His royal throne ;
He sits for grace and judgment there.

He bids the saints be glad ;
He makes the sinner sad ;
And humble souls rejoice with fear.

4 May peace attend thy gate,
And joy within thee wait,
To bless the soul of every guest :
The man that seeks thy peace,
And wishes thine increase,
A thousand blessings on him rest!

5 My tongue repeats her vows,
"Peace to this sacred house!"
For there my friends and kindred dwell ;
And since my glorious God
Makes thee His blest abode,
My soul shall ever love thee well.

2 Before Thy throne we bow,

3 While in Thy house we kneel,
With trust and holy fear,
Thy mercy and Thy truth reveal,
And lend a gracious ear.

WELCOME, sacred day of rest!
 Sweet repose from worldly care;
 Day above all days the best,
 When our souls for heaven prepare;
 Day, when our Redeemer rose,
 Victor o'er the hosts of hell:
 Thus He vanquished all our foes;
 Let our lips His glory tell.

2 Gracious Lord! we love this day,
 When we hear Thy holy word;
 When we sing Thy praise, and pray
 Earth can no such joys afford:
 But a better rest remains,
 Heavenly Sabbaths, happier days,
 Rest from sin, and rest from pains,
 Endless joys, and endless praise.

Pleasant are Thy courts above, In the land of light and love, Pleasant are Thy courts below, In this land of sin and woe.

PLEASANT are Thy courts above,
 In the land of light and love;
 Pleasant are Thy courts below,
 In this land of sin and woe.
 O, my spirit longs and faints
 For the converse of Thy saints,
 For the brightness of Thy face,
 King of glory, God of grace.
 2 Happy souls, their praises flow
 Even in this vale of woe;
 Waters in the desert rise,
 Manna feeds them from the skies:

On they go from strength to strength,
 Till they reach Thy throne at length;
 At Thy feet adoring fall,
 Who hast led them safe through all.
 3 Lord be mine this prize to win;
 Guide me through a world of sin;
 Keep me by Thy saving grace;
 Give me at Thy side a place.
 Sun and Shield alike Thou art;
 Guide and guard my erring heart;
 Grace and glory flow from Thee,
 Shower, O shower them, Lord, on me

We, Thy people, now draw near:
Teach us to rejoice with trembling;
Speak, and let Thy servants hear,
Hear with meekness,

2 While our days on earth are lengthened,
May we give them, Lord, to Thee;
Cheered by hope, and daily strengthened,

May we run, nor weary be,

Without clouds in heaven we see.

Tasting of enjoyment greater
Far than thought conceived before;
Full enjoyment,
Full, unmixed, and evermore.

Break Thou the bread of life,
Dear Lord, to me,
As Thou didst break the loaves
Beside the sea;
Beyond the sacred page
I seek Thee, Lord;
My spirit pants for Thee,
O living Word!

2 Bless Thou the truth, dear Lord,
To me—to me—
As Thou didst bless the bread
By Galilee;
Then shall all bondage cease,
All fetters fall;
And I shall find my peace,
My All-in-All.

HOLY offerings, rich and rare,
Offerings of praise and prayer
Purer life and purpose high,
Clasped hands, uplifted eye,
Lowly acts of adoration
To the God of our salvation—
On His altar laid we leave them:
Christ, present them! God receive them!

2 Promises in sorrow made,
Left, alas! too long unpaid;
Fervent wishes, earnest thought,
Never into action wrought—
Long withheld, we now restore them,
On Thy holy altar pour them:
There in trembling faith to leave them,
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

3 Vows and longings, hopes and fears,
Broken-hearted sighs and tears,
Dreams of what we yet might be
Could we cling more close to Thee,
Which, despite of faults and failings,
Help Thy grace in its prevailings—
On Thine altar laid we leave them:
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

4 Brighter joys and tenderer tears,
Fonder faith, more faithful fears,
Lowlier penitence for sin,
More of Christ our souls within;
Love which, when its life was newer,
Burnt within us deeper, truer—
Lost too long, while we deplore them,
Jesus, plead for! God, restore them!

5 Homage of each humble heart
Ere we from Thy house depart;
Worship fervent, deep and high,
Adoration, ecstasy;
All that childlike love can render
Of devotion true and tender—
On Thine altar laid we leave them:
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

6 To the Father, and the Son,
And the Spirit, Three in One,
Though our mortal weakness raise
Offerings of imperfect praise,
Yet with hearts bowed down most lowly,
Crying, Holy! Holy! Holy!
On Thine altar laid we leave them:
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

- ALMIGHTY Father, heaven and earth
 With lavish wealth before Thee bow;
 Those treasures owe to Thee their birth,
 Creator, Ruler, Giver, Thou.
- 2 The wealth of earth, of sky, of sea,
 The gold, the silver, sparkling gem,
 The waving corn, the bending tree,
 Are Thine; to us Thou lendest them.
- 3 To Thee, as early morning's dew,
 Our praises, alms, and prayer shall rise;

- As rose, when joyous earth was new,
 Faith's patriarchal sacrifice.
- 4 We, Lord, would lay at Thy behest
 The costliest offerings on Thy shrine;
 But when we give, and give our best,
 We only give Thee that is Thine.

 O Son, dispenser of God's store,
 O Spirit, bear our offerings home.
 Lord, make them Thine forevermore!

- O PRAISE our God to-day,
 His constant mercy bless,
 Whose love hath helped us on our way,
 And granted us success.

- 2 His arm the strength imparts
 Our daily toil to bear;
 His grace alone inspires our hearts,
 Each other's load to share.

- 3 O happiest work below,
 Earnest of joy above,
 To sweeten many a cup of woe,
 By deeds of holy love!

- 4 Lord, may it be our choice
 This blessed rule to keep,
 "Rejoice with them that do rejoice,
 And weep with them that weep."

- We give Thee but Thine own,
 Whate'er the gift may be:
 All that we have is Thine alone,
 A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

- 2 May we Thy bounties thus
 As stewards true receive,
 And gladly, as Thou blestest us,
 To Thee our first-fruits give.

- 3 The captive to release,
 To God the lost to bring,
 To teach the way of life and peace,
 It is a Christ-like thing

- 4 And we believe Thy word,
 Though dim our faith may be,
 Whate'er for Thine we do, O Lord,
 We do it unto Thee.

Give us Thine own charity.

When Jesus dwelt in mortal clay,
What were His works from day to day
But miracles of power and grace,
That spread salvation through our race?

2 Teach us, O Lord, to keep in view
Thy pattern, and Thy steps pursue;
Let alms bestowed, let kindness done,

Who much receives but nothing gives,
Whom none can love, whom none can thank,

Treads the same path his Saviour trod,
The path to glory and to God.

JESUS, our Lord, how rich Thy grace!
Thy bounties how complete!
How shall we count the matchless sum?
How pay the mighty debt?

2 High on a throne of radiant light
Dost Thou exalted shine;
What can our poverty bestow,
When all the worlds are Thine?

3 But Thou hast brethren here below,
The partners of Thy grace,
And wilt confess their humble names
Before Thy Father's face.

4 In them Thou mayst be clothed and fed,
And visited and cheered;
And in their accents of distress
Our Saviour's voice is heard.

LORD, lead the way the Saviour went,
By lane and cell obscure,
And let our treasures still be spent,
Like His, upon the poor.

2 Like Him, through scenes of deep distress,
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their crowded loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.

3 For Thou hast placed us side by side
In this wide world of ill;
And that Thy followers may be tried,
The poor are with us still.

4 Mean are all offerings we can make;
But Thou hast taught us, Lord,
If given for the Saviour's sake,
They lose not their reward.

O Lord of heaven and earth and sea,
To Thee all praise and glory be:
How shall we show our love to Thee,
Who givest all?

2 The golden sunshine, vernal air,
Sweet flowers and fruit Thy love declare:
When harvests ripen, Thou art there,
Who givest all.

3 For peaceful homes, and healthful days,
For all the blessings earth displays,
We owe Thee thankfulness and praise,
Who givest all.

4 For souls redeemed, for sins forgiven,
For means of grace and hopes of heaven,
What can to Thee, O Lord, be given,
Who givest all?

5 We lose what on ourselves we spend;
We have as treasure without end
Whatever, Lord, to Thee we lend,
Who givest all.

6 Whatever, Lord, we lend to Thee,
Repaid a thousandfold will be;
Then gladly will we give to Thee,
Who givest all.

2 And Thou who cam'st on earth to die,
That fallen man might live thereby,
O hear us, for to Thee we cry,
In hope, O Lord, to Thee.

3 Teach us the lesson Thou hast taught,
To feel for those Thy blood hath bought;
That every word, and deed, and thought
May work a work for Thee.

57

O God of mercy, God of might,
In love and pity infinite,
Teach us, as ever in Thy sight,
To live our life to Thee.

2 And Thou who cam'st on earth to die,
That fallen man might live thereby,
O hear us, for to Thee we cry,
In hope, O Lord, to Thee.

3 Teach us the lesson Thou hast taught,
To feel for those Thy blood hath bought;
That every word, and deed, and thought
May work a work for Thee.

4 For all are brethren, far and wide
Since Thou, O Lord, for all hast died:
Then teach us, whatsoe'er betide,
To love them all in Thee.

5 In sickness, sorrow, want, or care,
Whate'er it be, 'tis ours to share;
May we, where help is needed, there
Give help as unto Thee.

6 And may Thy Holy Spirit move
All those who live, to live in love,
Till Thou shalt greet in heaven above
All those who give to Thee.

FATHER of our feeble race,
Wise, beneficent, and kind!
Spread o'er nature's ample face,
Flows Thy goodness unconfined.

2 Lord, what offerings shall we bring,
At Thine altars when we bow?
Grateful loving hearts, the spring
Whence the kind affections flow:

3 Willing hands to lead the blind,
Bind the wounded, feed the poor;
Love, embracing all our kind;
Charity, with liberal store.

4 Teach us, O Thou heavenly King,
Thus to show our grateful mind;
Thus the accepted offering bring,
Love to Thee and all mankind.

SAVIOUR, again to Thy dear Name we raise,
With one accord, our parting hymn of praise;
We stand to bless Thee ere our worship cease,
Then, lowly kneeling, wait Thy word of peace.

2 Grant us Thy peace upon our homeward
way ;

With Thee began, with Thee shall end the day ;
Guard Thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,

That in this house have called upon Thy name.

3 Grant us Thy peace, Lord, through the coming night,

Turn Thou for us its darkness into light ;
From harm and danger keep Thy children free,
For dark and light are both alike to Thee.

4 Grant us Thy peace throughout our earthly life,

Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife ;
Then, when Thy voice shall bid our conflict
cease,

Call us, O Lord, to Thine eternal peace.

Brought the Shepherd of the sheep,
Jesus Christ, our King and Head,
All our souls in safety keep.

The shadows of the evening hours Fall from the dark'ning sky, Upon the fragrance of the flowers The dews of evening lie;

The shadows of the evening hours
Fall from the darkening sky,
Upon the fragrance of the flowers
The dews of evening lie;
Before Thy throne, O Lord of heaven!
We kneel at close of day;
Look on Thy children from on high,
And hear us while we pray.

2 The sorrows of Thy servants, Lord,
O do not Thou despise,
But let the incense of our prayers
Before Thy mercy rise;
The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls;
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows of our souls.

3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade;
So fade within our heart
The hopes in earthly love and joy,
That one by one depart;
Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
Within the heavens shine:
Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven,
And trust in things divine.

4 Let peace, O Lord! Thy peace, O God!
Upon our souls descend,
From midnight fears, and perils, Thou
Our trembling hearts defend:
Give us a respite from our toil,
Calm and subdue our woes;
Through the long day we suffer, Lord,
O give us now repose!

Establish every heart
Upon Thy word of truth and power,

2 Peace to our brethren give;

OUR day of praise is done;
The evening shadows fall;
Yet pass not from us with the sun,
True Light that lightenest all.

2 Around the throne on high
Where night can never be,
The white-robed harpers of the sky
Bring ceaseless hymns to Thee.

3 Too faint our anthems here;
Too soon of praise we tire;
But O the strains how full and clear
Of that eternal choir.

4 Yet, Lord, to Thy dear will
If Thou attune the heart,
We in Thine angels' music still
May bear our lower part.

5 'Tis Thine each soul to calm,
Each wayward thought reclaim,
And make our daily life a psalm
Of glory to Thy name.

6 A little while, and then
Shall come the glorious end;
And songs of angels and of men
In perfect praise shall blend.

Keep us walking

Hope more bright of joys to come;

Through life's long day and death's dark night,

 To souls benighted and distressed:

COME, Thou Almighty King,
 Help us Thy name to sing,
 Help us to praise:
 Father, all-glorious,
 O'er all victorious,
 Come, and reign over us,
 Ancient of days.

2 Jesus, our Lord, arise;
 Scatter our enemies,
 And make them fall:
 Let Thine almighty aid
 Our sure defence be made;
 Our souls on Thee be stayed;
 Lord, hear our call.

3 Come, Thou Incarnate Word,
 Gird on Thy mighty sword,
 Our prayer attend:
 Come, and Thy people bless,
 And give Thy Word success;
 Spirit of holiness,
 On us descend.

4 Come, Holy Comforter,
 Thy sacred witness bear
 In this glad hour:
 Thou who Almighty art,
 Now rule in every heart,
 And ne'er from us depart,
 Spirit of power.

5 To the great One in Three Eternal praises be Hence evermore.

His sovereign majesty
 May we in glory see,
 And to eternity
 Love and adore.

Charles Wesley 1757

THOU, Lord, art God alone,
 Veiling Thy burning throne
 From mortal sight:
 Yet Thou our Father art,
 From whose all-pitying heart,
 Nor life, nor death can part,
 Nor depth, nor height.

2 We praise Thee, Holy One,
 The Father's only Son,—
 His image bright,
 Our Prophet, Priest, and King,
 Who dost redemption bring,
 Thy matchless grace we sing,
 Thy saving might.

3 We praise Thee, Heavenly Guest,
 Thou great and last bequest
 Of Love to man.

O blessed Paraclete,
 Guide Thou our pilgrim feet,
 Till glory shall complete
 What grace began.

4 We praise Thee, Father, Son,
 And Spirit, Three in One,—
 God of all grace!
 Angels and Cherubim,
 With flaming Seraphim,
 Thy Name, thrice holy, hymn
 With veiled face

O Holy Father, who hast led Thy children
In all the ages, with the fire and cloud,
Through seas dry-shod; through weary wastes bewildering;
To Thee, in reverent love, our hearts are bowed.

2 O Holy Jesus, Prince of Peace and Saviour,
To Thee, we owe the peace that still prevails,
Still the rude wills of men's wild behavior,
And calming passion's fierce and stormy gales.

3 O Holy Ghost, the Lord and the Life-
Giver,
Thine is the quickening power that gives increase.
From Thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river,
Our plenty, wealth, prosperity and peace
4 O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring, Praise we the goodness that has crowned our day;
Pray we, that Thou wilt hear us, still imploring
Thy love and favor, kept to us alway.

E - ter-nal Fath - er, when to Thee, Be- yond all worlds, by faith I soar,

We give im-mor-tal praise For God the Father's love, For all our comforts here, And better hopes above:
He sent His own e-ter-nal Son To die for sins that we had done.

96

WE give immortal praise
For God the Father's love,
For all our comforts here,
And better hopes above:
He sent His own eternal Son
To die for sins that we had done.

2 To God the Son belongs
Immortal glory too;
Who bought us with His blood
From everlasting woe:
And now He lives and now He reigns,
And sees the fruit of all His pains.

3 To God the Spirit's name
Immortal worship give,
Whose new-creating power
Makes the dead sinner live:
His work completes the great design,
And fills the soul with joy divine.

Be endless honors done,
The undivided Three,
The great and glorious One:
Where reason fails, with all her powers,
There faith prevails and love adores.

GLORY be to God the Father,
 Glory be to God the Son,
 Glory be to God the Spirit,
 Great Jehovah, Three in One :
 Glory, glory,
 While eternal ages run !

2 Glory be to Him who loved us,
 Washed us from each spot and stain;
 Glory be to Him who bought us,
 Made us kings with Him to reign :
 Glory, glory,
 To the Lamb that once was slain!

3 Glory to the King of angels,
 Glory to the Church's King,
 Glory to the King of nations,
 Heaven and earth, your praises bring :
 Glory, glory,
 To the King of glory bring !

4 Glory, blessing, praise eternal !
 Thus the choir of angels sings ;
 Honor, riches, power, dominion !
 Thus its praise creation brings :
 Glory, glory,
 Glory to the King of kings !

Sweet the time, exceeding sweet, When the saints together meet; When the Saviour is the theme, When they join to sing of Him

102

SWEET the time, exceeding sweet,
When the saints together meet;
When the Saviour is the theme,
When they join to sing of Him.

2 Sing we then eternal love,
Such as did the Father move:
He beheld the world undone,
Loved the world, and gave His Son.

3 Sing the Son's amazing love:
How He left the realms above,

Took our nature and our place,
Lived and died to save our race.

4 Sing we, too, the Spirit's love:
With our wretched hearts He strove,
Took the things of Christ, and showed
How to reach His blest abode.

5 Sweet the place, exceeding sweet,
Where the saints in glory meet;
Where the Saviour's still the theme,
Where they see, and sing of Him.

HOLY, holy, holy Lord,
God of Hosts, eternal King,
By the heavens and earth adored;
Angels and Archangels sing,
Chanting everlastingly,
To the Blesséd Trinity.

2 Since by Thee were all things made,
And in Thee do all things live,
Be to Thee all honor paid;
Praise to Thee let all things give,
Singing everlastingly
To the Blesséd Trinity.

3 Thousands, tens of thousands, stand,
Spirits blest, before the throne,
Speeding thence at Thy command,
And, when Thy commands are done,
Singing everlastingly
To the Blesséd Trinity

4 Cherubim and Seraphim
Veil their faces with their wings;
Eyes of angels are too dim
To behold the King of kings,
While they sing eternally
To the Blesséd Trinity.

5 Thee apostles, prophets Thee,
Thee the noble martyr band,
Praise with solemn jubilee,
Thee, the Church in every land,
Singing everlastingly
To the Blesséd Trinity.

6 Hallelujah! Lord, to Thee,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost;
Godhead One, and Persons Three;
Join with us the heavenly host,
Singing everlastingly
To the Blesséd Trinity.

The God of Abraham praise,
 Who reigns enthroned above;
 Ancient of everlasting days,
 And God of love:
 Jehovah, Great I Am!
 By earth and heaven confessed:
 I bow and bless the sacred name,
 For ever blest.

2 The God of Abraham praise,
 At whose supreme command
 From earth I rise, and seek the joys
 At His right hand:

I all on earth forsake,
 Its wisdom, fame, and power;
 And Him my only portion make
 My shield and tower.

3 He by Himself hath sworn,
 I on His oath depend;
 I shall on eagle's wings upborne
 To heaven ascend;
 I shall behold His face,
 I shall His power adore,
 And sing the wonders of His grace
 For evermore.

THE Lord Jehovah reigns;
 His throne is built on high;
 The garments He assumes
 Are light and majesty;
 His glories shine with beams so bright
 No mortal eye can bear the sight.
 2 The thunders of His hand
 Keep the wide world in awe;
 His wrath and justice stand
 To guard His holy law;
 And where His love resolves to bless,
 His truth confirms and seals the grace.
 3 And can this mighty King
 Of glory condescend?
 And will He write His name,
 My Father and my Friend?
 I love His name, I love His word;
 Join all my powers, and praise the Lord!

Isaac Watts 1709

THE Lord Jehovah lives,
 And blessed be my Rock!
 Though earth her bosom heaves

And mountains feel the shock,
 Though oceans rage and torrents roar,
 He is the same for evermore.

2 The Lord Jehovah lives,
 The dying sinner's Friend;
 How freely He forgives
 The follies that offend!
 He wipes the penitential tear,
 Bids faith and hope the spirit cheer.

3 The Lord Jehovah lives
 To hear and answer prayer;
 Whoe'er in Him believes
 And trusts His guardian care,
 A Father's tender love shall know,
 Whence living streams of comfort flow.

4 The Lord Jehovah lives
 Salvation to secure;
 The title that He gives
 Will be forever sure;
 'Tis drawn in characters of blood,
 'Tis issued from the throne of God.

2 Happy the man whose hopes rely

 And none shall find His promise vain.

3 The Lord hath eyes to give the blind;
 The Lord supports the sinking mind;
 He sends the laboring conscience peace;

Glorious is the breaking deep!
Glorious, beauteous, without ending,
God who reigns on Heaven's high steep!

Hallelujah! best and sweetest
Of the hymns of praise above;
Hallelujah! thou repeatest,

2 Hallelujah! Church victorious,
Join the concert of the sky;
Hallelujah! bright and glorious,
Lift, ye saints, this strain on high:

Join not yet your melody.

3 Hallelujah! strains of gladness
Suit not souls with anguish torn;
Hallelujah! sounds of sadness
Best become our state forlorn:
Our offences
We with bitter tears must mourn.

4 But our earnest supplication,

Visit us with Thy salvation,
Make us all Thy joys to see.
Hallelujah!
Ours at length this strain shall be.

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

2 Where streams of living water flow,
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

3 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,

And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

5 And so through all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever.

God is love; that anthem olden
Sing the glorious orbs of light,
In their language glad and golden
Telling to us day and night
Their great story,
God is love, and God is might!
2 And the teeming earth rejoices
In that message from above,
With ten thousand thousand voices,
Telling back from hill and grove
Her glad story,
God is might, and God is love!

3 Through these anthems of creation,
Struggling up with gentle strife,
Christian songs of Christ's salvation,
To the world with blessings rife,
Tell their story,
God is love, and God is life!
4 Up to Him let each affection
Daily rise, and round Him move;
Our whole lives one resurrection
To the life of life above;
Our glad story
God is life, and God is love!

Nor let His mercies lie
Forgotten in unthankfulness,

'Tis He relieves thy pain,
'Tis He that heals thy sicknesses,

Come, bow before the Lord,

Stand up, and bless His glorious name,

 Through the wide fields of air;
 The waves obey Thy dread control;
 Yet still Thou art not there;
 Where shall I find Him, O my soul!
 Who yet is everywhere?
 5 O, not in circling depth or height,
 But in the conscious breast,
 Present to faith, though veiled from sight
 There does His Spirit rest;
 O come, Thou Presence infinite!
 And make Thy creature blest.

My soul, repeat His praise Whose mercies are so great; Whose anger is so slow to rise, So ready to abate.

122

My soul, repeat His praise
 Whose mercies are so great;
 Whose anger is so slow to rise,
 So ready to abate.
 2 God will not always chide;
 And when His strokes are felt,
 His strokes are fewer than our crimes,
 And lighter than our guilt.

3 High as the heavens are raised
 Above the ground we tread,
 So far the riches of His grace
 Our highest thoughts exceed.
 4 His power subdues our sins,
 And His forgiving love,
 Far as the east is from the west,
 Doth all our guilt remove.

WHILE Thee I seek, protecting Power!

Be my vain wishes stilled;
And may this consecrated hour
With better hopes be filled.

Thy love the power of thought bestowed;
To Thee my thoughts would soar:
Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed;
That mercy I adore.

2 In each event of life, how clear
Thy ruling hand I see!
Each blessing to my soul more dear
Because conferred by Thee.

In every joy that crowns my days,

In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise,
Or seek relief in prayer.

3 When gladness wings my favored hour,
Thy love my thoughts shall fill;
Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
My soul shall meet Thy will.
My lifted eye, without a tear,
The gathering storm shall see;
My steadfast heart shall know no fear;
That heart will rest on Thee.

My God, I thank Thee, who hast made
The earth so bright;
So full of splendor and of joy,
Beauty and light;
So many glorious things are here,
Noble and right.

2 I thank Thee, too, that Thou hast made
Joy to abound;
So many gentle thoughts and deeds
Circling us round;
That in the darkest spot of earth
Some love is found.

3 I thank Thee more that all our joy
Is touched with pain;
That shadows fall on brightest hours,

That thorns remain;
So that earth's bliss may be our guide,
And not our chain.

4 I thank Thee, Lord, that Thou hast kept
The best in store;
We have enough, yet not too much,
To long for more;
A yearning for a deeper peace
Not known before.

5 I thank Thee, Lord, that here our souls
Though amply blest,
Can never find, although they seek,
A perfect rest;
Nor ever shall, until they lean
On Jesus' breast.

When all Thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise.

2 Unnumbered comforts to my soul
Thy tender care bestowed,
Before my infant heart conceived
From whom those comforts flowed.

3 When worn with sickness, oft hast Thou
With health renewed my face:
And, when in sins and sorrows sunk,
Revived my soul with grace.

4 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ;
Nor is the least a cheerful heart
That tastes those gifts with joy.

5 Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue;
And after death, in distant worlds,
The glorious theme renew

6 Through all eternity to Thee
A joyful song I'll raise;
But O, eternity's too short
To utter all Thy praise.

- O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home:
- 2 Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.
- 3 A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.
- 4 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.
- 5 O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

Isaac Watts 1719

- My God, how wonderful Thou art,
Thy majesty how bright,
How beautiful Thy mercy-seat
In depths of burning light.
- 2 O how I fear Thee, Living God,
With deepest, tenderest fears,
And worship Thee with trembling hope,
And penitential tears.
- 3 Yet I may love Thee too, O Lord,
Almighty as Thou art;
For Thou hast stooped to ask of me
The love of my poor heart.
- 4 No earthly father loves like Thee,
No mother, half so mild,
Bears and forbears, as Thou hast done,
With me, Thy sinful child.
- 5 Father of Jesus, love's reward,
What rapture will it be,
Prostrate before Thy throne to lie,
And gaze, and gaze on Thee.

- O LORD, how good, how great art Thou,
In heaven and earth the same;
There angels at Thy footstool bow,
Here babes Thy grace proclaim.
- 2 When glorious in the nightly sky
Thy moon and stars I see,
O, what is man, I wondering cry,
To be so loved by Thee.
- 3 Close to Thine own bright seraphim
His favored path is trod;
And all beside are serving him,
That he may serve his God.

GREAT God, how infinite art Thou,
 What worthless worms are we:
 Let the whole race of creatures bow,
 And pay their praise to Thee.
 2 Thy throne eternal ages stood,
 Ere seas or stars were made;
 Thou art the ever-living God,
 Were all the nations dead.
 3 Our lives through various scenes are
 And vexed with trifling cares; [drawn,
 While Thine eternal thought moves on Thine undisturbed affairs.
 4 Great God, how infinite art Thou,
 What worthless worms are we;
 Let the whole race of creatures bow,
 And pay their praise to Thee.

In all my vast concerns with Thee,
 In vain my soul would try
 To shun Thy presence, Lord, or flee
 The notice of Thine eye.
 2 Thine all-surrounding sight surveys
 My rising and my rest,
 My public walks, my private ways,
 And secrets of my breast.
 3 My thoughts lie open to the Lord,
 Before they're formed within;
 And ere my lips pronounce the word,
 He knows the sense I mean.
 4 The beams of noon, the midnight hour,
 Are both alike to Thee:
 O may I ne'er provoke that power
 From which I cannot flee.

God moves in a mysterious way
 His wonders to perform;
 He plants His footsteps in the sea,
 And rides upon the storm.
 2 Deep in unfathomable mines
 Of never-failing skill,
 He treasures up His bright designs,
 And works His sovereign will.
 3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take;
 The clouds ye so much dread
 Are big with mercy, and shall break
 In blessings on your head.

4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
 But trust Him for His grace;
 Behind a frowning providence
 He hides a smiling face.
 5 His purposes will ripen fast,
 Unfolding every hour;
 The bud may have a bitter taste,
 But sweet will be the flower.
 6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
 And scan His work in vain:
 God is His own Interpreter,
 And He will make it plain.

Loud, and more loud, the anthem raise
With grateful ardor fired.
- 2 Lift up to God the voice of praise,

- WITH songs and honors sounding loud,
Address the Lord on high:
Over the heavens He spreads His cloud,
And waters veil the sky.
- 2 He sends His showers of blessings down,
To cheer the plains below;
He makes the grass the mountains crown,
And corn in valleys grow.
- 3 His steady counsels change the face
Of the declining year;
He bids the sun cut short his race,
And wintry days appear.
- 4 His hoary frost, His fleecy snow,
Descend and clothe the ground;
The liquid streams forbear to flow
In icy fetters bound.
- 5 He sends His word and melts the snow,
The fields no longer mourn;
He calls the warmer gales to blow,
And bids the spring return.
- 6 The changing wind, the flying cloud,
Obey His mighty word:
With songs and honors sounding loud,
Praise ye the sovereign Lord.

I sing th' almighty power of God, That made the mountains rise, That spread the flowing seas a-broad, And built the loft-y skies. I sing the wis-dom that or-dained

135

I sing th' almighty power of God,
That made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies.

2 I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at His command,
And all the stars obey.

3 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
That filled the earth with food;
He formed the creatures with His word,
And then pronounced them good.

4 There's not a plant or flower below
But makes Thy glories known;
And clouds arise and tempests blow
By order from Thy throne.

5 Lord, how Thy wonders are displayed
Where'er I turn mine eye,
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky.

6 Creatures, as numerous as they be,
Are subject to Thy care;
There's not a place where we can flee
But God is present there.

O God, we praise Thee, and confess,
That Thou the only Lord
And everlasting Father art,

3 O holy, holy, holy Lord,

4 The apostles' glorious company,
And prophets crowned with light,
With all the martyrs' noble host,
Thy constant praise recite.

5 The holy Church throughout the world,

Of never ceasing joy; O Christ,

Loud thanks to our Almighty King;
For we our voices high should raise,

2 Into His presence let us haste,
To thank Him for His favors past;

WHEN Israel, of the Lord beloved,
 Out from the land of bondage came,
 Her fathers' God before her moved,
 An awful guide, in smoke and flame
 2 By day, along the astonished lands,
 The cloudy pillar glided slow:
 By night, Arabia's crimsoned sands
 Returned the fiery column's glow.
 3 Thus present still, though now unseen,
 O Lord, when shines the prosperous day,
 Be thoughts of Thee a cloudy screen,
 To temper the deceitful ray.
 4 And O, when gathers on our path,
 In shade and storm, the frequent night,
 Be Thou long-suffering, slow to wrath,
 A burning and a shining light.

Walter Scott 1820

My rising and my resting hours,
 My heart and flesh with all their powers.

2 My thoughts, before they are my own,
 Are to my God distinctly known;
 He knows the words I mean to speak,
 Ere from my opening lips they break.

3 Within Thy circling power I stand;
 On every side I find Thy hand:
 Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
 I am surrounded still with God.

4 Amazing knowledge, vast and great,
 What large extent, what lofty height:
 My soul, with all the powers I boast,
 Is in the boundless prospect lost.

5 O may these thoughts possess my breast,
 Where'er I rove, where'er I rest,
 Nor let my weaker passions dare
 Consent to sin, for God is there.

Songs of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When He spake, and it was done.

2 Songs of praise awoke the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born;
Songs of praise arose, when He Captive led captivity.

3 Heaven and earth must pass away,
Songs of praise shall crown that day;
God will make new heavens, new earth,
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

4 And can man alone be dumb
Till that glorious kingdom come?
No; the Church delights to raise
Psalms, and hymns, and songs of praise.

5 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.

6 Borne upon their latest breath,
Songs of praise shall conquer death;
Then, amidst eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ.

For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

3 He His chosen race did bless
In the wasteful wilderness:
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

4 He hath, with a piteous eye,
Looked upon our misery:
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

5 All things living He doth feed,
His full hand supplies their need:
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

6 Let us therefore warble forth
His high majesty and worth:
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

HOLY, holy, holy Lord,
Be Thy glorious name adored:
Lord, Thy mercies never fail;
Hail, celestial Goodness, hail!

2 Though unworthy, Lord, Thine ear,
Deign our humble songs to hear:
Purer praise we hope to bring,
When around Thy throne we sing.

3 While on earth ordained to stay,
Guide our footsteps in Thy way,
Till we come to dwell with Thee,
Till we all Thy glory see.

4 Then with angel-harps again
We will make a nobler strain;
There, in joyful songs of praise,
Our triumphant voices raise.

5 There no tongue shall silent be,
All shall join in harmony;
That through heaven's capacious round
Praise to Thee may ever sound.

6 Lord, Thy mercies never fail:
Hail, celestial Goodness, hail!
Holy, holy, holy Lord,
Be Thy glorious name adored.

O God, the Rock of Ages,
Who evermore hast been,
What time the tempest rages,
Our dwelling-place serene;
Before Thy first creations,
O Lord, the same as now,
To endless generations
The Everlasting Thou!

2 Our years are like the shadows
On sunny hills that lie,
Or grasses in the meadows
That blossom but to die:
A sleep, a dream, a story
By strangers quickly told,
An unremaining glory
Of things that soon are old.

3 O Thou, who canst not slumber,
Whose light grows never pale,
Teach us aright to number
Our years before they fail.
On us Thy mercy lighten,
On us Thy goodness rest,
And let Thy Spirit brighten
The hearts Thyself hast blessed.

4 Lord, crown our faith's endeavor
With beauty and with grace,
Till, clothed in light for ever,
We see Thee face to face:
A joy no language measures;
A fountain brimming o'er;
An endless flow of pleasures;
An ocean without shore.

SWEET is the memory of Thy grace,
My God, my heavenly King!
Let age to age Thy righteousness
In sounds of glory sing.

2 God reigns on high, but not confines
His goodness to the skies;
Through the whole earth His bounty shines,
And every want supplies.

3 With longing eyes Thy creatures wait
On Thee for daily food;

Thy liberal hand provides their meat,
And fills their mouths with good.

4 How kind are Thy compassions, Lord!
How slow Thine anger moves!
But soon He sends His pardoning word
To cheer the souls He loves.

5 Creatures, with all their endless race,
Thy power and praise proclaim;
But saints that taste Thy richer grace
Delight to bless Thy name.

Isaac Watts 1719

WE cannot praise Thee now, Lord,
As spirits perfect made,
Who walk in white before Thee,
With Christ the Living Head;
But praise is waiting for Thee,
In that glad future time,
When we shall read life's story,
And reach our spirits' prime.

2 We cannot praise Thee here, Lord,
As those around Thy throne,
Who sing the song of glory,
And know as they are known;
But praise is waiting for Thee
When Zion's hill we gain;
And here we would be singing
A prelude to the strain.

THOU Grace Divine encircling all,
A soundless, shoreless sea!
Wherein at last our souls must fall,
O Love of God most free!

2 And though we turn us from Thy face,
And wander wide and long,
Thou hold'st us still in Thine embrace,
O Love of God most strong!

3 The saddened heart, the restless soul,
The toil-worn frame and mind,
Alike confess Thy sweet control,
O Love of God most kind!

4 And filled and quickened by Thy breath,
Our souls are strong and free

To rise o'er sin and fear and death,
O Love of God, to Thee!

JEHOVAH, God, Thy gracious power
On every hand we see;
O may the blessings of each hour
Lead all our thoughts to Thee.

Thy goodness never dies.

Our Father, and our Friend.

Maker of all things, to Thee we upraise;
God, the Almighty, the Father, the Lord;

Beast of the forest, wild bird of the air,

Give ye to Him who our battle hath won,

Blessing and honor and glory and praise,

YE servants of God, your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad His wonderful Name;
The Name all-victorious of Jesus extol;
His kingdom is glorious, and rules over all.

2 God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
And still He is nigh, His presence we have;
The great congregation His triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus our King.

3 "Salvation to God who sits on the throne."
Let all cry aloud, and honor the Son;
The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces, and worship the Lamb.

4 Then let us adore, and give Him His right,
All glory and power, and wisdom and might;
All honor and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing, and infinite love.

Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales, and dewy meads,
My weary, wandering steps He leads,
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.

3 Though in the paths of death I tread,
With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
For Thou, O Lord, art with me still:
Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
And guide me through the dreadful shade.

4 Though in a bare and rugged way,
Through devious, lonely wilds I stray,
Thy bounty shall my pains beguile:
The barren wilderness shall smile,
With sudden greens and herbage crowned,
And streams shall murmur all around.

Interposed His precious blood.

Prone to leave the God I love;

As with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold;
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright;
So, most gracious Lord, may we Evermore be led to Thee.
2 As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek the mercy-seat.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to Thee, our heavenly King
4 Holy Jesus, every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

HE has come, the Christ of God;
Left for us His glad abode;
Stooping from His throne of bliss,
To this darksome wilderness!

2 He has come, the Prince of Peace;
Come to bid our sorrows cease;
Come to scatter, with His light,
All the shadows of our night.

3 He, the mighty King, has come,
Making this poor earth His home;
Come to bear our sin's sad load,
Son of David, Son of God.

4 He has come, whose Name of grace
Speaks deliverance to our race;
Left for us His glad abode,
Son of Mary, Son of God.

5 Unto us a Child is born;
Ne'er has earth beheld a morn
Out of all the morns of time
Half so glorious in its prime.

6 Unto us a Son is given;
He has come from God's own heaven,
Bringing with Him from above
Holy peace, and holy love.

Horatius Bonar 1857

HAIL, all hail the joyful morn!
Tell it forth from earth to heaven,
That "to us a Child is born."
That "to us a Son is given."

2 Angels bending from the sky,
Chanted at the wondrous birth,
"Glory be to God on high,
Peace, good-will to man on earth."

3 Him prophetic strains proclaim
King of kings, the Incarnate Word;
Great and wonderful His name,
Prince of Peace, the Mighty God.

4 Join we then our feeble lays,
To the chorus of the sky;
And, in songs of grateful praise,
Glory give to God on high.

King of kings, and Prince of Peace.

3 Come and worship at His feet,
Yield to Christ the homage meet:
From His manger to His throne,
Homage due to God alone.

4 Glory be to God on high!
Earth, uplift the joyful cry!
Praise Him, all ye heavenly host,

HOLY night! Peaceful night!
 All is dark, save the light
 Yonder where they sweet vigils keep,

 Darkness flies and all is light!

 Blesséd was that happy morn,
 Full of heavenly joy.

4 Silent night! holiest night!
 Guiding star, O, lend thy light!
 See the eastern wise men bring
 Gifts and homage to our King!
 Jesus Christ is here!

5 Silent night! holiest night!

 With the angels let us sing
 Hallelujah to our King!

Come ye lofty, come ye lowly,
 Let your songs of gladness ring;
 In a stable lies the Holy,
 In a manger rests the King:
 See in Mary's arms reposing
 Christ by highest heaven adored:
 Come, your circle round Him closing,
 Pious hearts that love the Lord.

2 Come ye poor, no pomp of station
 Robes the Child your hearts adore:
 He, the Lord of all salvation,
 Shares your want, is weak and poor:
 Oxen, round about behold them!
 Rafters naked, cold, and bare,
 See the shepherds, God has told them
 That the Prince of Life lies there.

3 High above a star is shining,
 And the Wise men haste from far:
 Come glad hearts, and spirits pining:
 For you all has risen the star.
 Let us bring our poor oblations,
 Thanks and love and faith and praise:
 Come ye people, come ye nations,
 All in all draw nigh to gaze

4 Hark the Heaven of heavens is ringing:
 Christ the Lord to man is born!
 Are not all our hearts too singing,
 Welcome, welcome, Christmas morn?
 Still the Child, all power possessing,
 Smiles as through the ages past;
 And the song of Christmas blessing
 Sweetly sinks to rest at last.

ANGELS, from the realms of glory,
Wing your flight o'er all the earth,
Ye who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ the new-born King.

2 Shepherds, in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing;
Yonder shines the infant-light;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ the new-born King.

3 Sages, leave your contemplations,
Brighter visions beam afar;
Seek the great Desire of nations;

Ye have seen His natal star;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ the new-born King.

4 Saints, before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord, descending,
In His temple shall appear;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ the new-born King.

5 Sinners, wrung with true repentance,
Doomed for guilt to endless pains,
Justice now revokes the sentence;
Mercy calls you; break your chains;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ the new-born King.

CHRISTIANS, awake! salute the happy morn,
Whereon the Saviour of mankind was born;
Rise to adore the mystery of love,
Which hosts of angels chanted from above;
With them the joyful tidings first begun
Of God Incarnate and the Virgin's Son.

O may we keep and ponder in our mind,
God's wondrous love in saving lost mankind,
Trace we the Babe, who hath retrieved our loss,
From His poor manger to His bitter cross;
Treading His steps, assisted by His grace,
Till man's first heavenly state again takes place.

2 With burst of music the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire:
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole arch with Alleluias rang;
God's highest glory, was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and unto men good-will.

4 Then may we hope, the angelic thrones among,
To sing, redeemed, a glad triumphal song;
He, that was born upon this joyful day,
Around us all His glory shall display;
Saved by His love, incessant we shall sing
Eternal praise to heaven's Almighty King.

HARK! what music fills the sky!
 Glory be to God on high,
 Angels sing, and hosts reply,
 Hallelujah!

2 To the sons of men is given
 God's dear Son, best gift of heaven,
 Pledge of grace, and sin forgiven,
 Hallelujah!

3 Righteousness and peace embrace,
 For the Prince of Peace doth place
 His right hand on Adam's race,
 Hallelujah!

4 Would ye see the wondrous sign,
 In a manger, Child divine,
 Lies the heir of David's line,
 Hallelujah!

5 Thee we own as Lord and King,
 And as tribute meet we bring
 Songs which angels cannot sing,
 Hallelujah!

6 Him we praise, Himself who gave
 To the manger and the grave
 All to ransom and to save.
 Hallelujah!

BLESSED night, when Bethlehem's plain
 Echoed with the joyful strain,
 "Peace has come to earth again."
 Hallelujah!

2 Blesséd hills, that heard the song
 Of the glorious angel throng
 Swelling all your slopes along;
 Hallelujah!

3 Happy shepherds, on whose ear,
 Fell the tidings glad and clear,
 "God to man is drawing near."
 Hallelujah!

4 Thus revealed to shepherd's eyes
 Hidden from the great and wise,
 Entering earth in lowly guise—
 Hallelujah!

5 We adore thee as our King,
 And to Thee our song we sing;
 Our best offering to Thee bring,
 Hallelujah!

6 Mighty King of Righteousness,
 King of Glory, King of Peace,
 Never shall Thy kingdom cease!

ALL my heart this night rejoices,
 As I hear, far and near,
 Sweetest angel voices;
 "Christ is born!" their choirs are singing,
 Till the air everywhere
 Now with joy is ringing.

2 For it dawns, the promised morrow
 Of His birth, who the earth
 Rescues from her sorrow.
 God to wear our form descendeth;
 Of His grace to our race
 Here His Son He lendeth.

3 Hark! a voice from yonder manger
 Soft and sweet, doth entreat—
 "Flee from woe and danger
 Brethren, come; from all that grieves you
 You are freed; all you need
 Here your Saviour gives you."

4 Come, then, let us hasten yonder:
 Here let all, great and small,
 Kneel in awe and wonder.
 Love Him who with love is yearning:
 Hail the Star, that from far
 Bright with hope is burning.

O little town of Bethlehem!

How still we see thee lie,
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep,
The silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years,
Are met in thee to-night.

2 For Christ is born of Mary,
And gathered all above,
While mortals sleep the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars together
Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth.

3 How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given;
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven,
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

4 O holy Child of Bethlehem!
Descend to us, we pray,
Cast out our sin and enter in,
Be born in us to-day.
We hear the Christmas angels,
The great glad tidings tell,
O, come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Immanuel!

On this night, all nights excelling,
God's high praises sounded forth,
While the angels' songs were telling
Of the Lord's mysterious birth.
Through the darkness, strangely splendid,
Flashed the light on shepherds' eyes;
As their lowly flocks they tended,
Came new tidings from the skies.

2 On this day then through creation
Let the glorious hymn ring out;
Let men hail the great salvation,
"God with us," with song and shout.
See the powers of hell are broken,
Fierce and tyrannous and wild,
And on earth glad words are spoken,
Heralding the new-born Child.

3 Christ, who rules the earth and heaven,
By His truth's controlling power,
Who a grace to men hath given
That transforms them hour by hour.
Grant to us of His great pity
Pardon for our guilt and sin;
Grant us in the heavenly city
Peace and rest and life to win.

IT CAME upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth,
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good will to men
From heaven's all gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world:
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

3 And ye, beneath life's crushing load
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way,
With painful steps and slow,—
Look now; for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing:
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

4 For lo, the days are hastening on
By prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever circling years
Comes round the age of gold:
When Peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world give back the song
Which now the angels sing.

2 Love's sweetest mark, laud's highest theme,
Man's most desired light,
To love Him life, to leave Him death,
To live in Him delight.
He mine by gift, I His by debt,
Thus each to other due,
First friend He was, best friend He is,
All times will try Him true.

3 Though young yet wise, though small, yet
Though man, yet God He is; [strong,
As wise, He knows, as strong, He can,
As God, He loves to bless.
His knowledge rules, His strength defends,
His love doth cherish all;
His birth our joy, His life our light,
His death our end of thrall.

MESSIAH, at Thy glad approach
The howling wilds are still;
Thy praises fill the lonely waste,
And breathe from every hill.
2 The hidden fountains, at Thy call,
Their sacred stores unlock;
Loud in the desert sudden streams
Burst living from the rock.
3 Renewed, the earth a robe of light,
A robe of beauty wears;
And in new heavens a brighter sun
Leads on the promised years.
4 Let Israel to the Prince of Peace
The loud hosanna sing;
With hallelujahs and with hymns,
O Zion, hail thy King.

CALM on the listening ear of night
Come heaven's melodious strains,
Where wild Judea stretches far
Her silver-mantled plains;
Celestial choirs from courts above
Shed sacred glories there;
And angels, with their sparkling lyres,
Make music on the air.

2 The answering hills of Palestine
Send back the glad reply,
And greet from all their holy heights
The dayspring from on high:
O'er the blue depths of Galilee
There comes a holier calm;
And Sharon waves in solemn praise
Her silent groves of palm.

3 Glory to God! the lofty strain
The realm of ether fills;
How sweeps the song of solemn joy
O'er Judah's sacred hills!
"Glory to God!" the sounding skies
Loud with their anthems ring:
"Peace on the earth; good-will to men,
From heaven's eternal King."
4 This day shall Christian tongues be mute,
And Christian hearts be cold?
O catch the anthem that from heaven
O'er Judah's mountains rolled!
When nightly burst from seraph-harps
The high and solemn lay,—
"Glory to God; on earth be peace; Salvation comes to-day!"

The air was calm and still,
O'er Bethlehem fields its rays were shed,
The dew lay on the hill:

We see no throne, no palace fair,
Where is the King? O where? O where?
O where is the King? O where?

3 An old man knelt at a manger low,
A Babe lay in the stall;
The starlight played on the Infant brow,
Deep silence lay o'er all:
A maiden bent o'er the Babe in prayer:—
There is the King! O there! O there!
O there is the King! O there!

3 My heart for very joy doth leap,
My lips no more can silence keep;
I, too, must sing with joyful tongue

4 Glory to God in highest heaven,

While angels sing with pious mirth.

FROM the eastern mountains
Pressing on they come,
Wise men in their wisdom
To His humble home;
Stirred by deep devotion,
Hasting from afar,
Ever journeying onward,
Guided by a star.

REFRAIN—Light of life that shinedst,
Ere the world began;
Draw Thou near, and lighten
Every heart of man.

2 There their Lord and Saviour
Meek and lowly lay,
Wondrous light that led them
Onward on their way,
Ever now to lighten
Nations from afar,
As they journey homeward
By that guiding star.—REF.

3 Thou who in a manger
Once hast lowly lain,

Who dost now in glory
O'er all kingdoms reign,
Gather in the heathen,
Who in lands afar
Ne'er have seen the brightness
Of Thy guiding star.—REF.

4 Onward through the darkness
Of the lonely night,
Shining still before them
With Thy kindly light,
Guide them, Jew and Gentile,
Homeward from afar,
Young and old together,
By Thy guiding star.—REF.

5 Until every nation,
Whether bond or free,
'Neath Thy starlit banner,
Jesus, follows Thee
O'er the distant mountains
To that heavenly home,
Where nor sin nor sorrow
Evermore shall come.—REF.

CHRISTMAS CAROL P. M.

Tr. by John Mason Neale 1851

From Hutchins' Children's Hymnal by permission.

215

SLEEP, my Saviour, sleep,
 On Thy bed of hay,
 Angels in the spangled heaven
 Sing their glad some Christmas carols
 Till the dawn of day.

2 Sleep, my Saviour, sleep,
 On Thy bed of hay,
 Ere the mourning angel cometh
 To the moon-lit olive garden,
 Wiping tears away.

3 Sleep, my Saviour, sleep,
 Sweet on Mary's breast,
 Now the shepherds kneel adoring,
 Now the mother's heart is joyous,
 Take a happy rest.

4 Sleep, my Saviour, sleep,
 Sweet on Mary's breast;
 Crucified, with wounds and bruised,
 Bleeding, purple, stained, disfigured,
 One day Thou wilt rest.

- Thou didst leave Thy throne and Thy crown
 When Thou camest to earth for me:
 But in Bethlehem's home there was found
 For Thy holy nativity.
 O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
 There is room in my heart for Thee.
- 2 Heaven's arches rang when the angels sang,
 Proclaiming Thy royal degree;
 But of lowly birth cam'st Thou, Lord, on earth,
 And in great humility. REF.
- 3 The foxes found rest, and the bird its nest
 In the shade of the cedar tree;
- But Thy couch was the sod, O Thou Son of
 In the deserts of Galilee. REF. [God,
 4 Thou camest, Lord, with the living word
 That should set Thy children free;
 But with mocking scorn, and with crown of thorn,
 They bore Thee to Calvary: REF.
- 5 When heaven's arch shall ring and her choirs shall sing
 At Thy coming to victory,
 Let Thy voice call me home, saying, "Yet there is room
 There is room at My side for thee:"
 And my heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus,
 When Thou comest and callest for me.

 God from all eternity,
 Born as man to live and die—
 Hear us, Holy Jesus.
- 2 Leaving Thine eternal throne,
 Making mortal cares Thine own,
 Making God's compassion known—
 Hear us, Holy Jesus.
- 3 By Thy life, so lone and still,
 By Thy waiting to fulfil
- In its time Thy Father's will—
 Hear us, Holy Jesus.
- 4 May we mark the pattern fair
 Of Thy life of work and prayer,
 And for truth all perils dare—
 Hear us, Holy Jesus.

 And forever perfect be,
 Where Thy glory we shall see—
 Hear us, Holy Jesus.

A PILGRIM through this lonely world,
The blessed Saviour passed;
A mourner all His life was He,
A dying Lamb at last.

2 That tender heart that felt for all,
For all its life-blood gave;
It found on earth no resting place,
Save only in the grave.

3 Such was our Lord; and shall we fear
The cross with all its scorn?
Or love a faithless, evil world,
That wreathed His brow with thorn?

4 No, facing all its frowns or smiles,
Like Him, obedient still,
We homeward press, through storm or calm,
To Zion's blessed hill.

Edward Denny 1839

219

O LORD, when we the path retrace
Which Thou on earth hast trod,
To man, Thy wondrous love and grace,
Thy faithfulness to God:—

2 Thy love, by man so sorely tried,
Proved stronger than the grave;
The very spear that pierced Thy side
Drew forth the blood to save.

3 Faithful amidst unfaithfulness,
Midst darkness only light,
Thou didst Thy Father's name confess,
And in His will delight.

4 O Lord, with sorrow and with shame,
We meekly would confess
How little we who bear Thy name,
Thy mind, Thy ways, express.

5 Give us Thy meek, Thy lowly mind:
We would obedient be;
And all our rest and pleasure find
In fellowship with Thee.

James George Deck 1842

220

O JESUS, when I think of Thee,
Thy manger, cross, and throne,
My spirit trusts exultingly
In Thee, and Thee alone.

2 I see Thee in Thy weakness first;
Then, glorious from Thy shame,
I see Thee death's strong fetters burst,
And reach heaven's mightiest name.

3 For me Thou didst become a man,
For me didst weep and die;
For me achieve Thy wondrous plan,
For me ascend on high.

4 O let me share Thy holy birth,
Thy faith, Thy death to sin!
And, strong amidst the toils of earth,
My heavenly life begin.

5 Then shall I know what means the strain
Triumphant of Saint Paul:
"To live is Christ, to die is gain;"
"Christ is my all in all."

BEHOLD, where in a mortal form
Appears each grace divine!
The virtues, all in Jesus met,
With mildest radiance shine.

2 To spread the rays of heavenly light,
To give the mourner joy,
To preach glad tidings to the poor,
Was His divine employ.

3 'Mid keen reproach, and cruel scorn,
Patient and meek He stood;
His foes, ungrateful, sought His life;
He labored for their good.

4 In the last hour of deep distress,
Before His Father's throne,
With soul resigned, He bowed, and said,
"Thy will, not Mine, be done!"

5 Be Christ our pattern and our guide;
His image may we bear;
O may we tread His holy steps,
His joy and glory share!

William Entfield 1772

222

WHAT grace, O Lord, and beauty shone
Around Thy steps below:
What patient love was seen in all
Thy life and death of woe.

2 Forever on Thy burdened heart
A weight of sorrow hung;
Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
Escaped Thy silent tongue.

3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove;

Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.

4 O give us hearts to love like Thee,
Like Thee, O Lord, to grieve,
Far more for others' sins, than all
The wrongs that we receive.

5 One with Thyself, may every eye
In us, Thy brethren, see
That gentleness and grace that spring
From union, Lord, with Thee.

Edward Denny 1839

223

JESUS! exalted far on high,
To whom a name is given —
A name surpassing every name,
That's known in earth or heaven!

2 Before whose throne shall every knee
Bow down with one accord;
Before whose throne shall every tongue
Confess that Thou art Lord:

3 Jesus, who in the form of God,
Didst equal honor claim;
Yet, to redeem our guilty souls,
Didst stoop to death and shame.

4 O may that mind in us be formed,
Which shone so bright in Thee;
An humble, meek, and lowly mind,
From pride and envy free.

5 May we to others stoop, and learn
To emulate Thy love;
So shall we bear Thine image here,
And share Thy throne above.

Thine arm, O Lord, in days of old,
Was strong to heal and save; It triumphed o'er disease and death,
O'er darkness and the grave.

To Thee they went, the blind, the dumb,
The palsied and the lame, The leper with his tainted life,
The sick with fevered frame.

224

THINE arm, O Lord, in days of old,
Was strong to heal and save;
It triumphed o'er disease and death,
O'er darkness and the grave:
To Thee they went, the blind, the dumb,
The palsied and the lame,
The leper with his tainted life,
The sick with fevered frame.

2 And lo, Thy touch brought life and [health,
Gave speech, and strength, and sight;
And youth renewed and frenzy calmed
Owned Thee, the Lord of Light:
And now, O Lord, be near to bless,
Almighty as of yore,
In crowded streets, by restless couch,
As by Gennesareth's shore.

3 Be Thou our great Deliverer still,
Thou Lord of life and death;
Restore and quicken, soothe and bless
With Thine almighty breath.
To hands that work and eyes that see
Give wisdom's heavenly lore,
That whole and sick, and weak and strong,
May praise Thee evermore.

Edward Hayes Plumtre 1866

2 Our outward lips confess the Name
All other names above;
Love only knoweth whence it came,
And comprehendeth love.

3 We may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For Him no depths can drown.

4 Nor holy bread, nor blood of grape
The lineaments restore
Of Him we know in outward shape
And in the flesh no more.

5 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is He;
And faith has still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.

6 The healing of His seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.

7 Through Him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame;
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with His name.

8 O Lord and Master of us all!
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own Thy sway, we hear Thy call,
We test our lives by Thine.

O, WHERE is He that trod the sea,
 O, where is He that spake,
 And demons from their victims flee,
 The dead their slumbers break;
 The palsied rise in freedom strong,
 The dumb men talk and sing,
 And from blind eyes, benighted long,
 Bright beams of morning spring.

2 O, where is He that trod the sea,
 O, where is He that spake,
 And dark waves, rolling heavily,
 A glassy smoothness take;
 And lepers, whose own flesh has been
 A solitary grave,
 See with amaze that they are clean,
 And cry, 'T is He can save.

3 O, where is He that trod the sea,
 'T is only He can save;
 To thousands hungering wearily,
 A wondrous meal He gave;
 Full soon, with food celestial fed,
 Their mystic fare they take;
 'T was springtide when He blest the bread,
 And harvest when He brake.

4 O, where is He that trod the sea;
 My soul, the Lord is here:
 Let all thy fears be hushed in thee;
 To leap, to look, to hear,
 Be thine: thy needs He 'll satisfy:
 Art thou diseased, or dumb?
 Or dost thou in thy hunger cry?
 "I come," saith Christ, "I come."

As oft, with worn and weary feet,
We tread earth's rugged valley o'er,
The thought, how comforting and sweet,
Christ trod this very path before!
Our wants and weaknesses He knows,
From life's first dawning to its close.

2 Do sickness, feebleness or pain
Or sorrow in our path appear?
The recollection will remain,
More deeply did He suffer here:
His life, how truly sad and brief,
Filled up with suffering and with grief.

3 If Satan tempt our hearts to stray
And whisper evil things within,
So did he, in the desert way,
Assail our Lord with thoughts of sin,
When worn and in a feeble hour
The tempter came with all his power.

4 Just such as I, this earth He trod,
With every human ill but sin;
And though indeed the Son of God,
As I am now, so He has been.
My God, my Saviour, look on me
With pity, love, and sympathy.

FIERCE was the wild billow,
Dark was the night,
Oars labored heavily,
Foam glimmered white,
Trembled the mariners,
Peril was nigh;
Then said the God of God,
"Peace! It is I!"

2 Ridge of the mountain-wave
Lower thy crest!
Wail of Euroclydon,
Be thou at rest!

Sorrow can never be,
Darkness must fly,
Where saith the Light of light,
"Peace! It is I!"

3 Jesus, Deliverer,
Come Thou to me:
Soothe Thou my voyaging
Over life's sea;
Thou, when the storm of death
Roars, sweeping by,
Whisper, Thou Truth of truth,
"Peace! It is I!"

Still with healing words replying

Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,
When, where'er, it may befall,
Lay we humbly at Thy feet,

Need a brother's, sister's care;
On Thy higher help relying

May we now their burden share,
Bringing all our offerings meet,
Suppliants at Thy mercy seat.

Willing both in hand and heart,
All the law of love fulfilling,
Ever comfort to impart;

How sweetly flowed the gospel's sound
From lips of gentleness and grace,
When listening thousands gathered round,
And joy and reverence filled the place.

2 From heaven He came, of heaven He spoke,
To heaven He led His followers' way;
Dark clouds of gloomy night He broke,
Unveiling an immortal day.

3 "Come, wanderers, to My Father's home,
Come, all ye weary ones, and rest;"
Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,
Obey Thee, love Thee, and be blessed.

My dear Redeemer and my Lord,
I read my duty in Thy word;
But in Thy life the law appears,
Drawn out in living characters.

2 Such was Thy truth, and such Thy zeal,
Such deference to Thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
Witnessed the fervor of Thy prayer;

The desert Thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict and Thy victory too.

4 Be Thou my pattern; make me bear
More of Thy gracious image here;
Then God, the Judge, shall own my name
Among the followers of the Lamb.

Howauteous were the marks divine,
That in Thy meekness used to shine,
That lit Thy lonely pathway, trod
In wondrous love, O Son of God.

2 O who like Thee, so mild, so bright,
Thou Son of Man, Thou Light of Light,
O who like Thee did ever go
So patient, through a world of woe?

3 O who like Thee, so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men, before?
So meek, so lowly, yet so high,
So glorious in humility?

4 And death, that sets the prisoner free,
Was pang, and scoff, and scorn to Thee;
Yet love through all Thy torture glowed,
And mercy with Thy life-blood flowed.

5 O wondrous Lord, my soul would be Still more and more conformed to Thee,
And learn of Thee, the lowly One,
And like Thee, all my journey run.

O LOVE! how deep, how broad, how high!
It fills the heart with ecstasy,
That God, the Son of God, should take
Our mortal form for mortals' sake.

2 He sent no angel, to our race,
Of higher or of lower place,
But wore the robe of human frame
Himself, and to this lost world came.

3 For us He prayed, for us He taught,
For us His daily works He wrought,
He bore the shameful cross and death;
For us at length gave up His breath.

4 For us He rose from death again,
For us He went on high to reign,

For us He sent his Spirit here
To guide, to strengthen and to cheer.

WHEN, like a stranger on our sphere,
The lowly Jesus sojourned here,
Where'er He went, affliction fled,
And sickness reared her drooping head.

2 The eye that rolled in irksome night
Beheld His face, for He was light;
The opening ear, the loosened tongue,
His precepts heard, His praises sung.

3 His touch the outcast leper healed,
His lips the sinner's pardon sealed;
Warm tears o'er Lazarus He shed,
Then spake the word that raised the dead

WHEN, His salvation bringing,
To Zion Jesus came,
The children all stood singing
Hosanna to His name.
Nor did their zeal offend Him,
But as He rode along,
He let them still attend Him,
And smiled to hear their song.

2 And since the Lord retaineth
His love to children still,
Though now as King He reigneth
On Zion's heavenly hill;
We'll flock around His banner,
We'll bow before His throne,
And cry aloud, Hosanna
To David's royal Son.

3 For should we fail proclaiming
Our great Redeemer's praise,
The stones, our silence shaming,
Would their hosannas raise.
But shall we only render
The tribute of our words?
No; while our hearts are tender,
They too shall be the Lord's.

Are praising Thee on high;
And mortal men, and all things

The people of the Hebrews
With palms before Thee went:
Our praise and prayer and anthems
Before Thee we present.

3 To Thee before Thy passion
They sang their hymns of praise:

Our melody we raise.

Accept the prayers we bring,

Thou good and gracious King.

He comes, who contrite sinners
Will with the children place,
The children of His Father,
The heirs of life and grace.

FIERCE raged the tempest o'er the deep,
Watch did Thine anxious servants keep,
But Thou wast wrapped in guileless sleep,
Calm and still.

2 "Save, Lord; we perish," was their cry;
O save us in our agony!"—
Thy word above the storm rose high,
"Peace be still."

3 The wild winds hushed, the angry deep
Sank, like a little child, to sleep,
The sullen billows ceased to leap,
At Thy will.

4 So, when our life is clouded o'er,
And storm-winds drift us from the shore,
Say, lest we sink to rise no more,
"Peace, be still."

EVER patient, gentle, meek,
Holy Saviour! was Thy mind;
Vainly in myself I seek Likeness to my Lord to find;
Yet that mind which was in Thee,
May be, must be formed in me.

2 Days of toil, 'mid throngs of men,
Vexed not, ruffled not Thy soul;
Still collected, calm, serene,
Thou each feeling couldst control:
Lord, that mind which was in Thee,
May be, must be formed in me.

3 Though such griefs were Thine to bear,
For each sufferer Thou could'st feel;
Every mourner's burden share,
Every wounded spirit heal;
Saviour! let Thy grace in me
Form that mind which was in Thee.

4 When my pain is most intense,
Let Thy cross my lesson prove:
Let me hear Thee e'en from thence,
Breathing words of peace and love:
Saviour! let Thy grace in me
Form that mind which was in Thee.

O MEAN may seem this house of clay,
Yet 't was the Lord's abode;
Our feet may mourn this thorny way,
Yet here Immanuel trod.

2 This fleshly robe the Lord did wear;
This watch the Lord did keep;
These burdens sore the Lord did bear;
These tears the Lord did weep!

3 'This world the Master overcame;
This death the Lord did die:

O vanquished world! O glorious shame!
O hallowed agony!

4 O vale of tears, no longer sad,
Wherein the Lord did dwell!
O holy robe of flesh that clad
Our own Immanuel!

5 Our very frailty brings us near Unto the Lord of heaven;
To every grief, to every tear,
Such glory strange is given.

SWEET the moments, rich the blessing,

Life and health and peace possessing,
Through the sinner's dying Friend.
Here we sit, in wonder, viewing
Mercy poured in streams of blood;
Precious drops, our souls bedewing,

2 Truly blessed is the station,
Low before His cross to lie,
While we see divine compassion
Beaming in His gracious eye.

Lord in ceaseless contemplation
Fix our hearts and eyes on Thee,
Till we taste Thy whole salvation,
And Thine unveiled glories see.

3 For Thy sorrows we adore Thee,
For the pains that wrought our peace;
Gracious Saviour, we implore Thee,
In our hearts Thy love increase.

While upon the Lamb we gaze;
And our thoughts are all of heaven,
And our lips o'erflow with praise.

THE royal banners forward go,
The cross shines forth in mystic glow;
Where He in flesh, our flesh who made,
Our sentence bore, our ransom paid.

2 There while He hung, His sacred side
By soldier's spear was opened wide,
To cleanse us in the precious flood
Of water mingled with His blood.

3 To Thee, Eternal Three in One,
Let homage meet by all be done;
As by the cross Thou dost restore,
So rule and guide us evermore.

Of Him who died upon the cross;

2 Inscribed upon the cross we see,
In shining letters, "God is Love;"
He bears our sins upon the tree,
He brings us mercy from above.

3 The cross! it takes our guilt away;
It holds the fainting spirit up:

It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
And sweetens every bitter cup.

4 It makes the coward spirit brave,
And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
It takes its terror from the grave,
And gilds the bed of death with light:

5 The balm of life, the cure of woe,
The measure and the pledge of love,
The sinner's refuge here below,
The angels' theme in heaven above.

O COME, and mourn with me awhile;
O come ye to the Saviour's side;
O come, together let us mourn;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

2 Have we no tears to shed for Him,
While soldiers scoff and Jews deride?
Ah, look how patiently He hangs;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

3 How fast His hands and feet are nailed;
His throat with parching thirst is dried;
His failing eyes are dimmed with blood,
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

4 Seven times He spake, seven words of love;
And all three hours His silence cried
For mercy on the souls of men;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

5 Come, let us stand beneath the cross;
So may the blood from out His side
Fall gently on us drop by drop;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

6 A broken heart, a fount of tears
Ask, and they will not be denied;
Lord Jesus, may we love and weep,
Since Thou for us art crucified.

'Tis midnight; and on Olive's brow
The star is dimmed that lately shone:
'Tis midnight; in the garden, now,
The suffering Saviour prays alone.

2 'Tis midnight; and from all removed,
The Saviour wrestles lone with fears;
E'en that disciple whom He loved
Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.

3 'Tis midnight; and for others' guilt
The Man of Sorrows weeps in blood;
Yet He that hath in anguish knelt
Is not forsaken by His God.

4 'Tis midnight; and from ether-plains
Is borne the song that angels know;
Unheard by mortals are the strains
That sweetly soothe the Saviour's woe.

William Bingham Tappan 1862

"'Tis finished!" so the Saviour cried,
And meekly bowed His head, and died:
"'Tis finished!" yes, the race is run,
The battle fought, the victory won.

2 'Tis finished! all that heaven decreed,
And all the ancient Prophets said
Is now fulfilled, as was designed,
In Me, the Saviour of mankind.

3 'Tis finished! this My dying groan
Shall sins of every kind atone;
Millions shall be redeemed from death,
By this My last expiring breath.

4 'Tis finished! let the joyful sound
Be heard through all the nations round;
'Tis finished! let the echo fly
Thro' heaven and hell, thro' earth and sky.

WHEN I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to His blood.
3 See, from His head, His hands, His feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down:
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
4 His dying crimson, like a robe,
Spreads o'er His body on the tree:
Then am I dead to all the globe,
And all the globe is dead to me.
5 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small:
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

LORD JESUS, when we stand afar
And gaze upon Thy holy cross,

In love of Thee and scorn of self,
O may we count the world as loss.
2 When we behold Thy bleeding wounds,
And the rough way that Thou hast trod,
Make us to hate the load of sin
That lay so heavy on our God.
3 O holy Lord, uplifted high
With outstretched arms, in mortal woe,
Embracing in Thy wondrous love
The sinful world that lies below;

To gaze beyond the things we see;
And, in the mystery of Thy death,
Draw us and all men unto Thee.

THERE is a green hill far away,
 Without a city wall,
 Where the dear Lord was crucified,
 Who died to save us all.
 2 We may not know, we cannot tell
 What pains He had to bear;
 But we believe it was for us
 He hung and suffered there.
 3 He died that we might be forgiven;
 He died to make us good,

 Saved by His precious blood.
 4 There was no other good enough
 To pay the price of sin;

I SAW One hanging on a tree,
In agony and blood,
Who fixed His languid eyes on me,
As near His cross I stood.

2 Sure, never till my latest breath,
Can I forget that look;
It seemed to charge me with His death,
Though not a word He spoke.

3 A second look He gave, which said,
"I freely all forgive;
This blood is for thy ransom paid;
I die that thou may'st live."

4 Thus while His death my sin displays
In all its blackest hue,
Such is the mystery of grace,
It seals my pardon too.

John Newton 1779

2 Sweet resting-place of every heart
That feels the plague of sin,
Yet knows that deep mysterious joy,
The peace of God within.

3 There, through Thine hour of deepest woe,
Thy suffering spirit passed;
Grace there its wondrous victory gained,
And love endured its last.

4 Dear suffering Lamb, Thy bleeding wounds,
With cords of love divine,
Have drawn our willing hearts to Thee,
And linked our life with Thine.

5 Thy sympathies and hopes are ours:
Dear Lord, we wait to see
Creation, all—below, above,
Redeemed and blest by Thee.

257

To Calvary, Lord, in spirit now,
Our weary souls repair,
To dwell upon Thy dying love,
And taste its sweetness there.

Once wrung with bitterest anguish, wear
Its crown of glory now.

ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed,
And did my Sovereign die?
Would He devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

2 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut His glories in,

When God, the mighty Maker, died
For man, the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face
While His dear cross appears:
Dissolve, my heart, in thankfulness!
And melt, mine eyes, to tears!

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

2 What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered
Was all for sinner's gain:
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But Thine the deadly pain:
Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
'Tis I deserve Thy place;
Look on me with Thy favor,
Vouchsafe to me Thy grace.

My sins, my sins, my Saviour!
Their guilt I never knew
Till, with Thee, in the desert
I near Thy passion drew;
Till, with Thee, in the garden,
I heard Thy pleading prayer,
And saw the sweat-drops bloody,
That told Thy sorrow there.

3 The joy can ne'er be spoken,
Above all joys beside,
When in Thy body broken,
I thus with safety hide:
My Lord of life, desiring
Thy glory now to see,
Beside the cross expiring,
I'd breathe my soul to Thee.

2 Therefore my songs, my Saviour,
E'en in this time of woe,
Shall tell of all Thy goodness
To suffering man below.
Thy goodness and Thy favor,
Whose presence from above,
Rejoice those hearts, my Saviour
That live in Thee and love.

PART I.

JESUS, in Thy dying woes,
Even while Thy life-blood flows,
Craving pardon for Thy foes:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

2 Saviour, for our pardon sue,
When our sins Thy pangs renew,
For we know not what we do:

3 O may we, who mercy need,
Be like Thee in heart and deed,
When with wrong our spirits bleed:

PART II.

JESUS, pitying the sighs
Of the thief, who near Thee dies,
Promising him paradise:

2 May we in our guilt and shame,
Still Thy love and mercy claim,
Calling humbly on Thy name:

3 O remember us who pine,
Looking from our cross to Thine;
Cheer our souls with hope divine:

PART III.

JESUS, loving to the end
Her whose heart Thy sorrows rend,
And Thy dearest human friend:

2 May we in Thy sorrows share,
And for Thee all peril dare,
And enjoy Thy tender care:

3 May we all Thy loved ones be,
All one holy family,
Loving for the love of Thee:

PART IV.

JESUS, whelmed in fears unknown,
With our evil left alone,
While no light from heaven is shown:

2 When we vainly seem to pray,
And our hope seems far away,
In the darkness be our stay:

3 Though no Father seem to hear,
Though no light our spirits cheer,
Tell our faith that God is near:

PART V.

JESUS, in Thy thirst and pain,
While Thy wounds Thy life-blood drain,
Thirsting more our love to gain:

2 Thirst for us in mercy still;
All thy holy work fulfil,— Satisfy Thy loving will:

3 May we thirst Thy love to know;
Lead us in our sin and woe
Where the healing waters flow:

PART VI.

JESUS,—all our ransom paid,
All Thy Father's will obeyed,
By Thy sufferings perfect made:

2 Save us in our souls' distress,
Be our help to cheer and bless,
While we grow in holiness:

3 Brighten all our heavenward way,
With an ever holier ray,
Till we pass to perfect day:

PART VII.

JESUS,—all Thy labor vast,
All Thy woe and conflict past,—
Yielding up Thy soul at last:

2 When the death shades round us lower,
Guard us from the tempter's power,
Keep us in that trial hour:

3 May Thy life and death supply
Grace to live and grace to die,
Grace to reach the home on high:

Like a trumpet silver-clear:

Words of peace that voice has spoken,
Peace that shall no more be broken,
Peace between the soul and God.

Traced so deeply in the smiting

ALL is o'er, the pain, the sorrow,
Human taunts and fiendish spite;
Death shall be despoiled to-morrow
Of the prey he grasps to-night;
Yet once more to seal his doom,
Christ must sleep within the tomb.

2 Close and still the cell that holds Him,
While in brief repose He lies;
Deep the slumber that enfolds Him,
Veiled awhile from mortal eyes;
Slumber such as needs must be
After hard-won victory.

3 Fierce and deadly was the anguish,
Which on yonder cross He bore;
How did soul and body languish,
Till the toil of death was o'er:
But that toil, so fierce and dread,
Bruised and crushed the serpent's head.

4 Now to-night, with plaintive voicing,
Chant His requiem soft and low;
Loftier strain of loud rejoicing
From to-morrow's harps shall flow:
"Death and hell at length are slain,
Christ hath triumphed, Christ doth reign."

SING, my tongue! the Saviour's glory;
 Tell His triumphs far and wide;
 Tell aloud the wondrous story
 Of His body crucified;
 How upon the cross a victim,
 Vanquishing in death He died.

2 Such the order God appointed
 When for sin He would atone;
 To the serpent thus opposing Schemes yet deeper than his own;
 Thence the remedy procuring,
 Whence the fatal wound had come.

3 Thus did Christ to perfect manhood
 In our mortal flesh attain:
 Then of His free choice He goeth
 To a death of bitter pain;
 He, the Lamb, upon the altar
 Of the cross, for us was slain.

4 Lo, with gall His thirst He quenches!
 See the thorns upon His brow!
 Nails His hands and feet are rending!
 See, His side is open now!
 Whence, to cleanse the whole creation,
 Streams of blood and water flow.

Hark, the voice of love and mercy Sounds aloud from Calvary;

See, it rends the rocks asunder, Shakes the earth and veils the sky:

“It is finished!” “It is finished!” Hear the dying Saviour cry.

Go to dark Geth - se - ma - ne, Ye that feel the tempt - er's power; Your Redeemer's con - flict see,

270

Go to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel the tempter's power;
Your Redeemer's conflict see,
Watch with Him one bitter hour:
Turn not from His griefs away,
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

2 Follow to the judgment-hall,
View the Lord of life arraigned;
O the wormwood and the gall!
O the pangs His soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame or loss;
Learn of Him to bear the cross.

3 Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
There, adoring at His feet,
Mark that miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete:
"It is finished," hear the cry;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

4 Early hasten to the tomb,
Where they laid His breathless clay:
All is solitude and gloom;
Who hath taken Him away?
Christ is risen; He meets our eyes;
Saviour, teach us so to rise.

James Montgomery 1819

271

RESTING from His work to-day,
In the tomb the Saviour lay;
Still He slept, from head to feet
Shrouded in the winding sheet,
Lying in the rock alone,
Hidden by the sealed stone.

2 Late at even there was seen
Watching long the Magdalene;
Early, ere the break of day,
Sorrowful she took her way
To the holy garden glade,
Where her buried Lord was laid.

3 So with Thee, till life shall end,
I would solemn vigil spend;
Let me hew Thee, Lord, a shrine
In this rocky heart of mine,
Where in pure embalméd cell
None but Thee may ever dwell.

4 Myrrh and spices will I bring,
True affection's offering;
Close the door from sight and sound
Of the busy world around;
And in patient watch remain
Till my Lord appear again.

HARK, the voice of love and mercy
Sounds aloud from Calvary;
See, it rends the rocks asunder,
Shakes the earth and veils the sky:
"It is finished!"
Hear the dying Saviour cry.

2 "It is finished!" O what pleasure
Do these charming words afford!
Heavenly blessings, without measure

Flow to us from Christ the Lord:
"It is finished!"
Saints, the dying words record.

3 Tune your harps anew, ye seraphs,
Join to sing the pleasing theme;
All on earth and all in heaven,
Join to praise Immanuel's name:
Hallelujah!
Glory to the bleeding Lamb.

THE GRAVE OF JESUS 8s. D.

J. FARMER

273

By Jesus' grave on either hand,
While night is brooding o'er the land,
||:The sad and silent mourners stand.:||
At last the weary life is o'er,
The agony and conflict sore,
||:Of Him who all our sufferings bore.:||

2 O hearts bereaved and sore distressed,
Here is for you a place of rest;
||:Here leave your griefs on Jesus' breast.:||
So when the Dayspring from on high
Shall chase the night and fill the sky,
||:Then shall the Lord again draw nigh.:||

So rest, our Rest,
Thou ever blest,
Thy grave with sinners making:
By Thy precious death, from sin
Our dead souls awaking.

2 Here hast Thou lain
After much pain,
Life of our life, reposing:
Round Thee now a rock-hewn grave,
Rock of Ages, closing.

3 Breath of all breath!
We know from death
Thou wilt our dust awaken:

Wherefore should we dread the grave,
Or our faith be shaken?

4 The body dies,—
Naught else,—and lies
In dust until victorious
From the grave it shall arise
Beautiful and glorious.

5 Meantime we will,
O Jesus, still
Deep in remembrance lay Thee,
Musing on Thy death; in death
Be with us, we pray Thee.

 Where all the wicked from their troubling Thy tranquil Sabbath in the grave to keep:
 Thy Father giveth His beloved sleep.

3 Yet in Thy glory, on the throne above,
 Thou wast abiding ever, Lord of love,
 Eternal, filling all created things
 With Thine own presence, Jesus, King of kings!

4 E'en now our place is with Thee on the throne,
 For Thou abidest ever with Thine own;
 Yet in the tomb with Thee, we watch for day;
 O let Thine angels roll the stone away!

THOU sore oppressed, the Sabbath-rest
 In yon still grave art keeping:
 All thy labor now is done,
 Past is all Thy weeping.

2 The strife is o'er, naught hurts Thee more:
 The heart at last hath slumbered
 That in conflict sore for us
 Bore our sins unnumbered.

3 Thou awful tomb, once filled with gloom,
 How blessed and how holy Art thou now, since in the grave
 Slept the Saviour lowly!

4 How calm and blest, the dead now rest
 Who in the Lord departed:
 All their works do follow them,
 Yea, they sleep glad-hearted!

5 O lead us Thou to rest e'en now,
 With all who, sorely anguished
 'Neath the burden of their sins,
 Long in woe have languished.

6 O Lord, our Rock, soon grant Thy flock
 To see Thy Easter morning:
 Strife and pain will all be past
 When that day is dawning.

COME, ye faithful, raise the strain
Of triumphant gladness!
God hath brought His Israel
Into joy from sadness,
Loosed from Pharaoh's bitter yoke
Jacob's sons and daughters,
Led them with unmoistened foot
Through the Red sea waters.

2 'Tis the spring of souls to-day:
Christ hath burst His prison,
From the frost and gloom of death
Light and life have risen.
All the winter of our sins,
Long and dark, is flying
From His light to whom we give Thanks and praise undying.

3 Now the queen of seasons, bright
With the day of splendor,
With the royal feast of feasts,
Comes its joy to render;
Comes to glad Jerusalem,
Who, with true affection,
Welcomes in unwearied strains
Jesus' resurrection!
4 "Hallelujah!" now we cry
To our King Immortal,
Who, triumphant, burst the bars
Of the tomb's dark portal;
"Hallelujah" with the Son,
God the Father praising;
"Hallelujah" yet again
To the Spirit raising.

THE day of resurrection,
Earth, tell it out abroad:
The Passover of gladness,
The Passover of God.
From death to life eternal,
From earth unto the sky,
Our Christ hath brought us over,
With hymns of victory.

2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection-light;

And, listening to His accents,
May hear, so calm and plain,
His own "All hail!" and hearing,
May raise the victor-strain.

3 Now let the heavens be joyful;
Let earth her song begin;
Let the round world keep triumph
And all that is therein;
Invisible and visible,
Their notes let all things blend,
For Christ the Lord hath risen,
Our Joy that hath no end.

How calm and beautiful the morn,
 That gilds the sacred tomb,
 Where Christ the Crucified was borne,
 And veiled in midnight gloom!
 O weep no more the Saviour slain:
 The Lord is risen! He lives again!

2 Ye mourning saints, dry every tear
 For your departed Lord;
 "Behold the place, He is not here,"

The tomb is all unbarred:
 The gates of death were closed in vain:
 The Lord is risen! He lives again!

3 Now cheerful to the house of prayer
 Your early footsteps bend;
 The Saviour will Himself be there,
 Your advocate and friend:
 Once by the law your hopes were slain,
 But now in Christ ye live again.

Strides forth into the day.

Fast fettered He has lain;

 'Tis Thine own third morning, rise O buried Lord!
 "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.
- 6 Loose the souls long prisoned, bound with Satan's chain
 All that now is fallen raise to life again;
 Shew Thy face in brightness, bid the nations see:
 Bring again our daylight; day returns with Thee! [day!
 Hell to-day is vanquished, heaven is won to-day]

Golden harps are sounding,
 Angel voices sing,
 Pearly gates are opened,
 Opened for the King;
 Jesus, King of glory,
 Jesus, King of love,
 Is gone up in triumph
 To His throne above.

REFRAIN.—All His work is ended,
 Joyfully we sing;
 Jesus hath ascended!
 Glory to our King!

 He who bled and died,

Now is crowned with glory,
 At His Father's side.
 Never more to suffer,
 Never more to die;

He is gone; a cloud of light Has re-ceived Him from our sight; High in heaven where eye of men Fol- lows not, nor an- gel's ken; Through the veils of time and space, Passed in- to the holiest place: All the toil, the sor- row done, All the bat- tle fought and won.

298

HE is gone; a cloud of light
Has received Him from our sight;
High in heaven, where eye of men
Follows not, nor angels' ken;
Through the veils of time and space,
Passed in to the holiest place;
All the toil, the sorrow done,
All the battle fought and won.

2 He is gone; towards their goal
World and Church must onward roll:
Far behind we leave the past;
Forward are our glances cast:

Still His words before us range
Through the ages, as they change:
Wheresoe'er the truth shall lead,
He will give whate'er we need.

3 He is gone; but we once more
Shall behold Him as before;
In the heaven of heavens the same,
As on earth He went and came.
In the many mansions there,
Place for us He will prepare:
In that world unseen, unknown,
He and we shall yet be one.

God is gone up on high,
With a triumphant noise;
The anthems of the sky
Proclaim the angelic joys:
Join all on earth, rejoice and sing,
Glory ascribe to glory's King!

2 God in the flesh below,
For us He reigns above;
Let all the nations know
The Saviour's conquering love:
Join all on earth, rejoice and sing,
Glory ascribe to glory's King!

3 All power to our great Lord
Is by the Father given;
By angel hosts adored
He reigns supreme in heaven:
Join all on earth, rejoice and sing,
Glory ascribe to glory's King!

4 Till all the earth renewed
In righteousness divine,
With all the hosts of God,
In one great chorus join:
Join all on earth, rejoice and sing,
Glory ascribe to glory's King!

O SAVIOUR, who for man hast trod
The winepress of the wrath of God
Ascend, and claim again on high
Thy glory, left for us to die.

2 A radiant cloud is now Thy seat,
And earth lies stretched beneath Thy feet;
Ten thousand thousands round Thee sing,
And share the triumph of their King.

3 The angel-host enraptured waits:
"Lift up your heads, eternal gates!"
O God and Man! the Father's throne
Is now, for evermore, Thine own.

4 Our great High-Priest and Shepherd, Thou
Within the veil art entered now,
To offer there Thy precious blood,
Once poured on earth a cleansing flood

5 And thence the Church, Thy chosen bride,
With countless gifts of grace supplied,
Through all her members draws from Thee
Her hidden life of sanctity.

6 O Christ, our Lord, of Thy dear care
Thy lowly members heavenward bear;
Be ours with Thee to suffer pain,
With Thee for evermore to reign.

Glorious is the work achieved,—
Satan vanquished, man relieved!

3 Sing we then the Victor's praise;

Bid Him welcome to His throne:
He is worthy, He alone!

4 Place the crown upon His brow;
Every knee to Him shall bow:
Him the brightest seraph sings;
Heaven proclaims Him "King of kings!"

Joyful hallelujahs sing,

2 Who is this that comes in glory,
With the trump of jubilee?
Lord of battles, God of armies,
He has gained the victory;
He who on the cross did suffer,
He who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan,
He by death has spoiled His foes.

3 Thou hast raised our human nature
On the clouds to God's right hand,
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with Thee in glory stand;

Jesus reigns adored by angels,
Man with God is on the throne,
Mighty Lord, in Thine ascension
We by faith behold our own.

4 Lift us up from earth to heaven,
Give us wings of faith and love,
Gales of holy aspiration
Wafting us to realms above;
That, with hearts and minds uplifted,
We with Christ our Lord may dwell,
Where He sits enthroned in glory
In the heavenly citadel.

5 So at last, when He appeareth,
We from out our graves may spring,
With our youth renewed like eagles',
Flocking round our heavenly King,
Caught up on the clouds of heaven,
And may meet Him in the air,
Rise to realms where He is reigning,
And may reign forever there.

JESUS, Lord of life eternal,
 Taking those He loved the best,
 Stood upon the Mount of Olives,
 And His own the last time blessed:
 Then, though He had never left it,
 Sought again His Father's breast.

2 Knit is now our flesh to Godhead,
 Knit in everlasting bands:
 Call the world to highest festal:
 Floods and oceans, clap your hands:
 Angels, raise the song of triumph:
 Make response, ye distant lands.

3 Loosing death with all its terrors
 Thou ascended'st up on high;
 And to mortals, now immortal,
 Gavest immortality,
 As Thine own disciples saw Thee
 Mounting Victor to the sky.

Ancient of eternal days:
 God Eternal, Word Incarnate,
 Whom the heaven of heavens obeys.

2 Ere He raised the lofty mountains,
 Formed the sea, or built the sky,
 Love eternal, free, and boundless,
 Led the Lord of life to die:
 Lifted up the Prince of princes
 On the throne of Calvary.

3 Now on these eternal mountains
 Stands the sapphire throne, all bright,
 Where unceasing hallelujahs
 They upraise, the sons of light:
 Zion's people tell His praises,
 Victor after hard-won fight.

4 Bring your harps and bring your incense,
 Sweep the string and pour the lay;
 Let the earth proclaim His wonders,
 King of that celestial day.
 He, the Lamb once slain, is worthy,
 Who was dead and lives for aye.

Join all the glorious names
Of wisdom, love, and power,
That ever mortals knew,
That angels ever bore:
All are too mean to speak His worth,
Too mean to set my Saviour forth.

Offered His blood and died;
My guilty conscience seeks
No sacrifice beside:

His powerful blood did once atone,
And now it pleads before the throne.

His all-redeeming love,
His precious blood, to plead;
His blood atoned for all our race,
And sprinkles now the throne of grace.

3 The Father hears Him pray,
His dear anointed One:
He cannot turn away

The presence of His Son;
His Spirit answers to the blood,
And tells me I am born of God.

The weakness of our frame,
And how to shield us from the foes
Which He Himself o'ercame.4 Nor time, nor distance, e'er shall quench

3 Jesus, I hang upon Thy word;
I steadfastly believe
Thou wilt return, and claim me, Lord,
And to Thyself receive.
4 When God is mine, and I am His,
Of Paradise possessed,
I taste unutterable bliss,
And everlasting rest.

O Christ, our hope, our hearts' de - sire, Re - demption's on - ly spring,

Cre - a - tor of the world art Thou, Its Sav - iour and its King.

326

O CHRIST, our hope, our hearts' desire,
Redemption's only spring,
Creator of the world art Thou,
Its Saviour and its King.
2 How vast the mercy and the love,
Which laid our sins on Thee,
And led Thee to a cruel death,
To set Thy people free!
3 But now the bonds of death are burst,
The ransom has been paid;
And Thou art on Thy Father's throne
In glorious robes arrayed.
4 O may Thy mighty love prevail
Our sinful souls to spare;
O may we come before Thy throne,
And find acceptance there!

WITH joy we meditate the grace
Of our High Priest above;
His heart is made of tenderness,
His bosom glows with love.
2 Touched with a sympathy within,
He knows our feeble frame;
He knows what sore temptations mean,
For He hath felt the same.
3 He, in the days of feeble flesh,
Poured out His cries and tears;
And, in His measure, feels afresh
What every member bears.
4 Then let our humble faith address
His mercy and His power;
We shall obtain delivering grace
In the distressing hour.

He lives, the great Redeemer lives,
What joy the blest assurance gives;
And now, before His Father, God,
Pleads the full merits of His blood.

2 Repeated crimes awake our fears,
And justice, armed with frowns, appears;
But, in the Saviour's lovely face
Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace.

3 In every dark, distressful hour,
When sin and Satan join their power,
Let this dear hope repel the dart,
That Jesus bears us on His heart.

4 Great Advocate, Almighty Friend,
On Him our humble hopes depend;
Our cause can never, never fail,
For Jesus pleads, and must prevail.

O CHRIST, the Lord of heaven, to Thee,
Clothed with all majesty divine,
Eternal power and glory be,
Eternal praise, of right, is Thine.

2 Reign, Prince of life, that once Thy brow
Didst yield to wear the wounding thorn;
Reign, throned beside Thy Father now,
Adored the Son of God first-born!

3 From angel hosts that round Thee stand,
With forms more pure than spotless snow,
From the bright burning seraph band,
Let praise in loftiest numbers flow!

4 To Thee, the Lamb, our mortal songs,
Born of deep, fervent love, shall rise;
All honor to Thy name belongs,
Our lips would sound it through the skies.

5 "Jesus!"—all earth shall speak the word;
"Jesus!"—all heaven resound it still;
Immanuel, Saviour, Conqueror, Lord,
Thy praise the universe shall fill.

WHERE high the heavenly temple stands,
The house of God not made with hands,
A great High Priest our nature wears,
The patron of mankind appears.

2 He who for men in mercy stood,
And poured on earth His precious blood,
Pursues in heaven His plan of grace,
The guardian God of human race.

3 Though now ascended up on high,
He bends on earth a brother's eye;
Partaker of the human name,
He knows the frailty of our frame.

4 In every pang that rends the heart,
The Man of sorrows had a part;
He sympathizes in our grief,
And to the sufferer sends relief.

5 With boldness, therefore, at the throne,
Let us make all our sorrows known,
And ask the aid of heavenly power,
To help us in the evil hour.

1. Hail, Thou once des-pis-ed Je-sus, Hail, thou Gal-i-le-an King! Thou didst suf-fer Bearer of our sin and shame; By thy merits we find favor; Life is given through Thy name.

331

HAIL, Thou once despised Jesus,
Hail, Thou Galilean King!
Thou didst suffer to release us,
Thou didst free salvation bring:
Hail, Thou agonizing Saviour,
Bearer of our sin and shame;
By Thy merits we find favor;
Life is given through Thy name

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
All our sins on Thee were laid;
By almighty love anointed,
Thou hast full atonement made:
Al! Thy people are forgiven
Through the virtue of Thy blood;
Opened is the gate of heaven;
Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

3 Jesus, hail, enthroned in glory,
There forever to abide;
All the heavenly hosts adore Thee,
Seated at Thy Father's side.
There for sinners Thou art pleading;
There Thou dost our place prepare;
Ever for us interceding
Till in glory we appear.

4 Worship, honor, power, and blessing,
Thou art worthy to receive;
Loudest praises, without ceasing,
Meet it is for us to give.
Help, ye bright angelic spirits,
Bring your sweetest, noblest lays;
Help to sing our Saviour's merits,
Help to chant Immanuel's praise.

YES, for me, for me He careth
With a brother's tender care;
Yes, with me, with me He shareth
Every burden, every fear.
Yes, for me He standeth pleading
At the mercy-seat above;
Ever for me interceding,
Constant in untiring love.

2 Yes, in me, in me He dwelleth;
I in Him, and He in me!
And my empty soul He filleth,
Here and through eternity.
Thus I wait for His returning,
Singing all the way to heaven;
Such the joyful song of morning,
Such the tranquil song of even.

HALLELUJAH! sing to Jesus!
 His the sceptre, His the throne;
 Hallelujah! His the triumph,
 His the victory alone;
 Hark! the songs of peaceful Zion
 Thunder like a mighty flood;
 Jesus out of every nation
 Hath redeemed us by His blood.

2 Hallelujah! not as orphans
 Are we left in sorrow now;
 Hallelujah! He is near us,
 Faith believes, nor questions how:
 Though the cloud from sight received Him,
 When the forty days were o'er;
 Shall our hearts forget His promise,
 'I am with you evermore?'

3 Hallelujah! Bread of angels,
 Thou on earth our food, our stay!
 Hallelujah! hear the sinful
 Flee to Thee from day to day;
 Intercessor, Friend of sinners,
 Earth's Redeemer, plead for me,
 Where the songs of all the sinless
 Sweep across the crystal sea.

334

CHRIST, above all glory seated!
 King triumphant, strong to save!
 Dying, Thou hast death defeated;
 Buried, Thou hast spoiled the grave.
 Thou art gone where now is given
 What no mortal might could gain;
 On the eternal throne of heaven,
 In Thy Father's power to reign.

2 There Thy kingdoms all adore Thee,
 Heaven above and earth below;
 While the depths of hell before Thee,
 Trembling and defeated, bow.
 We, O Lord, with hearts adoring,
 Follow Thee above the sky:
 Hear our prayers, Thy grace imploring,
 Lift our souls to Thee on high!

3 So, when Thou again in glory
 On the clouds of heaven shalt shine,
 We, Thy flock, may stand before Thee,
 Owned for evermore as Thine.
 Hail! all hail! in Thee confiding,
 Jesus, Thee shall all adore;
 In Thy Father's might abiding,
 With one Spirit evermore!

Crown Him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon His throne!
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own!
With His most precious blood,
From sin He set us free:
We hail Him as our matchless King
Through all eternity.

2 Crown Him, the Lord of Love!
Behold His hands and side!
Rich wounds, yet visible above
In beauty glorified!
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his burning eye,
At mysteries so bright.

3 Crown Him the Lord of Peace!
Whose power a sceptre sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
And all be prayer and praise:
His reign shall know no end,
And round His pierced feet,
Fair flowers of paradise extend
Their fragrance ever sweet.

4 Crown Him the Lord of heaven!
One with the Father known,
One with the Spirit through Him given
From yonder glorious throne!
To Thee be endless praise,
For Thou for us hast died!
Be Thou, O Lord, through endless days,
Adored and magnified!

HARK! 'tis the watchman's cry,
Wake, brethren, wake!
Jesus Himself is high;
Wake, brethren, wake!
Sleep is for sons of night;
Ye are children of the light;
Yours is the glory bright;
Wake, brethren, wake!

2 Call to each wakening band,
Watch, brethren, watch!
Clear is our Lord's command,
Watch, brethren, watch!
Be ye as men that wait
Always at their Master's gate,
E'en though He tarry late;
Watch, brethren, watch!

3 Hear we the Shepherd's voice,
Pray, brethren, pray!
Would ye His heart rejoice,
Pray, brethren, pray!
Sin calls for ceaseless fear,
Weakness needs the Strong One near,
Long as ye struggle here
Pray, brethren, pray!
4 Sound now the final chord,
Praise, brethren, praise!
Thrice holy is the Lord,
Praise, brethren, praise!
What more befits the tongues
Soon to join the angels' songs?
Whilst heaven the note prolongs,
Praise, brethren, praise!

IN us the hope of glory,
O risen Lord, art Thou;
The first-fruits of the Spirit
Are in us now.
2 O come in all Thy glory,
Our great Immanuel!
Come forth, our Prince and Saviour,
With us to dwell.

3 Bring Thine eternal Sabbath,
Bring Thine eternal day,
And cause all grief and sighing
To flee away.
4 To Thee, Almighty Father,
O Saviour, unto Thee,
To Thee, Creator-Spirit,
All glory be!

Edward Welton Eddis 1864

The Lord of might, from Sinai's brow,
 Gave forth His voice of thunder
 And Israel lay on earth below,
 Outstretched in fear and wonder.
 Beneath His feet was pitchy night,
 And at His left hand and His right
 The rocks were rent asunder.
 2 The Lord of love, on Calvary,
 A meek and suffering stranger,
 Upraised to heaven His languid eye,
 In nature's hour of danger.

For us He bore the weight of woe,
 For us He gave His blood to flow,
 And met His Father's anger.
 3 The Lord of love, the Lord of might,
 The King of all created,
 Shall back return to claim His right,
 On clouds of glory seated;
 With trumpet-sound and angel-song,
 And hallelujahs loud and long,
 O'er death and hell defeated.

LIGHT of the lonely pilgrim's heart,
 Star of the coming day!
 Arise, and with Thy morning beams
 Chase all our griefs away!

2 Come, blessed Lord! let every shore
 And answering island sing
 The praises of Thy royal name,
 And own Thee as their King.

3 Bid the whole earth, responsive now
 To the bright world above,
 Break forth in rapturous strains of joy
 In memory of Thy love.

4 Thine was the cross, with all its fruits
 Of grace and peace divine:

Be Thine the crown of glory now,
 The palm of victory Thine!

THE Lord will come and not be slow,
 His footsteps cannot err;
 Before Him righteousness shall go,
 His royal harbinger.

2 Mercy and truth that long were missed,
 Now joyfully are met;
 Sweet peace and righteousness have kissed,
 And hand in hand are set.

3 Truth from the earth, like to a flower,
 Shall bud and blossom then;
 And Justice, from her heavenly bower,
 Look down on mortal men.

AWAKE, awake, O Zion,
Put on thy strength divine,

Jerusalem the holy,
To purity restored ;
Meek bride all fair and lowly,
Go forth to meet thy Lord.

2 Jerusalem victorious
In triumph o'er her foes ;
Mount Zion, great and glorious,
Thy gates no more shall close.
Earth's millions shall assemble
Around Thine open door,
While hell and Satan tremble
And earth and heaven adore.

3 The Lamb who bore our sorrows
Comes down to earth again ;
No sufferer now, but Victor,
For evermore to reign.
To reign in every nation,
To rule in every zone ;
O world-wide coronation,
In every heart a throne !

4 Awake, awake, O Zion,
Thy bridal day draws nigh,
The day of signs and wonders,
And marvels from on high.
Thy sun uprises slowly,
But keep thou watch and ward ;
Fair bride, all pure and lowly,
Go forth to meet thy Lord.

Proclaim the Bridegroom near;

Up, up, ye heirs of glory!
The Bridegroom is at hand.

3 Our hope and expectation,

Arise, Thou Sun so longed for,

THE world is very evil;
The times are waxing late:
Be sober and keep vigil;
The Judge is at the gate;
The Judge who comes in mercy,
The Judge who comes in might,
To terminate the evil,
And vindicate the right.

2 Prepare we then to meet Him;
Let right to wrong succeed;
Let penitential sorrow
To heavenly gladness lead:
So may we sound His praises,
Who from destruction saved,
Bore with us in defilement,
And from defilement laved.

3 Far, far as we have wandered,
And deep as is our fall,
His mercies never fail us,
Who freely pardons all;
Who bids His grace abounding
Love's mightiness display,
And David's royal fountain
Purge every sin away.

345

JESUS came; the heavens adoring;
Came with peace from realms on high;
Jesus came for man's redemption,
Lowly came on earth to die:
Hallelujah!
Came in deep humility.

2 Jesus comes again in mercy,
When our hearts are bowed with care;
Jesus comes again in answer
To an earnest, heart-felt prayer;
Hallelujah!
Comes to save us from despair.

3 Jesus comes to hearts rejoicing,
Bringing news of sins forgiven;
Jesus comes in sounds of gladness,
Leading souls redeemed to heaven;
Hallelujah!
Now the gate of death is riven.

4 Jesus comes in joy and sorrow,
Shares alike our hopes and fears;
Jesus comes, whate'er befalls us,
Glads our hearts, and dries our tears;
Hallelujah!
Cheering e'en our failing years,

5 Jesus comes on clouds triumphant,
When the heavens shall pass away;
Jesus comes again in glory;

Let us then our homage pay,
Ever singing,
Till the dawn of endless day.

O'er the distant mountains breaking
Comes the reddening dawn of day;
Rise, my soul, from sleep awaking,
Rise, and sing, and watch, and pray;
'Tis thy Saviour,
On His bright returning way.

2 O Thou long-expected! weary
Waits my anxious soul for Thee,
Life is dark, and earth is dreary,
Where Thy light I do not see;
O my Saviour,
When wilt Thou return to me?

3 Nearer is my soul's salvation,
Spent the night, the day at hand;
Keep me in my lowly station,
Watching for Thee, till I stand,
O my Saviour,
In Thy bright, Thy promised land.

4 With my lamp well trimmed and burning,
Swift to hear and slow to roam,
Watching for Thy glad returning
To restore me to my home.
Come, my Saviour,
Thou hast promised: quickly come.

2 Earth can now but tell the story
 Of Thy bitter cross and pain;
 She shall yet behold Thy glory
 When Thou comest back to reign;
 Christ is coming!
 Let each heart repeat the strain.

3 Long Thy exiles have been pining,
 Far from rest, and home, and Thee;
 But, in heavenly vesture shining,
 Soon they shall Thy glory see;
 Christ is coming!
 Haste the joyous jubilee.

4 With that "blessed hope" before us,
 Let no harp remain unstrung;
 Let the mighty advent chorus
 Onward roll from tongue to tongue;
 Christ is coming!
 Come, Lord Jesus, quickly come!

He is coming, He is coming,
Not as once He came before,
Wailing Infant born in weakness
On a lowly stable floor:
But upon His cloud of glory,
In the crimson-tinted sky,
Where we see the golden sunrise
In the rosy distance lie.

2 He is coming, He is coming,
Not as once He wandered through
All the hostile land of Judah,
With His followers poor and few:

But with all the holy angels
Waiting round His judgment-seat,
And the chosen twelve Apostles
Sitting crowned at His feet.

3 He is coming, He is coming,
Let His lowly first estate,
And His tender love, so teach us
That in faith and hope we wait,
Till in glory eastward burning,
Our redemption draweth near;
And we see the sign in heaven
Of our Judge and Saviour dear.

THE Church has waited long
Her absent Lord to see;
And still in loneliness she waits,
A friendless stranger she.

2 Age after age has gone,
Sun after sun has set,
And still in weeds of widowhood,
She weeps, a mourner yet.

3 Saint after saint on earth
Has lived, and loved, and died;
And as they left us one by one,
We laid them side by side.

4 We laid them down to sleep,
But not in hope forlorn,
We laid them but to ripen there
Till the last glorious morn.

5 We long to hear Thy voice
To see Thee face to face.
To share Thy crown and glory there,
As here we share Thy grace.

6 Come, Lord, and wipe away
The curse, the sin, the stain,
And make this blighted world of ours
Thine own fair world again.

COME, Lord, and tarry not;

O why these years of waiting here,
These ages of delay?

2 Come, for Thy saints still wait;
Daily ascends their sigh:
The Spirit and the Bride say, "Come!"
Dost Thou not hear the cry?

3 Come, for the corn is ripe,
Put in Thy sickle now;
Reap the great harvest of the earth,
Sower and reaper Thou!

4 Come in Thy glorious might,
Come with the iron rod,
Scattering Thy foes before Thy face,
Most mighty Son of God!

5 Come, and make all things new,
Build up this ruined earth;
Restore our faded paradise,
Creation's second birth.

6 Come, and begin Thy reign
Of everlasting peace;
Come take the kingdom to Thyself,

Our blest Redeemer, ere He breathed
 His tender last farewell,
 A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed
 With us to dwell.

2 He came in semblance of a dove
 With sheltering wings outspread,
 The holy balm of peace and love
 On earth to shed.

3 He came sweet influence to impart,
 A gracious, willing Guest,
 While He can find one humble heart
 Wherein to rest.

4 And His that gentle voice we hear,
 Soft as the breath of even,
 That checks each thought, that calms each fear,
 And speaks of heaven.

5 And every virtue we possess,
 And every victory won,
 And every thought of holiness
 Is His alone.

SPIRIT of God! descend upon my heart;

Wean it from earth, through all its pulses move;Stoop to my weakness, mighty as Thou art,
And make me love Thee as I ought to love.2 I ask no dream, no prophet ecstasies;
No sudden rending of the veil of clay;No angel visitant, no opening skies;
But take the dimness of my soul away.3 Hast Thou not bid us love Thee, God and King? [and mind,
All, all Thine own, soul, heart, and strength,I see Thy cross, then teach my heart to cling!
O, let me seek Thee, and O, let me find!4 Teach me to feel that Thou art always nigh;
Teach me the struggles of the soul to bear;
To check the rising doubt, the rebel sigh;
Teach me the patience of unanswered prayer.5 Teach me to love Thee as Thine angels love;One holy passion filling all my frame;
The baptism of the heaven-descended Dove,
My heart an altar, and Thy love the flame!

Gracious Spir-it, Ho-ly Ghost, Taught by Thee, we covet most, Of Thy gifts at Pentecost, Holy, heavenly love.

356

GRACIOUS Spirit, Holy Ghost,
Taught by Thee, we covet most,
Of Thy gifts at Pentecost,
Holy, heavenly Love.2 Love is kind, and suffers long,
Love is meek, and thinks no wrong,
Love than death itself more strong:
Give us heavenly Love.3 Prophecy will fade away,
Melting in the light of day;Love will ever with us stay:
Give us heavenly Love.4 Faith will vanish into sight,
Hope be emptied in delight;
Love in heaven will shine more bright:
Give us heavenly Love.5 Faith and hope and love we see Joining hand in hand agree;
But the greatest of the three,
And the best, is Love.

Christopher Wordsworth 1862

COME, Holy Spirit, come!
 Mercies revealing;
 Make this cold heart Thine home;
 Quicken its feeling;
 Then shall my song ascend,
 Breathing glad love, and blend
 With notes that never end,
 Through heaven pealing.

2 Come like a ray of light
 Tranquilly beaming,
 Chasing the shades of night,
 Waking the dreaming;

Give me again to see,
 As it was wont to be,
 His love who ransomed me,
 From the cross streaming.

3 Come, Holy Spirit, come!
 Thou that delightest
 Gladness to give for gloom,
 And oft invitest
 Mourners in faith to go
 Where healing waters flow,
 Still let me pleasures know,
 Purest and brightest.

HOLY Ghost, the Infinite,
 Shine upon our nature's night
 With Thy blessed inward light,
 Comforter Divine!

2 We are sinful, cleanse us, Lord;
 We are faint, Thy strength afford;
 Lost, until by Thee restored,
 Comforter Divine!

3 Like the dew, Thy peace distil;
 Guide, subdue our wayward will,
 Things of Christ unfolding still,
 Comforter Divine!

4 In us, for us, intercede,
 And with voiceless groanings plead
 Our unutterable need,
 Comforter Divine!

5 In us "Abba, Father," cry,
 Earnest of our bliss on high,
 Seal of immortality,
 Comforter Divine!

6 Search for us the depths of God;
 Bear us up the starry road,
 To the height of Thine abode,
 Comforter Divine!

- WHEN God of old came down from heaven,
 In power and wrath He came;
 Before His feet the clouds were riven,
 Half darkness and half flame.
- 2 But when He came the second time,
 He came in power and love;
 Softer than gale at morning prime,
 Hovered His holy Dove.
- 3 The fires, that rushed on Sinai down
 In sudden torrents dread,
 Now gently light, a glorious crown,
 On every sainted head.
- 4 And, as on Israel's awe-struck ear
 The voice exceeding loud,
 The trump that angels quake to hear,
 Thrilled from the deep, dark cloud;
- 5 So, when the Spirit of our God
 Came down His flock to find,
 A voice from heaven was heard abroad,
 A rushing mighty wind.
- 6 Come, Lord, come wisdom, love, and
 Open our ears to hear; [power,
 Let us not miss the accepted hour;
 Save, Lord, by love or fear.

- WHY should the children of a King
 Go mourning all their days?
 Great Comforter, descend and bring
 Some token of Thy grace.
- 2 Dost Thou not dwell in all the saints,
 And seal the heirs of heaven?
 When wilt Thou banish my complaints,
 And show my sins forgiven?
- 3 Assure my conscience of her part
 In the Redeemer's blood;
 And bear Thy witness with my heart,
 That I am born of God.
- 4 Thou art the earnest of His love,
 The pledge of joys to come;
 And Thy soft wings, celestial Dove,
 Will safe convey me home.

- GREAT Father of each perfect gift,
 Behold Thy servants wait;
 With longing eyes and lifted hands,
 We flock around Thy gate.
- 2 O shed abroad that royal gift,
 Thy Spirit from above,
 To bless our eyes with sacred light,
 And fire our hearts with love.
- 3 Blest earnest of eternal joy,
 Declare our sins forgiven;
 And bear, with energy divine,
 Our raptured thoughts to heaven.
- 4 Diffuse, O God, Thy copious showers,
 That earth its fruit may yield,
 And change the barren wilderness
 To Carmel's flowery field.

SPIRIT Divine, attend our prayer,
And make this house Thy home;
Descend with all Thy gracious power,
Come, Holy Spirit, come!

2 Come as the fire, and purge our hearts,
Like sacrificial flame:

Let our whole soul an offering be
To our Redeemer's name.

3 Come as the wind, with rushing sound,
With Pentecostal grace;
And make the great salvation known,
Wide as the human race.

COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all Thy quickening powers,
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.

2 Look how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys:
Our souls can neither fly nor go
To reach eternal joys.

3 In vain we tune our formal songs,
In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live
At this poor dying rate,
Our love so faint, so cold, to Thee,
And Thine to us so great?

5 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all Thy quickening powers,
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

Isaac Watts 1707

NO TRACK is on the sunny sky,
No footprints on the air;
Jesus hath gone; the face of earth
Is desolate and bare.

2 That Upper Room is heaven on earth:
Within its precincts lie
All that earth has of faith, or hope,
Or heaven-born charity.

3 One moment—and the Spirit hung
O'er all with dread desire;
Then broke upon the heads of all
In cloven tongues of fire.

4 The Spirit came into the Church
With His unfailing power;
He is the living Heart that beats
Within her at this hour.

5 Most tender Spirit, mighty God,
Sweet must Thy presence be,
If loss of Jesus can be gain,
So long as we have Thee!

COME, Holy Spirit, come,
Let Thy bright beams arise,
Dispel the sorrow from our minds,
The darkness from our eyes.

2 Revive our drooping faith,
Our doubts and fears remove,
And kindle in our breasts the flame
Of never-dying love.

3 Convince us of our sin,
Then lead to Jesus' blood,
And to our wondering view reveal
The secret love of God.

4 'Tis Thine to cleanse the heart,
To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life in every part,
And new-create the whole.

5 Dwell therefore in our hearts,
Our minds from bondage free;

Then we shall know, and praise, and love
The Father, Son, and Thee!

Amid our gloom and darkness shine,

3 By Thine inspiring breath,

And e'en the gloomy vale of death,

LORD God the Holy Ghost,
In this accepted hour,
As on the day of Pentecost,
Descend in all Thy power!

2 Like mighty rushing wind
Upon the waves beneath,
Move with one impulse every mind,
One soul, one feeling breathe.

3 The young, the old, inspire
With wisdom from above,
And give us hearts and tongues of fire
To pray, and praise, and love.

O Spirit of adoption, now
May we be sanctified.

2 The light of truth to us display,
And make us know and choose Thy way:
Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from God may ne'er depart.

3 Lead us to holiness, the road
Which we must take to dwell with God:
Lead us to Christ, the living way,
Nor let us from His pastures stray.

4 Lead us to God, our final rest,
To be with Him for ever blest:
Lead us to heaven, that we may share
Fulness of joy for ever there.

COME, O Creator-Spirit blest,
And in our souls take up Thy rest;
Come, with Thy grace and heavenly aid,
To fill the hearts which Thou hast made.

2 Great Comforter, to Thee we cry;
O highest gift of God most high,
O fount of life, O fire of love,
And sweet anointing from above!

369

ETERNAL Spirit, we confess
And sing the wonders of Thy grace;
Thy power conveys our blessings down
From God the Father and the Son.

2 Enlightened by Thy heavenly ray,
Our shades and darkness turn to day;
Thine inward teachings make us know
Our danger and our refuge too.

3 Thy power and glory work within,
And break the chains of reigning sin;
Do our imperious lusts subdue,
And form our wretched hearts anew.

4 The troubled conscience knows Thy voice;
Thy cheering words awake our joys;
Thy words allay the stormy wind,
And calm the surges of the mind.

Shed on us from above
Thine own bright ray!
Divinely good Thou art;

To gladden each sad heart:
O come to-day!

2 Come, tenderest Friend, and best,
Our most delightful guest,
With soothing power:
Rest, which the weary know,
Shade, 'mid the noontide glow,
Peace, when deep griefs o'erflow,
Cheer us, this hour!

3 Come, Light serene, and still
Our inmost bosoms fill;
Dwell in each breast;

We know no dawn but Thine:
Send forth Thy beams divine,
On our dark souls to shine,
And make us blest!

4 Exalt our low desires;
Extinguish passion's fires;
Heal every wound:
Our stubborn spirits bend;
Our icy coldness end;
Our devious steps attend,
While heavenward bound.

5 Come, all the faithful bless;
Let all who Christ confess,
His praise employ:
Give virtue's rich reward;
Victorious death accord,
And, with our glorious Lord,
Eternal joy!

If thou wouldst My disciple be;
Deny thyself, the world forsake,

- O WHERE shall rest be found,
Rest for the weary soul?
'Twere vain the ocean-depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.
- 2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.
- 3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.
- 4 There is a death, whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath:
O what eternal horrors hang Around the second death.

- How kind our Father's voice!
All may draw near in prayer;
Cast down their burden at His feet,
And meekly leave it there.
- 2 His wisdom orders all,
His power not less controls;
His love makes all things work for good
To trusting, loving souls.
- 3 Sorrows, and fears, and cares,
But waste the heart and mind;
While they who humbly rest in God
Both strength and comfort find.
- 4 He grants their spirits peace,
And so He gives them power;
For still with peace comes mighty love,
Our greatest, holiest dower.

Draw near with praise and prayer;
Cast down your burden at His feet,
And meekly leave it there.

 I found in Him a resting place,
 And He has made me glad.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "Behold, I freely give
 The living water; thirsty one,
 Stoop down, and drink, and live."

I came to Jesus, and I drank
 Of that life-giving stream;
 My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
 And now I live in Him.

3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "I am this dark world's light;
 Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise,
 And all thy day be bright."
 I looked to Jesus, and I found
 In Him my star, my sun;
 And in that light of life I'll walk
 Till travelling days are done.

How pure the soul must be,
When placed within Thy searching sight,
It shrinks not, but, with calm delight
Can live, and look on Thee!

2 O! how shall I, whose native sphere
Is dark, whose mind is dim,
Before the Ineffable appear,
And on my naked spirit bear
That uncreated beam?

3 There is a way for man to rise
To that sublime abode:—
An offering and a sacrifice,
A Holy Spirit's energies,
An Advocate with God:—

Of Holiness above:

May dwell in the Eternal Light,

PILGRIM, burdened with thy sin,
Come the way to Zion's gate;
There, till mercy speaks within,
Knock, and weep, and watch, and wait:
Knock, He knows the sinner's cry;
Weep, He loves the mourner's tears;
Watch, for saving grace is nigh;
Wait, till heavenly grace appears.

2 Hark! it is the Saviour's voice,
"Welcome, pilgrim, to thy rest!"
Now within the gate rejoice,
Safe, and owned, and bought, and blest:

Safe, from all the lures of vice;
Owned, by joys the contrite know,
Bought, by love, and life the price;
Blest, the mighty debt to owe.

3 Holy pilgrim, what for thee
In a world like this remains?
From thy guarded breast shall flee
Fear, and shame, and doubts, and pains:
Fear, the hope of heaven shall fly,
Shame, from glory's view retire;
Doubt, in full belief shall die,
Pain, in endless bliss expire.

Does the Gospel word proclaim
 Rest for those that weary be?
 Then, my soul, put in thy claim,
 Sure that promise speaks to thee:
 Marks of grace I cannot show,
 All polluted is my best;
 But I weary am, I know,
 And the weary long for rest.

2 Burdened with a load of sin,
 Harrassed with tormenting doubt,
 Hourly conflicts from within,
 Hourly crosses from without;
 All my little strength is gone,
 Sink I must without supply;
 Sure upon the earth is none
 Can more weary be than I.

3 In the ark the weary dove
 Found a welcome resting-place;
 Thus my spirit longs to prove
 Rest in Christ, the Ark of grace.
 Tempest-tossed I long have been,
 And the flood increases fast;
 Open, Lord, and take me in,
 Till the storm be overpast.

SINNERS, turn, why will ye die?
 God, your Maker, asks you why;
 God, who did your being give,
 Made you with Himself to live;
 He the fatal cause demands,
 Asks the work of His own hands,
 Why, ye thankless creatures, why
 Will ye cross His love, and die?

2 Sinners, turn, why will ye die?
 God, your Saviour, asks you why;
 God who did your souls retrieve,
 Died Himself that ye might live:
 Will you let Him die in vain?
 Crucify your Lord again?
 Why, ye ransomed sinners, why
 Will you slight His grace, and die?

3 Sinners, turn, why will ye die?
 God, the Spirit, asks you why;
 He, who all your lives hath strove,
 Wooed you to embrace His love:
 Will you not His grace receive?
 Will you still refuse to live?
 Why, ye long-sought sinners, why
 Will ye grieve your God, and die?

Charles Wesley 1756

Where the Saviour deigns to die,
What melodious sounds I hear,
Bursting on my ravished ear:
"Love's redeeming work is done,

Why beneath thy burdens groan?
On My piercé body laid,
Justice owns the ransom paid:
Bow the knee, and kiss the Son,

See with richest dainties stored;
To thy Father's bosom pressed,
Yet again a child confessed,
Never from His house to roam:
Come and welcome, sinner, come.

4 "Soon the days of life shall end;
Lo I come, your Saviour, Friend,
Safe your spirits to convey
To the realms of endless day,
Up to My eternal home:
Come and welcome, sinner, come."

BENEATH the cross of Jesus
I fain would take my stand;
The shadow of a mighty rock
Within a weary land.
A home within the wilderness,
A rest upon the way,
From th' burning of the noon-tide heat,
And th' burden of the day.

2 Upon that cross of Jesus,
Mine eye at times can see
The very dying form of One
Who suffered there for me,

And from my smitten heart with tears,
Two wonders I confess,—
The wonders of His glorious love,
And my own worthlessness.

3 I take, O cross, thy shadow,
For my abiding place;
I ask no other sunshine
Than the sunshine of His face:
Content to let the world go by,
To know no gain nor loss,—
My sinful self, my only shame,—
My glory all the cross.

Heal me, O my Saviour, heal; Heal me as I suppliant kneel; Heal me, and my par-don seal.

418

HEAL me, O my Saviour, heal;
Heal me as I suppliant kneel;
Heal me, and my pardon seal.
2 Helpless, none can help me now;
Cheerless, none can cheer but Thou;
Suppliant, Lord, to Thee I bow.

3 Thou the true Physician art;
Thou, O Christ, canst health impart,
Binding up the bleeding heart.
4 Heal me, then, my Saviour, heal;
Heal me, as I suppliant kneel;
To Thy mercy I appeal.

Godfrey Thring 1866

A sin - ful man am I, There - fore I come to Thee,—
To Thee, the Ho - ly and the Just, That Thou may'st pit - y me.

419

A SINFUL man am I,
Therefore I come to Thee,—
To Thee, the Holy and the Just,
That Thou may'st pity me.

2 Wert Thou not holy, Lord,
Why should I come to Thee?
It is Thy holiness that makes
Thee, Lord, so meet for me.

3 Our God is love,—we come;
Our God is light,—we stay;
Abiding ever in His word,
And walking in His way.

4 Mercy and truth are His,
Unchanging faithfulness;
The cross is all our boast and trust,
And Jesus is our peace.

5 We give Thee glory, Lord;
Thy majesty adore,

Thee Father, Son, and Holy Ghost
We bless forevermore.

Horatius Bonar

420

AND wilt Thou pardon, Lord,
A sinner such as I?
Although Thy book his crimes record,
Of such a crimson dye?

2 So deep are they engraved,
So terrible their fear;—
The righteous scarcely shall be saved,
And where shall I appear?

3 O Thou, Physician blest,
Make clean my guilty soul!
And me, by many a sin oppressed,
Restore, and keep me whole!

4 I know not how to praise
Thy mercy and Thy love;
But deign Thy servant to upraise,
And I shall learn above.

O cease, my wandering soul, On restless wing to roam; All the wide world, to either pole, Has not for thee a home

421

O CEASE, my wandering soul,
On restless wing to roam;
All the wide world, to either pole,
Has not for thee a home.

2 Behold the ark of God
Behold the open door'

Hasten to gain that dear abode,
And rove, my soul, no more.

3 There safe thou shalt abide,
There sweet shall be thy rest,
And every longing satisfied,
With full salvation blest.

William Augustus Muhlenberg 1826.

422

O Thou, the contrite sinners' friend,
Who, loving, lov'st them to the end,
On this alone my hopes depend—
That Thou wilt plead for me.

2 When, weary in the Christian race,
Far off appears my resting-place,
And, fainting, I mistrust Thy grace,
Then, Saviour, plead for me.

3 When I have erred, and gone astray,
Afar from Thine and wisdom's way,
And see no glimmering, guiding ray,
Still, Saviour, plead for me.

4 When Satan, by my sins made bold,
Strives from Thy cross to loose my hold,
Then with Thy pitying arms enfold,
And plead, O plead for me.

5 And when my dying hour draws near,
Darkened with anguish, guilt and fear,
Then to my fainting sight appear,
Pleading in heaven for me.

God of my life! Thy boundless grace;
Chose, pardoned, and adopted me;
My rest, my home, my dwelling place,
Father! I come to Thee.

2 Jesus, my hope, my rock, my shield!
Whose precious blood was shed for me,
Into Thy hands my soul I yield;
Saviour! I come to Thee.

3 Spirit of glory and of God!
Long hast Thou deigned my guide to be;
Now, be Thy comfort sweet bestowed!
My God! I come to Thee.

4 I come to join that countless host,

Blest Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
My God! I come to Thee.

O SAVIOUR, I have naught to plead,
In earth beneath or heaven above,
But just my own exceeding need
And Thy exceeding love,

Exceeding great but quickly o'er:
The love unbought is all Thine own
And lasts for evermore.

JUST as I am, without one plea,
But that Thy blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bid'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

2 Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To Thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
By fears within, and foes without,
O Lamb of God, I come.

4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

5 Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve:
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

6 Just as I am, Thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down:
Now, to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

WITH tearful eyes I look around;
Life seems a dark and stormy sea;
Yet 'midst the gloom I hear a sound,
A heavenly whisper, "Come to Me!"

2 It tells me of a place of rest,
It tells me where my soul may flee:
O, to the weary, faint, oppressed,
How sweet the bidding, "Come to Me!"

3 "Come, for all else must fail and die;
Earth is no resting-place for thee;
Heavenward direct thy weeping eye;
I am thy portion; Come to Me!"

4 O voice of mercy, voice of love!
In conflict, grief, and agony,
Support me, cheer me from above,
And gently whisper, "Come to Me!"

Charlotte Elliott 1841

JESUS, the sinner's friend! to Thee,
Lost and undone, for aid I flee;
Weary of earth, myself, and sin,
Open Thine arms, and take me in.

2 Pity and heal my sin-sick soul;
'Tis Thou alone canst make me whole;
I cannot rest, till Thou art mine,
Until in me Thine image shine.

3 At last I own it cannot be
That I should fit myself for Thee;
Here then, to Thee, I all resign;
Thine is the work, and only Thine.

4 What shall I say, Thy grace to move?
Lord! I am sin, but Thou art love;
I give up every plea beside;
Lord! I'm condemned, but Thou hast died.

WEARY of earth and laden with my sin,
I look at heaven and long to enter in,
But there no evil thing may find a home;
And yet I hear a voice that bids me "Come."

2 So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that holy land?
Before the whiteness of that throne appear?
Yet there are hands stretched out to draw me near.

3 It is the voice of Jesus that I hear,
His are the hands stretched out to draw me near,

And His the blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the throne.
4 'Twas He who found me on the deathly wild,
And made me heir of heaven, the Father's child,

And day by day, whereby my soul may live,
Gives me His grace of pardon, and will give.

5 Yea, Thou wilt answer for me, righteous

Thine the sharp thorns, and mine the golden

LORD, I was blind! I could not see
In Thy marred visage any grace,
But now the beauty of Thy face
In radiant vision dawns on me.

2 Lord, I was deaf! I could not hear
The thrilling music of Thy voice:
But now I hear Thee and rejoice,
And all Thy uttered words are dear!

3 Lord, I was dumb! I could not speak
The grace and glory of Thy name;

But now, as touched with living flame,
My lips Thine eager praises wake.

4 Lord, I was dead! I could not stir
My lifeless soul to come to Thee:
But now, since Thou hast quickened me,
I rise from sin's dark sepulchre.

5 For Thou hast made the blind to see,
The deaf to hear, the dumb to speak,
The dead to live; and, lo, I break
The chains of my captivity.

JESUS, Lord of life and glory!
Bend from heaven Thy gracious ear;
While our waiting souls adore Thee,
Friend of helpless sinners, hear!
By Thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord!

2 Taught by Thine unerring Spirit,
Boldly we draw nigh to God,
Only in Thy spotless merit,
Only through Thy precious blood:
By Thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord!

3 From the depth of nature's blindness,
From the hardening power of sin,
From all malice and unkindness,
From the pride that lurks within,
By Thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord!

4 When temptation sorely presses,
In the day of Satan's power,
In our times of deep distresses,
In each dark and trying hour,
By Thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord!

With broken heart and contrite sigh,
A trembling sinner, Lord I cry:
Thy pardoning grace is rich and free;
O God, be merciful to me.

2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppress,
Christ and His cross my only plea;
O God, be merciful to me.

3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare to lift them to the skies;

But Thou dost all my anguish see;
O God, be merciful to me.

4 Nor alms, nor deeds that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee;
O God, be merciful to me.

5 And when, redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God has been merciful to me.

From them that lowly lie,
Lamenting sore their sinful life,

- 2 Thy mercy-gates are open wide

For surely Thou canst tell;
What we have done, and what we are,

As children that have done amiss
Fall at their father's knee.

The blessing which we crave,

- WHEN wounded sore the stricken soul
Lies bleeding and unbound,
One only hand, a pierced hand,
Can heal the sinner's wound.
- 2 When sorrow swells the laden breast,
And tears of anguish flow,
One only heart, a broken heart,

- 3 When penitence has wept in vain
Over some foul dark spot,

But in Thy wounded side.

SAVIOUR, when in dust to Thee
 Low we bend th' adoring knee;
 When repentant, to the skies,
 Scarce we lift our weeping eyes;
 O, by all the pains and woe
 Suffered once for man below,
 Bending from Thy throne on high,

2 By Thy helpless infant years;
 By Thy life of want and tears;
 By Thy days of sore distress
 In the savage wilderness;
 By the dread mysterious hour
 Of th' insulting tempter's power;
 Turn, O turn a favoring eye;
 Hear our solemn litany!

3 By Thine hour of dire despair;
 By Thine agony of prayer;
 By the cross, the nail, the thorn,
 Piercing spear, and torturing scorn;
 By the gloom that veiled the skies
 O'er the dreadful sacrifice;
 Listen to our humble cry;
 Hear our solemn litany!

4 By Thy deep expiring groan;
 By the sad sepulchral stone;
 By the vault, whose dark abode
 Held in vain the rising God;
 O, from earth to heaven restored,

VIEW me, Lord, a work of Thine!
 Shall I then lie drowned in night?
 Might Thy grace in me but shine,

 Cleanse me, Lord, that I may kneel
 At Thine altar, pure and white:
 They that once Thy mercies feel,
 Gaze no more on earth's delight.

2 Worldly joys, like shadows, fade
 When the heavenly light appears;

 Endless, know nor days nor years.
 In Thy word, Lord, is my trust,

 Though I am but clay and dust,
 Yet Thy grace can lift me high.

DEPTH of mercy, can there be
Mercy still reserved for me?
Can my God His wrath forbear?
Me, the chief of sinners, spare?

2 I have long withstood His grace,
Long provoked Him to His face;
Would not hearken to His calls;
Grieved Him by a thousand falls.

3 Kindled His relentings are;
Me He now delights to spare;
Cries, "How shall I give Thee up?"
Lets the lifted thunder drop.

4 There for me the Saviour stands,
Shows His wounds, and spreads His hands;
God is love: I know, I feel;
Jesus lives and loves me still.

When, my best, my dearest friend!
Shall our separation end?

Jesus, Jesus! visit me.

3 Come, inhabit then my heart;
Purge its sin, and heal its smart;
See, I ever cry to Thee,—
Jesus, Jesus! visit me.

4 Patiently I wait Thy day;
For this gift alone I pray,
That, when death shall visit me,
Thou my light and life wilt be.

3 'Tis to my Saviour I would live,

3 Whether we sleep or wake,
To Thee we both resign;
By night we see, as well as day,
If Thy light on us shine.

4 Whether we live or die,
Both we submit to Thee;
In death we live, as well as life,
If Thine in death we be.

John Austin 1668

Nor all the blood of beasts
On Jewish altars slain,
Could give the guilty conscience peace,
Or wash away the stain.

2 But Christ, the heavenly Lamb,
Takes all our sins away;
A sacrifice of nobler name,
And richer blood, than they.

3 My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of Thine,
While like a penitent I stand,
And there confess my sin.

4 My soul looks back to see
The burdens Thou didst bear,
When hanging on the cursed tree,
And hopes her guilt was there.

5 Believing, we rejoice
To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
And sing His bleeding love.

- My spirit on Thy care
Blest Saviour, I recline;
Thou wilt not leave me to despair,
For Thou art love divine.
- 2 In Thee I place my trust,
On Thee I calmly rest;
I know Thee good, I know Thee just,
And count Thy choice the best.
- 3 Whate'er events betide,
Thy will they all perform;
Safe in Thy breast my head I hide,
Nor fear the coming storm.
- 4 Let good or ill befall,
It must be good for me;
Secure of having Thee in all,
Of having all in Thee.

- THE pity of the Lord
To those that fear His name,
Is such as tender parents feel:
He knows our feeble frame.
- 2 He knows we are but dust,
Scattered with every breath;
His anger, like a rising wind,
Can send us swift to death.
- 3 Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower;
If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.
- 4 But Thy compassions, Lord,
To endless years endure;
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

- YOUR harps, ye trembling saints,
Down from the willows take;
Loud to the praise of love divine
Bid every string awake.
- 2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home;
And nearer to our house above
We every moment come.
- 3 His grace will to the end
Stronger and brighter shine;
Nor present things, nor things to come,
Shall quench the spark divine.

- 4 When we in darkness walk,
Nor feel the heavenly flame,
Then is the time to trust our God,
And rest upon His name.
- 5 Soon shall our doubts and fears
Subside at His control;
His loving-kindness shall break through
The midnight of the soul.
- 6 Blest is the man, O God,
That stays himself on Thee;
Who wait for Thy salvation, Lord,
Shall Thy salvation see.

O GIFT of gifts! O grace of faith!
My God, how can it be
That Thou, who hast discerning love,
Shouldst give that gift to me?

2 How many hearts Thou mightst have had More innocent than mine,
How many souls more worthy far
Of that sweet touch of Thine!

3 Ah, Grace, into unlikeliest hearts,
It is Thy boast to come,
The glory of Thy light to find
In darkest spots a home.

4 The crowd of cares, the weightiest cross,
Seem trifles less than light;
Earth looks so little and so low
When faith shines full and bright.

5 O happy, happy that I am!
If Thou canst be, O Faith,
The treasure that Thou art in life,
What wilt Thou be in death?

Frederick William Faber 1849

FATHER of love, our guide and friend,
O lead us gently on,
Until life's trial-time shall end,
And heavenly peace be won.

2 We know not what the path may be
As yet by us untrod;
But we can trust our all to Thee,
Our Father and our God,

3 But if some darker lot be good,
O teach us to endure
The sorrow, pain, or solitude,
That make the spirit pure.

4 Christ by no flowery pathway came;
And we, His followers here,
Must do Thy will and praise Thy name,
In hope, and love, and fear.

5 And, till in Heaven we sinless bow,
And faultless anthems raise,
O Father, Son, and Spirit, now
Accept our feeble praise.

William Josiah Irons 1853

LORD, I believe; Thy power I own,
Thy word I would obey;
I wander comfortless and lone,
When from Thy truth I stray.

2 Lord, I believe; but gloomy fears
Sometimes bedim my sight;
I look to Thee with prayers and tears,
And cry for strength and light.

3 Lord, I believe; but oft I know,
My faith is cold and weak;
My weakness strengthen, and bestow
The confidence I seek!

4 Yes! I believe; and only Thou
Canst give my soul relief:
Lord! to Thy truth my spirit bow;
"Help Thou mine unbelief!"

O FOR a faith that will not shrink
Though pressed by every foe;
That will not tremble on the brink
Of any earthly woe;

2 That will not murmur nor complain
Beneath the chastening rod,
But, in the hour of grief and pain,
Will lean upon its God;

3 A faith that shines more bright and clear
When tempests rage without;

That when in danger knows no fear,
In darkness feels no doubt;

4 A faith that keeps the narrow way
Till life's last hour is fled,
And with a pure and heavenly ray
Lights up a dying bed.

5 Lord, give us such a faith as this,
And then, whate'er may come,
We'll taste, e'en here, the hallowed bliss
Of an eternal home.

THOU art my hiding-place, O Lord!
On Thee I fix my trust,
Encouraged by Thy holy word,
A feeble child of dust.

2 I have no argument beside,
I urge no other plea;
And 'tis enough the Saviour died,
The Saviour died for me.

3 'Mid trials heavy to be borne,
When mortal strength is vain,
A heart with grief and anguish torn,
A body racked with pain;

4 Ah, what could give the sufferer rest,
Bid every murmur flee,
But this, the witness in my breast
That Jesus died for me?

5 And when Thine awful voice commands
This body to decay,
And life, in its last lingering sands,
Is ebbing fast away;

6 Then, though it be in accents weak,
And faint and tremblingly,
O give me strength in death to speak,
"My Saviour died for me."

I COULD not do without Thee,
O Saviour of the lost!
Whose wondrous love redeemed me
At such tremendous cost;
Thy righteousness, Thy pardon,
Thy precious blood must be
My only hope and comfort,
My glory and my plea.

2 I could not do without Thee,
I cannot stand alone,
I have no strength or goodness,
No wisdom of my own;
But Thou, beloved Saviour,
Art all in all to me,
And perfect strength in weakness
Is theirs who lean on Thee.

3 I could not do without Thee,
For, O the way is long,
And I am often weary,
And sigh replaces song.
How could I do without Thee?
I do not know the way;
Thou knowest, and Thou leadest,
And wilt not let me stray.

4 I could not do without Thee!
For life is fleeting fast,
And soon in solemn loneliness
The river must be passed.

But Thou wilt never leave me,
And though the waves roll high,
I know Thou wilt be with me,
And whisper, "It is I."

I KNOW no life divided,
O Lord of life, from Thee;
In Thee is life provided
For all mankind and me:
I know no death, O Jesus,
Because I live in Thee;
Thy death it is which frees us
From death eternally.

2 I fear no tribulation,
Since, whatsoever it be,
It makes no separation
Between my Lord and me.
If Thou, my God and Teacher,
Vouchsafe to be my own,
Though poor, I shall be richer
Than monarch on his throne.

3 If, while on earth I wander,
My heart is light and blest,
Ah, what shall I be yonder
In perfect peace and rest?
O blessed thought in dying,
We go to meet the Lord,
Where there shall be no sighing,
A kingdom our reward.

In heavenly love abiding,
No change my heart shall fear;
And safe is such confiding,
For nothing changes here.
The storm may roar without me,
My heart may low be laid,
But God is round about me,
And can I be dismayed?

2 Wherever He may guide me,
No want shall turn me back;
My Shepherd is beside me,
And nothing can I lack.

His wisdom ever waketh,
His sight is never dim,
He knows the way He taketh,
And I will walk with Him.

3 Green pastures are before me,
Which yet I have not seen;
Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
Where darkest clouds have been.
My hope I cannot measure,
My path to life is free,
My Saviour has my treasure,
And He will walk with me.

SOMETIMES a light surprises
The Christian while he sings;
It is the Lord who rises
With healing in His wings:
When comforts are declining,
He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining,
To cheer it after rain.
2 In holy contemplation,
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new:
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
E'en let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may.

3 It can bring with it nothing
But He will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing,
Will clothe His people too;
Beneath the spreading heavens,
No creature but is fed;
And He who feeds the ravens
Will give His children bread.
4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither,
Their wonted fruit shall bear,
Though all the field should wither,
Nor flocks nor herds be there;
Yet God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice,
For, while in Him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice.

O LORD, how happy should we be
If we could cast our care on Thee,
If we from self could rest;
And feel at heart that One above
In perfect wisdom, perfect love,

2 How far from this our daily life,
How oft disturbed by anxious strife,
By sudden wild alarms;
O could we but relinquish all
Our earthly props, and simply fall
On Thine almighty arms!

3 Could we but kneel and cast our load,
E'en while we pray, upon our God,
Then rise with lightened cheer;
Sure that the Father who is nigh
To still the famished raven's cry,
Will hear in that we fear.
4 Lord, make these faithless hearts of ours
Such lessons learn from birds and flowers:
Make them from self to cease,
Leave all things to a Father's will,
And taste, before Him lying still,
E'en in affliction, peace.

 While the billows near me roll,
 While the tempest still is high:
 Hide me, O my Saviour hide,
 Till the storm of life is past;
 Safe into the haven guide;
 O receive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none,
 Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;
 Leave, ah! leave me not alone,
 Still support and comfort me;
 All my trust on Thee is stayed,
 All my help from Thee I bring;
 Cover my defenceless head
 With the shadow of Thy wing.

3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
 Boundless love in Thee I find.
 Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
 Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
 Just and holy is Thy name,
 I am all unrighteousness;
 Vile and full of sin I am,
 Thou art full of truth and grace.

4 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
 Grace to pardon all my sin;
 Let the healing streams abound,
 Make and keep me pure within;
 Thou of life the fountain art,
 Freely let me take of Thee;
 Spring Thou up within my heart,
 Rise to all eternity.

Choose for us, God!—Thy wisdom is unerring,
And we are fools and blind.

4 So from our sky, the night shall furl her shadows, [gates;
And day pour gladness through his golden
Our rough path leads to flower-enamelled meadows
Where joy our coming waits.

5 Let us press on in patient self-denial;
Accept the hardship, shrinking not from loss,
Our guerdon lies beyond the hour of trial:
Our crown, beyond the cross.

I lift my heart to Thee, Sav- iour divine! For Thou art all to me, And I am Thine.

Is there on earth a clos er bond than this, That "my Beloved's mine, and I am His?"

483

I LIFT my heart to Thee, Saviour divine!
For Thou art all to me, and I am Thine.
Is there on earth a closer bond than this,
That "My Beloved's mine, and I am His?"

2 To Thee, Thou bleeding Lamb, I all things owe;
All that I have and am, and all I know.
All that I have is now no longer mine,
And I am not mine own: Lord, I am Thine.

3 How can I, Lord, withhold life's brightest hour

From Thee; or gathered gold, or any power?
Why should I keep one precious thing from Thee, [for me?

When Thou hast given Thine own dear self

4 I pray Thee, Saviour, keep me in Thy love,
Until death's holy sleep shall me remove
To that fair realm, where, sin and sorrow o'er,
Thou and Thine own are one for evermore.

LEANING on Thee, my guide, my friend,
My gracious Saviour! I am blest;
Though weary, Thou dost condescend
To be my rest.

2 Leaning on Thee, with child-like faith,
To Thee the future I confide;
Each step of life's untrodden path
Thy love will guide.

3 Leaning on Thee, though faint and weak,
Too weak another voice to hear,
Thy heavenly accents comfort speak,
"Be of good cheer."

4 Leaning on Thee, no fear alarms;
Calmly I stand on death's dark brink;
I feel the "everlasting arms,"
I cannot sink.

JESUS my Saviour, look on me,
For I am weary and oppressed;
I come to cast myself on Thee;
Thou art my rest.

2 Look down on me, for I am weak;
I feel the toilsome journey's length;
Thine aid omnipotent I seek;
Thou art my strength.

3 I am bewildered on my way;
Dark and tempestuous is the night;

O send Thou forth some cheering ray!
Thou art my light.

4 Standing alone on Jordan's brink,
In that tremendous latest strife,
Thou wilt not suffer me to sink;
Thou art my life.

5 Thou wilt my every want supply,
E'en to the end, whate'er befall;
Through life, in death, eternally,
Thou art my all.

I AM trusting Thee, Lord Jesus,
Trusting only Thee!
Trusting Thee for full salvation,

2 I am trusting Thee for pardon,
At Thy feet I bow;
For Thy grace and tender mercy,
Trusting now.

3 I am trusting Thee for cleansing
In the crimson flood;
Trusting Thee to make me holy

4 I am trusting Thee to guide me;
Thou alone shalt lead,
Every day and hour supplying
All my need.

Words which Thou Thyself shalt give me

That delights and stirs me so?
What the high reward I win?
Whose the name I glory in?

What awakes my lips to song?
He who bore my sinful load,

Gathers round its head sublime.
2 When the woes of life o'er take me,
Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me;
Lo! it glows with peace and joy.
3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,

Peace is there, that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

Now begin the heavenly theme,
Sing aloud in Jesus' name;
Ye who Jesus' kindness prove,
Triumph in redeeming love.

2 Ye who see the Father's grace
Beaming in the Saviour's face,
As to Canaan on ye move,
Praise and bless redeeming love.

3 Mourning souls, dry up your tears;
Banish all your guilty fears;
See your guilt and curse remove,
Cancelled by redeeming love.

4 Welcome, all by sin oppressed,
Welcome to His sacred rest;
Nothing brought Him from above,
Nothing but redeeming love.

5 Hither, then, your music bring,
Strike aloud each joyful string;
Mortals, join the host above,
Join to praise redeeming love.

CHILDREN of the Heavenly King,
As ye journey, sweetly sing;
Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in His works and ways.

2 We are travelling home to God,
In the way the fathers trod:
They are happy now, and we
Soon their happiness shall see.

3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest,
You on Jesus' throne shall rest;
There your seat is now prepared,
There your kingdom and reward.

4 Fear not, brethren, joyful stand
On the borders of your land;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.

5 Lord, obediently we go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only Thou our leader be,
And we still will follow Thee.

EARTH has nothing sweet or fair,
Lovely forms or beauties rare,
But before my eyes they bring
Christ, of beauty source and spring.

2 When the morning paints the skies,
When the golden sunbeams rise,
Then my Saviour's form I find
Brightly imaged on my mind.

3 When, as moonlight softly steals,
Heaven its thousand eyes reveals,
Then I think: Who made their light,
Is a thousand times more bright.

4 Lord of all that's fair to see,
Come, reveal Thyself to me;
Let me, 'mid Thy radiant light,
See Thine unveiled glories bright.

To the name of our Salvation
Honor, worship, thanks, we pay;
Which, for many a generation,
Hid in God's foreknowledge lay,
But with holy exultation
We may sing aloud to-day.

2 Jesus is the name we treasure,
Name beyond what words can tell;
Name of gladness, name of pleasure,
Ear and heart delighting well;
Name of sweetness, passing measure,
Saving us from sin and hell.

3 'Tis the name for adoration;
'Tis the name of victory;
'Tis the name for meditation

In this vale of misery;
'Tis the name for veneration
By the citizens on high.

4 Jesus is the name exalted
Over every other name;
In this name, whene'er assaulted,
We can put our foes to shame;
Strength to them who else had halted,
Eyes to blind, and feet to lame.

5 Jesus, we Thy name adoring,
Long to see Thee as Thou art;
Of Thy clemency imploring
So to write it in our heart,
That hereafter, upwards soaring,
We with angels may have part.

AWAKE, my soul, in joyful lays,
And sing thy great Redeemer's praise:
He justly claims a song from me,
His loving-kindness, O how free!

2 He saw me ruined in the fall,
Yet loved me notwithstanding all,
And saved me from my lost estate,
His loving-kindness, O how great!

3 Through mighty hosts of cruel foes,
Where earth and hell my way oppose,

He safely leads my soul along,
His loving-kindness, O how strong!

4 So when I pass death's gloomy vale,
And life and mortal powers shall fail,
O may my last expiring breath
His loving-kindness sing in death.

5 Then shall I mount, and soar away
To the bright world of endless day;
There shall I sing, with sweet surprise,
His loving-kindness in the skies.

COME, let us sing the song of songs,
The saints in heaven began the strain,
The homage which to Christ belongs:
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"

2 Slain to redeem us by His blood,
To cleanse from every sinful stain,
And make us kings and priests to God:
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"

3 To Him, enthroned, by filial right,
All power in heaven and earth proclaim,
Honor, and majesty, and might:
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"

And while in heaven with Him we reign,

O CHRIST, our King, Creator, Lord,
Saviour of all who trust Thy word,
To them who seek Thee ever near,
Now to our praises bend Thine ear.
2 In Thy dear cross a grace is found,
It flows from every streaming wound,
Whose power our inbred sin controls.
Breaks the firm bond, and frees our souls.
3 Thou didst create the stars of night,
Yet Thou hast veiled in flesh Thy light;

Hast deigned a mortal form to wear,
A mortal's painful lot to bear.
4 When Thou didst hang upon the tree,
The quaking earth acknowledged Thee;
When Thou didst there yield up Thy breath,
The world grew dark as shades of death.
5 Now in the Father's glory high,
Great Conqueror, never more to die,
Us by Thy mighty power defend,
And reign through ages without end.

LOVE'S OFFERING P. M.

MASTER, no offering
Costly and sweet,
May we, like Magdalene,
Lay at Thy feet;
Yet may love's incense rise,
Sweeter than sacrifice,
Dear Lord, to Thee.

2 Daily our lives would show
Weakness made strong,
Toilsome and gloomy ways
Brightened with song;
Some deeds of kindness done,
Some souls by patience won,
Dear Lord, to Thee.

3 Some word of hope, for hearts
Burdened with fears,
Some balm of peace, for eyes
Blinded with tears,
Some dews of mercy shed,
Some wayward footsteps led,
Dear Lord, to Thee.

4 Thus, in Thy service, Lord,
Till eventide
Closes the day of life,
May we abide.
And when earth's labors cease,
Bid us depart in peace,
Dear Lord, to Thee.

SING of Jesus, sing for ever,
Of the love that changes never.
Who or what from Him can sever
Those He makes His own?

3 Through the desert Jesus leads them,
With the bread of heaven He feeds them,
And through all the way He speeds them
To their home above.

2 With His blood the Lord has bought them;
When they knew Him not, He sought them,
And from all their wanderings brought them:
His the praise alone.

4 There they see the Lord who bought them,
Him who came from heaven, and sought them,
Him who by His Spirit taught them,
Him they serve and love.

SHEPHERD of tender youth,
Guiding in love and truth
Through devious ways;

Christ our triumphant King,
We come Thy name to sing;
Hither our children bring
Tributes of praise.

2 Thou art our holy Lord,
The all-subduing Word,
Healer of strife:
Thou didst Thyself abase,
That from sin's deep disgrace
Thou mightest save our race,
And give us life.

Our Shepherd and our pride,
Our staff and song:
Jesus, Thou Christ of God,

Lead us where Thou hast trod,
Make our faith strong.

And distress me to deliver,

Following Thee with love most tender,
So that Satan may not hinder

Joyful I may stand.

O COULD I speak the matchless worth,
O could I sound the glories forth,
Which in my Saviour shine,
I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings,
And vie with Gabriel while he sings
In notes almost divine.

2 I'd sing the precious blood He spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin, and wrath divine;
I'd sing His glorious righteousness,
In which all-perfect, heavenly dress
My soul shall ever shine.

3 I'd sing the characters He bears,

I did not love my Shepherd's voice,
I would not be controlled.
I was a wayward child,
I did not love my home,
I did not love my Father's voice,
I loved afar to roam.

2 The Shepherd sought His sheep,
The Father sought His child,
They followed me o'er vale and hill,
O'er deserts waste and wild:
They found me nigh to death,
Famished and faint, and lone;
They bound me with the bands of love;
They saved the wandering one.

3 Jesus my Shepherd is,
'Twas He that loved my soul,
'Twas He that washed me in His blood,
'Twas He that made me whole;
'Twas He that sought the lost,
That found the wandering sheep,
'Twas He that brought me to the fold,
'Tis He that still doth keep.

4 I was a wandering sheep,
I would not be controlled;
But now I love the Shepherd's voice,
I love, I love the fold;
I was a wayward child;
I once preferred to roam;
But now I love my Father's voice,
I love, I love His home.

To our Redeemer's glorious name Awake the sacred song; O may His love, immortal flame, Tune every heart and tongue! His love, what mortal thought can reach, What mortal tongue display!

Im-ag-in-ation's utmost stretch, In wonder dies a-way, In wonder dies a-way.

To our Redeemer's glorious name
Awake the sacred song;
O may His love, immortal flame,
Tune every heart and tongue.

2 His love, what mortal thought can reach,
What mortal tongue display!
Imagination's utmost stretch
In wonder dies away.

3 Dear Lord, while we, adoring, pay
Our humble thanks to Thee,
May every heart with rapture say,
The Saviour died for me!

4 O may the sweet, the blissful theme,
Fill every heart and tongue,
Till strangers love Thy charming name,
And join the sacred song!

Majestic sweetness sits enthroned His head with radiant glories crowned, His lips with grace o'erflow
Upon the Saviour's brow; His lips with grace o'erflow,

MAJESTIC sweetness sits enthroned
Upon the Saviour's brow;
His head with radiant glories crowned,
His lips with grace o'erflow.

2 No mortal can with Him compare
Among the sons of men;
Fairer is He than all the fair
That fill the heavenly train.

3 He saw me plunged in deep distress,
He flew to my relief;

For me He bore the shameful cross,
And carried all my grief.

4 To Him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death
He saves me from the grave.

5 Since from His bounty I receive
Such proofs of love divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,
Lord, they should all be Thine.

We sing to Thee, Thou Son of God, Fountain of life and grace; We praise Thee, Son of

We praise Thee, Son of Man, whose blood

2 Thee we acknowledge God and Lord,

3 To Thee all angels cry aloud,
Through heaven's extended coasts:—
Hail! holy, holy, holy Lord
Of glory and of hosts.
4 The cherubim and seraphim
Incessant sing to Thee;
The worlds and all the powers therein
Adore Thy majesty.

5 The prophets' goodly fellowship,
In radiant garments dressed,
Praise Thee, Thou Son of God, and reap
The fulness of Thy rest.
6 The apostles' glorious company
Thy righteous praise proclaim:
The martyred army glorify
Thine everlasting name.
7 Through all the world, Thy churches join
To call on Thee their Head,
Brightness of majesty Divine,
Who every power hast made.

To sing Thy precious blood.
Reign here, and in the worlds above,

How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.
2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary, rest.
3 Dear name! the Rock on which I build,
My Shield and Hiding-place,
My never-failing treasury, filled
With boundless stores of grace!
4 Jesus! my Shepherd, Guardian, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King;
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.
5 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
But when I see Thee as Thou art,
I'll praise Thee as I ought.

My God, I love Thee: not because
I hope for heaven thereby,
Nor yet because who love Thee not
Must die eternally.
2 Thou, O my Jesus, Thou didst me
Upon the cross embrace:
For me didst bear the nails, and spear,
And manifold disgrace;
3 Then why, O blessed Jesus Christ,
Should I not love Thee well?
Not for the hope of winning heaven,
Nor of escaping hell.
4 Not with the hope of gaining aught,
Not seeking a reward;
But as Thyself hast loved me,
O ever-loving Lord.
5 So would I love Thee, dearest Lord,
And in Thy praise will sing;
Solely because Thou art my God,
And my eternal King.

JESUS, I love Thy charming name,
'Tis music to mine ear;
Fain would I sound it out so loud
That earth and heaven should hear.
2 All my capacious powers can wish
In Thee doth richly meet;
Not to mine eyes is light so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.

3 Thy grace still dwells upon my heart,
And sheds its fragrance there;
The noblest balm of all its wounds,
The cordial of its care.
4 I'll speak the honors of Thy name
With my last laboring breath;
Then, speechless, clasp Thee in mine arms,
The conqueror of death.

Do not I love Thee, O my Lord?
Behold my heart and see;
And turn each dearest idol out,
That dares to rival Thee.

2 Is not Thy name melodious still
To mine attentive ear?
Doth not each pulse with pleasure bound
My Saviour's voice to hear?

3 Hast Thou a lamb in all Thy flock
I would disdain to feed?
Hast Thou a foe before whose face
I fear Thy cause to plead?

4 Would not my heart pour forth its blood
In honor of Thy name,
And challenge the cold hand of death,
To damp the immortal flame?

5 Thou know'st I love Thee, dearest Lord,
But O, I long to soar
Far from the sphere of mortal joys,

I've found the Pearl of greatest price,
My heart doth sing for joy;
And sing I must; for Christ is mine,
Christ shall my song employ.

2 Christ is my Prophet, Priest, and King;
A Prophet full of light,
My great High-Priest before the throne,
My King of heavenly might.

3 For He indeed is Lord of lords,
And He the King of kings;
He is the Sun of righteousness,
With healing in His wings.

4 Christ is my Peace; He died for me,
For me He gave His blood;
And as my wondrous Sacrifice,
Offered Himself to God.

My Life below, and He shall be

JESUS, these eyes have never seen
That radiant form of Thine;
The veil of sense hangs dark between
Thy blessed face and mine.

2 I see Thee not, I hear Thee not,
Yet art Thou oft with me;
And earth hath ne'er so dear a spot,
As where I meet with Thee.

3 Like some bright dream that comes unsought
When slumbers o'er me roll,
Thine image ever fills my thought,
And charms my ravished soul.

4 Yet though I have not seen, and still Must rest in faith alone,
I love Thee, dearest Lord,—and will,

Of Moses and the Lamb;
Wake every heart and every tongue,
To praise the Saviour's name.

Sing of His rising power;

3 Sing till we feel our hearts
Ascending with our tongues:
Sing till the love of sin departs,
And grace inspires our songs.

4 Sing on your heavenly way,

O JESUS, ever present,
 O Shepherd, ever kind,
 Thy very name is music
 To ear, and heart, and mind.
 It woke my wondering childhood
 To muse on things above;
 It drew my harder manhood

 How oft in darkness fallen,
 And wounded sore by sin,
 Thy hand has gently raised me,
 And healing balm poured in.

3 O Shepherd good, I follow
 Wherever Thou wilt lead;
 No matter where the pastures,
 With Thee at hand, to feed.
 Thy voice, in life so mighty,
 In death shall make me bold:
 O bring my ransored spirit

For the beauty of the earth, For the beauty of the skies, For the love which from our birth
O-ver and around us lies: Christ our God, to Thee we raise This, our sac - ri - fice of praise.

537

From Tucker's Church Hymnal, by permission.

For the beauty of the earth,
For the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies:
Christ our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

2 For the beauty of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
Sun and moon and stars of light;
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

3 For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above;
For all gentle thoughts and mild:
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

4 For each perfect gift of Thine
To our race so freely given,
Graces, human and divine,
Flowers of earth, and buds of heaven:
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

5 For Thy Church that evermore
Lifteth holy hands above,
Offering up on every shore
Its pure sacrifice of love:
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

BLESSED Saviour, Thee I love,
All my other joys above;
All my hopes in Thee abide,
Thou my hope, and naught beside;
Ever let my glory be,
Only, only, only Thee.

2 Once again beside the cross,
All my gain I count but loss;
Earthly pleasures fade away;
Clouds they are that hide my day:
Hence, vain shadows, let me see
Jesus, crucified for me.

3 Blesséd Saviour, Thine am I,
Thine to live, and Thine to die;
Height or depth, or earthly power,
Ne'er shall hide my Saviour more:
Ever shall my glory be,
Only, only, only Thee.

There's no place where earthly failings
Have such kindly judgment given,

There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Saviour;
There is healing in His blood.

3 For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal

And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

FRIEND of sinners! Lord of glory!
Lowly, Mighty!—Brother, King!—
Musing o'er Thy wondrous story,
Grateful we Thy praises sing:
Friend to help us, cheer us, save us,
In whom power and pity blend—
Praise we must the grace which gave us
Jesus Christ, the sinners' Friend.

2 Friend who never fails nor grieves us,

Friend who at all times receives us,
Friend who came the lost to find!—
Sorrow soothing, joys enhancing,
Loving until life shall end—
Then conferring bliss entrancing,
Still, in heaven, the sinners' Friend!

3 O to love and serve Thee better!
From all evil set us free;
Break, Lord, every sinful fetter;
Be each thought conformed to Thee:
Looking for Thy bright appearing,
May our spirits upward tend;
Till no longer doubting, fearing,
We behold the sinners' Friend!

Listen while we sing;
Hearts and voices raising
Praises to our King.

All we have we offer,
All we hope to be,
Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to Thee.

2 Nearer, ever nearer,
Christ, we draw to Thee,
Deep in adoration
Bending low the knee:
Thou for our redemption
Cam'st on earth to die:
Thou, that we might follow,
Hast gone up on high.

3 Great and ever greater
Are Thy mercies here,
True and everlasting
Are the glories there;
Where no pain, or sorrow,
Toil, or care, is known,
Where the angel legions
Circle round Thy throne.

4 Brighter still, and brighter,
Glow the western sun,
Shedding all its gladness
O'er our work that's done;
Time will soon be over,
Toil and sorrow past,
May we, blessed Saviour,
Find a rest at last.

GLORY to God! whose witness-train,
Those heroes bold in faith,
Could smile on poverty and pain,
And triumph e'en in death.

2 O, may that faith our hearts sustain,
Wherein they fearless stood,
When, in the power of cruel men,
They poured their willing blood.

3 God, whom we serve, our God, can save,
Can damp the scorching flame,
Can build an ark, can smooth the wave,
For such as love His name.

O HAPPY band of pilgrims,
If onward ye will tread
With Jesus as your Fellow
To Jesus as your Head!
2 O happy if ye labor
As Jesus did for men:
O happy if ye hunger
As Jesus hungered then!
3 The cross that Jesus carried
He carried as your due:
The crown that Jesus weareth
He weareth it for you,

4 The trials that beset you,
The sorrows ye endure,
The manifold temptations
That death alone can cure,
5 What are they but His jewels
Of right celestial worth?
What are they but the ladder
Set up to heaven on earth?
6 O happy band of pilgrims,
Look upward to the skies,
Where such a light affliction
Shall win so great a prize.

LET the saints new anthems raise:

Wake the morn with gladness:

God Himself, to joy and praise,

Turns the martyrs' sadness:

This the day that won their crown,

Opened heaven's bright portal,

As they laid the mortal down,

And put on the immortal.

2 Never flinched they from the flame,

From the torture, never;

Vain the foeman's sharpest aim,

Satan's best endeavor:

For by faith they saw the land

Decked in all its glory,

Where triumphant now they stand

With the victor's story.

3 Faith they had that knew not shame,

Love that could not languish,

And eternal hope o'ercame

That one moment's anguish.

Up and follow, Christian men!

Press through toil and sorrow!

Spurn the night of fear, and then

O the glorious morrow!

GIRD on Thy conquering sword,
Ascend Thy shining car;
And march, almighty Lord,
To wage Thy holy war:
Before His wheels in glad surprise,
Ye valleys rise, and sink, ye hills.

2 Fair truth, and smiling love,
And injured righteousness,
Under Thy banners move,
And seek from Thee redress:
Thou in their cause shalt prosperous ride,
And far and wide dispense Thy laws.

3 Before Thine awful face
Millions of foes shall fall,
The captives of Thy grace,—
The grace that conquers all:
The world shall know, Great King of kings,
What wondrous things Thine arm can do.

4 Here to my waiting soul
Bend Thy triumphant way;
Here every fear control,
And all Thy power display:
My heart, Thy throne, blest Jesus, see,
Bows low to Thee,—to Thee alone.

Oft in danger, oft in woe,
Onward, Christians, onward go:
Fight the fight, maintain the strife
Strengthened with the bread of life.

2 Let your drooping hearts be glad:
March in heavenly armor clad:
Fight, nor think the battle long,
Victory soon shall tune your song.

3 Let not sorrow dim your eye,
Soon shall every tear be dry;
Let not fears your course impede,
Great your strength, if great your need.

More than conquerors ye shall prove;
Though opposed by many a foe,
Christian soldiers, onward go.

4 Faint not, Christian, though within

Now your work is ended,
Enter into rest."—CHO.

CHORUS.

ONWARD, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before.
Christ, the royal Master,
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, His banners go.—Cho.

2 Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God,
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod;
We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity.—Cho.

3 Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise,
And that cannot fail.—Cho.

4 Onward, then, ye people,
Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph-song;
Glory, laud, and honor
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages,
Men and angels sing.—Cho.

BREAST the wave, Christian, when it is strongest; [longest;
Watch for day, Christian, when night is
Onward and onward still be thine endeavor;
The rest that remaineth, endureth forever.

2 Fight the fight, Christian, Jesus is o'er thee;
Run the race, Christian, heaven is before thee;

He who hath promised faltereth never;
O trust in the love that endureth forever.

3 Lift the eye, Christian, just as it closeth;
Raise the heart, Christian, ere it reposeth;
Nothing thy soul from the Saviour shall sever;
Soon shall thou mount upward to praise Him
forever.

Forward! be our watch-word, Step and voic-es joined, Seek the things be-fore us, Not a look be-hind;

Burns the fier-y pil-lar At our ar-my's head; Who shall dream of shrink-ing, By our Captain led?

Forward thro' the des-ert, Thro' the toil and fight, Jor-dan flows be-fore us, Zi-on beams with light.

577

FORWARD! be our watchword,
 Step and voices joined,
 Seek the things before us,
 Not a look behind;
 Burns the fiery pillar
 At our army's head;
 Who shall dream of shrinking,
 By our Captain led?
 Forward through the desert,
 Through the toil and fight,
 Jordan flows before us,
 Zion beams with light.

2 Forward when in childhood
 Buds the infant mind;
 All through youth and manhood,
 Not a thought behind:
 Speed through realms of nature,
 Climb the steps of grace;
 Faint not, till in glory
 Gleams our Father's face.
 Forward, all the life-time
 Climb from height to height:
 Till the head be hoary,
 Till the eve be light!

3 Forward, flock of Jesus,
 Salt of all the earth,
 Till each yearning purpose
 Spring to glorious birth;
 Sick, they ask for healing,
 Blind, they grope for day;
 Pour upon the nations
 Wisdom's loving ray.
 Forward, out of error,
 Leave behind the night;
 Forward through the darkness,
 Forward into light.

4 Glories upon glories,
 Hath our God prepared,
 By the souls that love Him
 One day to be shared;
 Eye hath not beheld them,
 Ear hath never heard;
 Nor of these hath uttered
 Thought or speech or word.
 Forward, marching eastward
 Where the heaven is bright,
 Till the veil be lifted,
 Till our faith be sight!

FAR o'er yon horizon
 Rise the city towers;
 Where our God abideth;
 That fair home is ours:
 Flash the streets with jasper,
 Shine the gates with gold;
 Flows the gladdening river,
 Shedding joys untold.
 Thither, onward thither,
 In the Spirit's might;
 Pilgrims to your country,
 Forward into light.

2 Into God's high temple
 Onward as we press,
 Beauty spreads around us,
 Born of holiness;
 Arch, and vault, and carving,
 Lights of varied tone,
 Softened words and holy,
 Prayer and praise alone:
 Every thought upraising
 To our city bright,
 Where the tribes assemble
 Round the throne of light.

3 Naught that city needeth
 Of these aisles of stone:
 Where the Godhead dwelleth,
 Temple there is none;
 All the saints, that ever
 In these courts have stood,
 Are but babes, and feeding
 On the children's food.
 On through sign and token,
 Stars amid the night,
 Forward through the darkness,
 Forward into light.

4 To the eternal Father
 Loudest anthems raise;
 To the Son and Spirit
 Echo songs of praise;
 To the Lord of glory,
 Blessed Three in One,
 Be by men and angels
 Endless honors done;
 Weak are earthly praises;
 Dull the songs of night;
 Forward into triumph,
 Forward into light!

JESUS, Thou hast bought us,
 Not with gold or gem,
 But with Thine own life-blood,
 For Thy diadem.
 With Thy blessing filling
 Each who comes to Thee,
 Thou hast made us willing,
 Thou hast made us free.
 By Thy grand redemption,
 By Thy grace divine,
 We are on the Lord's side;
 Saviour, we are Thine!

2 Not for weight of glory,
 Not for crown and palm,
 Enter we the army,
 Raise the warrior psalm;
 But for love that claimeth
 Lives for whom He died,

He whom Jesus nameth
 Must be on His side.
 By Thy love constraining,
 By Thy grace divine,
 We are on the Lord's side;
 Saviour, we are Thine!

3 Fierce may be the conflict,
 Strong may be the foe,
 But the King's own army
 None can overthrow.
 Round His standard ranging Victory is secure;
 For His truth unchanging
 Makes the triumph sure.
 Joyfully enlisting,
 By Thy grace divine,
 We are on the Lord's side;
 Saviour, we are Thine!

Brightly gleams our banner Pointing to the sky, Waving wand'ers onward To their home on high.

Journeying o'er the desert, Gladly thus we pray, And with hearts united Take our heavenward way.

CHORUS.

Brightly gleams our banner, Pointing to the sky, Waving wand'ers onward To their home on high.

580

BRIGHTLY gleams our banner
Pointing to the sky,
Waving wanderers onward
To their home on high.
Journeying o'er the desert,
Gladly thus we pray,
And with hearts united
Take our heavenward way.—CHO.

2 All our days direct us
In the way we go,
Lead us on victorious
Over every foe:

Bid Thine angels shield us
When the storm-clouds lower,
Pardon, Lord, and save us
In the last dread hour.—CHO.

3 Then with saints and angels
May we join above,
Offering prayers and praises
At Thy throne of love;
When the toil is over,
Then come rest and peace,
Jesus in His beauty,
Songs that never cease.—CHO.

WORK, for the night is coming,
Work through the morning hours;
Work while the dew is sparkling,
Work 'mid the springing flowers;
Work when the day grows brighter,
Work in the glowing sun;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

2 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon:

Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store:
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies:
Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more:
Work while the night is darkening,
When man's work is o'er.

Thy love to me, O Christ,
 Thy love to me,
 Not mine to Thee, I plead,
 Not mine to Thee!
 This is my comfort strong,
 This is my only song,
 Thy love to me.

2 Thy record I believe,
 Thy word to me.
 Thy love I now receive,
 Full, changeless, free.
 Love from the sinless Son,
 Love to the sinful one,
 Thy love to me.

3 Immortal love of Thine,
 Thy sacrifice,
 Infinite need of mine
 Only supplies.
 Streams of divinest power,
 Flow to me, hour by hour,
 Thy love to me.

4 Let me more clearly trace,
 Thy love to me,
 See in the Father's face,
 His love to Thee.
 Know as He loves the Son,
 So dost Thou love Thine own.
 Thy love to me.

More love to Thee, O Christ,
 More love to Thee!
 Hear Thou the prayer I make,
 On bended knee;
 This is my earnest plea,
 More love, O Christ, to Thee,
 More love to Thee.

2 Once earthly joy I craved,
 Sought peace and rest;
 Now Thee alone I seek,
 Give what is best:
 This all my prayer shall be,
 More love, O Christ, to Thee,
 More love to Thee!

3 Let sorrow do its work,
 Send grief and pain;
 Sweet are Thy messengers,
 Sweet their refrain,
 When they can sing with me,
 More love, O Christ, to Thee,
 More love to Thee!

4 Then shall my latest breath
 Whisper Thy praise;
 This be the parting cry
 My heart shall raise,
 This still its prayer shall be,
 More love, O Christ, to Thee,
 More love to Thee!

ABIDE in me, O Lord, and I in Thee,
From this good hour, oh leave me never-

The life-long bleeding of the soul be o'er.
2 Abide in me; o'ershadow by Thy love
Each half-formed purpose and dark thought

Quench ere it rise each selfish, low desire,
And keep my soul as Thine, calm and divine.
3 As some rare perfume in a vase of clay,
Pervades it with a fragrance not its own,

So, when Thou dwellest in a mortal soul,
All heaven's own sweetness seems around it thrown.
4 Abide in me: there have been moments blest,
When I have heard Thy voice and felt Thy power;
Then evil lost its grasp; and passion, hushed,
Owned the divine enchantment of the hour.
5 These were but seasons beautiful and rare;
Abide in me, and they shall ever be;
Fulfil at once Thy precept and my prayer,
Come, and abide in me, and I in Thee.

FATHER, I know that all my life
Is portioned out for me;
The changes that will surely come
I do not fear to see:
I ask Thee for a present mind,
Intent on pleasing Thee.
2 I ask Thee for a thoughtful love,
Through constant watching wise,
To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
And wipe the weeping eyes;
A heart at leisure from itself,
To soothe and sympathize.
3 I would not have the restless will
That hurries to and fro,
Seeking for some great thing to do,

Or secret thing to know:
I would be treated as a child,
And guided where I go.
4 I ask Thee for the daily strength,
To none that ask denied,
A mind to blend with outward life,
While keeping at Thy side;
Content to fill a little space,
If Thou be glorified.
5 And if some things I do not ask
Among my blessings be,
I'd have my spirit filled the more
With grateful love to Thee;
More careful, not to serve Thee much,
But please Thee perfectly.

JESU wept! those tears are over,
But His heart is still the same;
Kinsman, Friend, and Elder Brother,
Is His everlasting Name.
Saviour, who can love like Thee,
Gracious One of Bethany?

2 When the pangs of trial seize me,
When the waves of sorrow roll,
I will lay my head on Jesus,
Pillow of the troubled soul.
Surely, none can feel like Thee,
Weeping One of Bethany!

3 Jesus wept! and still in glory,
He can mark each mourner's tear;
Living to retrace the story
Of the hearts He solaced here.
Lord, when I am called to die,
Let me think of Bethany.

4 Jesus wept! that tear of sorrow
Is a legacy of love,

My God, my Father, while I stray
Far from my home, on life's rough way,
O teach me from my heart to say,
"Thy will be done!"

2 Though dark my path, and sad my lot,
Let me be still and murmur not,
Or breathe the prayer divinely taught,
"Thy will be done!"

3 If Thou shouldst call me to resign
What most I prize,— it ne'er was mine:
I only yield Thee what is Thine;
"Thy will be done!"

4 Let but my fainting heart be blest
With Thy sweet Spirit for its Guest,
My God, to Thee I leave the rest;
"Thy will be done!"

5 Renew my will from day to day;
Blend it with Thine, and take away
All that now makes it hard to say
"Thy will be done!"

6 Then, when on earth I breathe no more
The prayer oft mixed with tears before,
I'll sing upon a happier shore.
"Thy will be done!"

I do not ask that life may be,

Dear Lord, lead me aright: [bleed,
Though strength should fail, and heart should Lead me through peace to light.

3 I do not ask to understand

LORD, as to Thy dear cross we flee,
And plead to be forgiven,

So let Thy life our pattern be,
And form our souls for Heaven.

2 Help us, through good report and ill,
Our daily cross to bear;
Like Thee, to do our Father's will,
Our brethren's griefs to share.

3 If joy shall at Thy bidding fly,
And grief's dark day come on,
We in our turn would meekly cry,
Father, Thy will be done.

4 Should friends misjudge, or foes defame,
Or brethren faithless prove,
Then, like Thine own, be all our aim
To conquer them by love.

5 Kept peaceful in the midst of strife,
Forgiving and forgiven,
O may we lead the pilgrim's life,
And follow Thee to Heaven.

How tender is Thy hand,
O Thou beloved Lord:
Afflictions come at Thy command,
And leave us at Thy word.

2 How gentle was the rod
That chastened us for sin:
How soon we found a smiling God,
Where deep distress had been.

3 A Father's hand we felt,
A Father's heart we knew;

With tears of penitence we knelt,
And found His word was true.

4 We told Him all our grief,
We thought of Jesus' love;
A sense of pardon brought relief,
And bade our pains remove.

5 Now we will bless the Lord,
And in His strength confide;
Forever be His name adored,
For there is none beside.

DEAR Refuge of my weary soul,
On Thee, when sorrows rise,
On Thee, when waves of trouble roll,
My fainting hope relies.

2 To Thee I tell each rising grief,
For Thou alone canst heal;
Thy word can bring a sweet relief
For every pain I feel.

3 But O, when gloomy doubts prevail,
I fear to call Thee mine;
The springs of comfort seem to fail,
And all my hopes decline.

4 Yet, gracious God, where shall I flee?
Thou art my only trust;
And still my soul would cleave to Thee,
Though prostrate in the dust.

5 Thy mercy-seat is open still;
Here let my soul retreat,
With humble hope attend Thy will,
And wait beneath Thy feet.

WE bless Thee for Thy peace, O God!
Deep as the soundless sea,
Which falls like sunshine on the road
Of those who trust in Thee.

2 That peace which suffers and is strong,
Trusts where it cannot see,
Deems not the trial-way too long,
But leaves the end with Thee.

3 Such, Father, give our hearts such peace,
Whate'er the outward be,
Till all life's discipline shall cease,
And we go home to Thee.

O THOU, whose filmed and failing eye,
Ere yet it closed in death,
Beheld Thy mother's agony,
The shameful cross beneath:

2 Remember them, like her, through whom
The sword of grief is driven,
And O, to cheer their cheerless gloom,
Be Thy dear mercy given.

3 Let Thine own word of tenderness
Drop on them from above;

Its music shall the lone heart bless,
Its touch shall heal with love.

4 O Son of Mary, Son of God,
The way of mortal ill,
By Thy blest feet in triumph trod,
Our feet are treading still.

5 But not with strength like Thine, we go
This dark and dreadful way;
As Thou wert strengthened in Thy woe,
So strengthen us, we pray.

WHEN gathering clouds around I view,
And days are dark, and friends are few,
On Him I lean who not in vain
Experienced every human pain;
He sees my wants, allays my fears,
And counts and treasures up my tears.

2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
From heavenly wisdom's narrow way;
To fly the good I would pursue,
Or do the sin I would not do;
Still He who felt temptation's power,
Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.

3 When, sorrowing, o'er some stone I bend,
Which covers what was once a friend,
And from his voice, his hand, his smile,
Divides me for a little while;
Thou, Saviour, mark'st the tears I shed,
For Thou didst weep o'er Lazarus dead.

4 And O, when I have safely past
Through every conflict but the last,
Still, still unchanging, watch beside
My painful bed, for Thou hast died;
Then point to realms of cloudless day,
And wipe the latest tear away.

Let me humbly still believe;

O let him whose sorrow
No relief can find,
Trust in God and borrow
Ease for heart and mind:
Where the mourner weeping
Sheds the secret tear,
God His watch is keeping,
Though none else is near.

2 God will never leave us,
All our wants He knows,
Feels the pains that grieve us,
Sees our cares and woes:
When in grief we languish,
He will dry the tear,
Who His children's anguish
Soothes with succor near.

3 All our woe and sadness
In this world below,
Balance not the gladness
We in heaven shall know,
When our gracious Saviour,
In the realms above
Crowns us with His favor,
Fills us with His love.

Come unto Me, when shadows darkly gather,
When the sad heart is weary and distressed,
Seeking for comfort from your heavenly Father,

Come unto Me, and I will give you rest.

2 Large are the mansions in thy Father's dwelling,
Glad are the homes that sorrows never dim;

Sweet are the harps in holy music swelling,
Soft are the tones which raise the heavenly

Bloom the fair flowers the earth too rudely

Come unto Me all ye who droop in sadness,
Come unto Me, and I will give you rest!

640

THE Lord's my Shepherd, and I know
For all my wants He cares:
He leads where peaceful waters flow,
And where the greenest pastures grow,
A rest for me prepares.

2 If e'er I faint with noonday heat,
He pities my distress;
Revives my soul with cordial sweet,
And, for His name's sake, leads my feet
In paths of righteousness.

3 Yea, though I walk death's valley drear,
My Shepherd at my side

Will bid me naught of evil fear,
And with His rod and staff be near
To comfort and to guide.

4 For me He has a table spread
In spite of all my foes;
His oil of grace perfumes my head,
And, with His blessings on me shed,
My cup of joy o'erflows.

5 Through all my life His love and grace
Will surely follow me;
And in His holy dwelling place,
Where I shall see Him face to face,
My home shall ever be.

"BLESSED are the pure in heart"
They have loved the better part.
When life's journey they have trod,
They shall go to see their God.
2 Till in glory they appear,
They shall often see Him here;
And His grace shall learn to know
In His glorious works below.
3 When the sun begins to rise,
Spreading brightness through the skies,

They will love to praise and bless
Christ, the Sun of righteousness.

4 In the watches of the night,
When the stars are clear and bright,
"Thus the just shall shine," they say,
"In the Resurrection day."

5 God in everything they see:
First in all their thoughts is He:
They have loved the better part;
"Blesséd are the pure in heart!"

Dear Lord and Father of mankind, For-give our fev-'rish ways! Re-clothe us in our right-ful mind; In pur-er lives Thy ser-vice find, In deep-er rev-'rence, praise.

642

DEAR Lord and Father of mankind,
 Forgive our feverish ways!
 Reclothe us in our rightful mind;
 In purer lives Thy service find,
 In deeper reverence, praise.

2 In simple trust like theirs who heard,
 Beside the Syrian sea,
 The gracious calling of the Lord,
 Let us, like them, without a word
 Rise up and follow Thee.

3 O Sabbath rest by Galilee!
 O calm of hills above,
 Where Jesus knelt to share with Thee
 The silence of eternity,
 Interpreted by love!

4 With that deep hush subduing all
 Our words and works that drown
 The tender whisper of Thy call,
 As noiseless let Thy blessing fall
 As fell Thy manna down.

5 Drop Thy still dews of quietness,
 Till all our strivings cease:
 Take from our souls the strain and stress;
 And let our ordered lives confess
 The beauty of Thy peace.

6 Breathe through the pulses of desire
 Thy coolness and Thy balm;
 Let sense be dumb, its heats expire:
 Speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
 O still small voice of calm!

My Jesus, as Thou wilt:

O may Thy will be mine

Into Thy hand of love

I would my all resign.

Through sorrow or through joy,

Conduct me as Thine own,

And help me still to say,

My Lord, Thy will be done.

2 My Jesus, as Thou wilt:

If needy here and poor,

Give me Thy people's bread,

Their portion rich and sure.

The manna of Thy word

Let my soul feed upon;

And if all else should fail,

My Lord, Thy will be done.

3 My Jesus, as Thou wilt:

Though seen through many a tear,

Let not my star of hope

Grow dim or disappear.

Since Thou on earth hast wept

And sorrowed oft alone,

If I must weep with Thee,

My Lord, Thy will be done.

4 My Jesus, as Thou wilt:

All shall be well for me;

Each changing future scene

I gladly trust with Thee.

Straight to my home above,

I travel calmly on,

And sing in life or death,

My Lord, Thy will be done.

But how can we falter? our help is in God.

2 Through the valley and shadow of death

Since Thou art my guardian, no evil I fear;

No harm can befall, with my Comforter near.

3 And to His green pastures our footsteps
He leads;
His flock in the desert how kindly He feeds!
The lambs in His bosom He tenderly bears,
And brings back the wanderers all safe from the snares.

Through the land of their sojourn, Thy

2 My prayer hath power with God; the grace
Unspeakable I now receive;
Through faith I see Thee face to face,

I see Thee face to face, and live;
In vain I have not wept and strove,
Thy nature, and Thy name, is love.
3 I know Thee, Saviour, who Thou art,
Jesus, the feeble sinner's Friend!
Nor wilt Thou with the night depart,
But stay, and love me to the end;
Thy mercies never shall remove,
Thy nature, and Thy name, is love.

Thy former mercies here renew;
Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
The sweetness of Thy saving name.

To strengthen faith, and sweeten care,
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.

FATHER, whate'er of earthly bliss
Thy sovereign hand denies,
Accepted at Thy throne of grace,
Let this petition rise:
2 Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
From every murmur free;
The blessings of Thy grace impart,
And let me live to Thee.
3 Let the sweet hope that Thou art mine
My path of life attend;
Thy presence through my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end.

Teach us to feel the sins we own,
And hate what we deplore.

2 Our broken spirits, pitying, see,
True penitence impart;
Then let a kindling glance from Thee
Beam hope upon the heart.

May we our wills resign;
And not a thought our bosom share
Which is not wholly Thine.

How the powers of darkness
Rage thy steps around?

Christian, up and smite them,

Striving, tempting, luring,
Goading into sin?
Christian, never tremble;
Never be down-cast;
Gird thee for the battle;
Thou shalt win at last.

How they speak thee fair?
"Always fast and vigil?
Always watch and prayer?"

Christian, answer boldly,

Peace shall follow battle,
Night shall end in day.

LORD Jesus, think on me,
 And purge away my sin;
 From earth-born passions set me free,
 And make me pure within.
 2 Lord Jesus, think on me
 With many a care oppressed,
 Let me Thy loving servant be,
 And taste Thy promised rest.
 3 Lord Jesus, think on me
 Nor let me go astray;
 Through darkness and perplexity
 Point Thou the heavenly way.
 4 Lord Jesus, think on me,
 That, when the flood is passed,
 I may the eternal brightness see,
 And share Thy joy at last.

The soul, which still on Thee is stayed,
 Is kept in perfect peace.

2 The soul, by faith reclined
 On the Redeemer's breast,
 'Midst raging storms, exults to find
 An everlasting rest.

3 Sorrow and fear are gone,
 Whene'er Thy face appears;
 It stills the sighing orphan's moan,
 And dries the widow's tears.

 I have the Fountain still.

 And peace, and joy that never ends,
 And heaven, in Christ alone.

PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire,
Unuttered or expressed;
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.
2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.
3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

4 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice
Returning from his ways,
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry, "Behold he prays!"
5 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gates of death;
He enters heaven with prayer.

A MIGHTY fortress is our God,
 A bulwark never failing;
 Our helper He amid the flood
 Of mortal ills prevailing;
 For still our ancient foe,
 Doth seek to work us woe;
 His craft and power are great,
 And armed with cruel hate;
 On earth is not his equal.

2 Did we in our own strength confide,
 Our striving would be losing,—
 Were not the right Man on our side,
 The Man of God's own choosing:
 Dost ask who that may be?
 Christ Jesus, it is He!
 Lord Sabaoth, His name,
 From age to age the same;
 And He must win the battle.

3 And though this world, with devils filled,
 Should threaten to undo us,
 We will not fear, for God hath willed
 His truth to triumph through us:
 The prince of darkness grim—
 We tremble not for him;
 His rage we can endure;
 For lo, his doom is sure;
 One little word shall fell him.

4 That word above all earthly powers—
 No thanks to them— abideth;
 The Spirit and the gifts are ours,
 Through Him who with us sideth:
 Let goods and kindred go,
 This mortal life also;
 The body they may kill,
 God's truth abideth still;
 His kingdom is forever.

4 Oft have our fathers told,
 Our eyes have often seen,
 How well our God secures the fold,

 And seek deliverance there.

Hear and receive thy Church's supplication, Lord, o'er Thy Church nor death nor hell

{ God of mercy, God of grace, Show the brightness of Thy face; } And Thy saving health extend { Shine upon us, Saviour, shine, Fill Thy Church with light divine; } Unto earth's remotest end.

God of mercy, God of grace,
Show the brightness of Thy face;
Shine upon us, Saviour, shine,
Fill Thy Church with light divine;
And Thy saving health extend
Unto earth's remotest end.

2 Let the people praise Thee, Lord,
Be by all that live adored:
Let the nations shout and sing,

Glory to their Saviour King;
At Thy feet their tribute pay,
And Thy holy will obey.

3 Let the people praise Thee, Lord,
Earth shall then her fruits afford:
God to man His blessing give,
Man to God devoted live;
All below, and all above,
One in joy, and light, and love.

TO-DAY beneath benignant skies,
'Mid scenes Thy favor beautifies,
Our hopes and prayers to Thee we raise,
And found a temple to Thy praise,
Our humble work propitious own,
As now we lay this corner-stone.

2 Except the Lord the house do build,
Except with grace the work be filled,
All labor's vain. O, Christ, impart
Thy loving spirit to each heart:
By Thee, to Thee, on Thee alone,
We build, Thou fairest Corner-stone!

3 Here may the truth and right grow strong,
Here love prevail Thy saints among,
Here sinners feel Thy quickening grace,
And seek with hasting joy Thy face;
And thousands gladly make Thee known
As their eternal Corner-stone.

4 Build Thou the walls! Make them so glow
With glory, we on earth below
The eternal splendors shall foresee;
Grandeur than Salem's may they be,
All luminous with grace Thine own,
From topmost peak to corner-stone!

703

O THOU, whose own vast temple stands,
Built over earth and sea,
Accept the walls that human hands
Have raised to worship Thee.

2 Lord, from Thine inmost glory send,
Within these walls t' abide,
The peace that dwelleth without end
Serenely by Thy side.

3 May erring minds, that worship here,
Be taught the better way;
And they who mourn, and they who fear,
Be strengthened as they pray.

4 May faith grow firm, and love grow warm,
And pure devotion rise,
While, round these hallowed walls, the storm
Of earth-born passion dies.

CHRIST is our Corner-stone;
On Him alone we build;
With His true saints alone
The courts of heaven are filled:
On His great love, our hopes we place
Of present grace, and joys above.
2 O then with hymns of praise
These hallowed courts shall ring!
Our voices we will raise,
The Three in One to sing;
And thus proclaim in joyful song
Both loud and long, that glorious name.

3 Here, gracious God, do Thou
For evermore draw nigh;
Accept each faithful vow,
And mark each suppliant sigh:
In copious shower, on all who pray,
Each holy day, Thy blessing pour.
4 Here may we gain from heaven
The grace which we implore,
And may that grace, once given,
Be with us evermore,
Until that day when all the blest
To endless rest are called away.

COME, Jesus, from the sapphire throne,
Where Thy redeemed behold Thy face,
Enter this temple, now Thine own,
And let Thy glory fill the place.
2 We praise Thee that to-day we see
Its sacred walls before Thee stand;
'Tis Thine for us—'tis ours for Thee;
Reared by Thy kind assisting hand.
3 Oft as returns the day of rest,
Let heartfelt worship here ascend;
With Thine own joy fill every breast,
With Thine own power Thy word attend.

4 Here, in the dark and sorrowing day,
Bid Thou the throbbing heart be still;
O wipe the mourner's tears away,
And give new strength to meet Thy will.
5 When round this board Thine own shall
And keep the feast of dying love, [meet,
Be our communion ever sweet,
With Thee, and with Thy Church above.
6 Come, faithful Shepherd, feed Thy sheep:
In Thine own arms the lambs enfold;
Give help to climb the heavenward steep,
Till Thy full glory we behold.

O LORD of hosts, whose glory fills
The bounds of the eternal hills,
And yet vouchsafes, in Christian lands,
To dwell in temples made with hands;
2 Grant that all we, who here to-day
Rejoicing this foundation lay,
May be in very deed Thine own,
Built on the precious Corner-stone.
3 Endue the creatures with Thy grace,
That shall adorn Thy dwelling-place;
The beauty of the oak and pine,
The gold and silver, make them Thine.

4 To Thee they all belong; to Thee
The treasures of the earth and sea;
And, when we bring them to Thy throne,
We but present Thee with Thine own.
5 The heads that guide endue with skill,
The hands that work preserve from ill,
That we, who these foundations lay,
May raise the topstone in its day.
6 But now and ever, Lord, protect
The temple of Thine own elect;
Be Thou in them, and they in Thee,
O ever-blesséd Trinity!

On Thee we rest, on Thee alone!
The Rock of Ages, Thou; and we,

The heavens, by Thee, were spread abroad;

O SPIRIT of the living God,
In all Thy plenitude of grace,
Where'er the foot of man hath trod,
Descend on our apostate race.

2 Give tongues of fire, and hearts of love,
To preach the reconciling word;
Give power and unction from above,
Whene'er the joyful sound is heard.

3 Be darkness, at Thy coming, light,
Confusion, order in Thy path;
Souls without strength inspire with might;
Bid mercy triumph over wrath.

4 O Spirit of the Lord, prepare
All the round earth her God to meet;
Breathe Thou abroad like morning air,
Till hearts of stone begin to beat.

5 Baptize the nations; far and nigh
The triumphs of the cross record;
The name of Jesus glorify,
Till every kindred call Him Lord.

LORD of the harvest, hear
Thy needy servants' cry;
Answer our faith's effectual prayer,
And all our wants supply.

2 On Thee we humbly wait,
Our wants are in Thy view;
The harvest Lord, is truly great,
The laborers are few.

709

WE bid thee welcome in the name
Of Jesus, our exalted Head:
Come as a Servant: so He came;
And we receive thee in His stead.

2 Come as a Shepherd: guard and keep
This fold from hell and earth and sin;
Nourish the lambs, and feed the sheep,
The wounded heal, the lost bring in.

3 Come as a Watchman: take thy stand
Upon thy tower amidst the sky;
And when the sword comes on the land,
Call us to fight, or warn to fly.

4 Come as a Teacher: sent from God,
Charged His whole counsel to declare:
Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod,
While we uphold thy hands with prayer.

5 Come as a Messenger of peace:
Filled with the Spirit, fired with love;
Live to behold our large increase,
And die to meet us all above.

How beauteous are their feet
Who stand on Zion's hill,
Who bring salvation on their tongues,
And words of peace reveal!

2 How charming is their voice,
How sweet the tidings are!
"Zion, behold Thy Saviour King;
He reigns and triumphs here."

3 How happy are our ears,
That hear this joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found!

4 How blessed are our eyes,
That see this heavenly light!
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.

5 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.

6 The Lord makes bare His arm
Through all the earth abroad;
Let every nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

LORD, Thou hast taught our hearts to glow
With love's undying flame;
But more of Thee we long to know,
And more would love Thy name.

2 Thy life, Thy death, inspire our song,
Thy Spirit breathes through all;
And here our feet would linger long,
But we obey Thy call.

3 Thou bid'st us go, with Thee to stand
Against hell's marshalled powers;
And heart to heart, and hand to hand,
To make Thine honor ours.

4 With Thine own pity, Saviour, see
The thronged and darkening way:
We go to win the lost to Thee,
O help us, Lord, we pray.

5 Teach Thou our lips of Thee to speak,
Of Thy sweet love to tell;
Till they who wander far shall seek
And find and serve Thee well.

6 O'er all the world Thy Spirit send,
And make Thy goodness known,
Till earth and heaven together blend
Their praises at Thy throne.

To Thy divinest speech; their hearts awake
 To human need; their lips make eloquent
 To assure the right, and every evil break.

3 Anoint them Priests! Strong intercessors

For pardon, and for charity and peace!
 Ah, if with them the world might pass, astray,
 Into the dear Christ's life of sacrifice!

4 Anoint them Kings! Aye, kingly kings,

 Their's, by sweet love, for Christ a king-

'Go, preach My gospel," saith the Lord,
Bid the whole earth My grace receive;

2 I'll make your great commission known;
And ye shall prove My gospel true,
By all the works that I have done,

Go, cast out devils in My name;

Though Greeks reproach, and Jews blas-
4 Teach all the nations My commands,

The grace of their ascended God.

DEAR SAVIOUR, if these lambs should stray
 From Thy secure enclosure's bound,

How sweet and awful is the place,
With Christ within the doors,
While everlasting love displays
The choicest of her stores.

2 While all our hearts, and all our songs,

Each of us cries, with thankful tongues,
"Lord, why was I a guest?"

3 "Why was I made to hear Thy voice,

When thousands make a wretched choice,
And rather starve than come?"

My bread from heaven shall be;
Thy testamental cup I take,
And thus remember Thee.

3 Gethsemane can I forget?
Or there Thy conflict see,
Thine agony and bloody sweat,
And not remember Thee?

4 When to the cross I turn mine eyes,
And rest on Calvary,
O Lamb of God, my sacrifice,
I must remember Thee.

5 Remember Thee and all Thy pains,
And all Thy love to me;
Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains,
Will I remember Thee.

6 And when these failing lips grow dumb,
And mind and memory flee,
When Thou shalt in Thy kingdom come,
Jesus, remember me.

O SAVIOUR! who didst come

By water and by blood;
Confessed on earth, adored in heaven,
Eternal Son of God!

2 Jesus, our life and hope,
To endless years the same!

We plead Thy gracious promises,
And rest upon Thy name.

3 By faith in Thee we live,
By faith in Thee we stand,
By Thee we vanquish sin and death,
And gain the heavenly land.

4 O Lord! increase our faith;
Our fearful spirits calm;
Sustain us through this mortal strife,
Then give the victor's palm.

Here, at Thy ta-ble, Lord, This sa-cred hour O let us feel Thee near In lov-ing power;

HERE at Thy table, Lord,
This sacred hour,
O let us feel Thee near
In loving power;
Calling our thoughts away
From self and sin,
As to Thy banquet hall,
We enter in.

2 Sit at the feast, dear Lord,
Break Thou the bread;
Fill Thou the cup that brings
Life to the dead:
That we may find in Thee,
Pardon and peace;
And from all bondage win
A full release.

3 So shall our life of faith
Be full, be sweet;
And we shall find our strength
For each day meet;
Fed by Thy living bread,
All hunger past,
We shall be satisfied
And saved at last.

4 Come, then, O Holy Christ,
Feed us, we pray;
Touch with Thy pierced hand
Each common day,
Making this earthly life
Full of Thy grace,
Till in the home of heaven
We find our place.

BLEST feast of love divine!
'Tis grace that makes us free
To feed upon this bread and wine,
In memory, Lord, of Thee!

2 That blood which flowed for sin,
In symbol here we see,
And feel the blessed pledge within,
That we are loved of Thee.

3 O if this glimpse of love
Be so divinely sweet,
What will it be, O Lord, above,
Thy gladdening smile to meet!

4 To see Thee face to face,
Thy perfect likeness wear,
And all Thy ways of wondrous grace
'Through endless years declare!

SION, to thy Saviour singing,
To thy Prince and Shepherd bringing Sweetest hymns of love and praise,
Thou wilt never reach the measure
Of His worth, by all the treasure
Of thy most ecstatic lays.

2 Of all wonders that can thrill thee,
And with adoration fill thee,
What than this can greater be!
That Himself to thee He giveth;
He that eateth ever liveth,
For the bread of life is He.

3 Fill thy lips to overflowing
With sweet praise, His mercy showing,
Who this heavenly table spread.
On this day so glad and holy,
To each longing spirit lowly,
Giveth He the living bread.

ALL praise to Him of Nazareth!
The Holy One who came,
For love of man, to die a death
Of agony and shame!

2 In tender memory of His grave,
The mystic bread we take,

4 Here the King hath spread His table,
Whereon eyes of faith are able Christ our passover to trace.
Shadows of the law are going,
Light and life and truth inflowing,
Night to day is giving place.

5 Lo, this angels' food descending,
Heavenly love is hither sending,
Hungry lips on earth to feed.
So the Paschal Lamb was given,
So the manna came from heaven,
Isaac was His type indeed.

6 O good Shepherd, bread life-giving,
Us, Thy grace and life receiving,
Feed and shelter evermore!
Thou on earth our weakness guiding,
We in heaven with Thee abiding,
With all saints will Thee adore!

740

O LORD, who hast this table spread,
What royal fare dost Thou provide;
Thy broken body for our bread,
The cup from Thine own wounds supplied.

2 But e'en this bread will be a stone,
This cup of blessing mock our thirst,
Unless Thy gracious hand alone
Shall bless and give them as at first.

3 O come then, Lord, and here preside;
Give Thine own welcome to each guest;
Nor let it be to love denied
To lean confiding on Thy breast.

4 Then rich the portion Thou wilt give;
No more the hungering heart can need;
Thyself the bread by which we live,
Thy precious blood our drink indeed.

5 Thus shall Thy cross be lifted up,
Till Thou return, the King confessed,
To call Thine own with Thee to sup
Within Thy Father's kingdom blest.

6 O Lord, on high now glorified,
When wilt Thou come to bring us home?
Hear Thou Thy Spirit and Thy Bride,
And come, Lord Jesus, quickly come.

If human kindness meets return,
And owns the grateful tie;
If tender thoughts within us burn,
To feel a friend is nigh;

2 O shall not warmer accents tell
The gratitude we owe
To Him, who died, our fears to quell,
Our more than orphan's woe?

3 While yet His anguished soul surveyed
Those pangs He would not flee,
What love His latest words displayed,
"Meet, and remember Me."

Our sinful hearts to share!

Linger on the trembling chords:
Let the “little while” between
In their golden light be seen;

Lie beyond that “Till He come.”

2 When the weary ones we love
Enter on their rest above,
Seems the earth so poor and vast,

All our life-joy overcast?
Hush, be every murmur dumb;
It is only, “Till He come.”

Drink the wine and break the bread:
Sweet memorials,—till the Lord
Call us round His heavenly board:

Severed only, “Till He come.”

HARK! my soul, it is the Lord;
'Tis Thy Saviour, hear His word;
Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee,
"Say, poor sinner, lovest thou Me?"

2 "I delivered thee when bound,
And when wounded, healed thy wound;
Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
Turned thy darkness into light.

3 "Can a woman's tender care
Cease towards the child she bare?
Yes, she may forgetful be
Yet will I remember thee.

4 "Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above,
Deeper than the depths beneath,
Free and faithful, strong as death.

5 "Thou shalt see My glory soon
When the work of grace is done;
Partner of My throne shalt be:
Say, poor sinner, lovest thou Me?"

That my love is weak and faint;

Avails from age to age.
3 Jesus, this feast receiving,

Thy faithful word believing,
We take, and doubt no more:

At the Lamb's high feast we sing
Praise to our victorious King,
Who hath washed us in the tide,
Flowing from His piercéed side.
2 Praise we Him, whose love divine
Gives His sacred blood for wine,
Gives His body for the feast:
Christ the victim, Christ the priest.
3 Where the paschal blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe

4 Praise we Christ, whose blood was shed,
Paschal victim, paschal bread;
With sincerity and love,
Eat we manna from above.
5 Mighty victim from the sky,
Hell's fierce powers beneath Thee lie;
Thou hast conquered in the fight,
Thou has brought us life and light.
6 Hymns of glory and of praise,
Risen Lord, to Thee we raise;
Holy Father, praise to Thee,
With the Spirit, ever be!

WE come unto our fathers' God:
 Their rock is our salvation:
 Th' eternal arms, their dear abode,
 We make our habitation:
 We bring Thee, Lord, the praise they brought;
 We seek Thee as Thy saints have sought
 In every generation.

2 The cleaving sins that brought them low
 Are still our souls oppressing;
 The tears that from their eyes did flow
 Fall fast, our shame confessing;
 As with Thee, Lord, prevailed their cry
 So our strong prayer ascends on high,
 And bringeth down Thy blessing.

3 Their joy unto their Lord we bring;
 Their song to us descendeth:
 The Spirit who in them did sing
 To us His music lendeth.
 His song in them, in us, is one;
 We raise it high, we send it on—
 The song that never endeth!

4 Ye saints to come, take up the strain—
 The same sweet theme endeavor!
 Unbroken be the golden chain!
 Keep on the song for ever!
 Safe in the same dear dwelling-place,
 Rich with the same eternal grace,
 Bless the same boundless Giver,

 Once and again to follow Thee;
 And give us strength, whate'er befall us,

3 When fears appal, and faith is failing,
 Make Thy voice heard o'er wind and wave,

“Why doubt?”—and in Thy love prevailing
 Put forth Thine hand to help and save.

- FORTH to the Land of Promise bound,
Our desert path we tread;
God's fiery pillar for our guide,
His Captain at our head.
- 2 E'en now we faintly trace the hills,
And catch their distant blue;
And the bright City's gleaming spires
Rise dimly on our view.
- 3 Soon, when the desert shall be crossed,
The flood of death passed o'er,
Our pilgrim hosts shall safely land
On Canaan's peaceful shore.
- 4 There love shall have its perfect work,
And prayer be lost in praise;
And all the servants of our God
Their endless anthems raise.

Henry Alford 1830

- LET saints below in concert sing
With those to glory gone;
For all the servants of our King
In earth and heaven are one.
- 2 One family, we dwell in Him,
One Church above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death.
- 3 One army of the living God,
To His command we bow;
Part of the host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.
- 4 Dear Saviour, be our constant guide;
Then, when the word is given,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
And land us safe in heaven.

ONE sole baptismal sign,
 One Lord below, above,
 Zion, one faith is thine,
 One only watchword, love:
 From different temples though it rise,
 One song ascendeth to the skies.

2 Our Sacrifice is one;
 One Priest before the throne,
 The slain, the risen Son,
 Redeemer, Lord alone:
 Thou who didst raise Him from the dead,
 Unite Thy people in their Head.

3 O may that holy prayer,
 His tenderest and His last,
 His constant, latest care
 Ere to His throne He passed,
 No longer unfulfilled remain,
 The world's offence, His people's stain!

4 Head of Thy Church beneath,

 Our hearts in Christian love:
 The fellowship of kindred minds

2 Before our Father's throne
 We pour our ardent prayers;
 Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
 Our comforts and our cares.

3 We share our mutual woes;
 Our mutual burdens bear;
 And often for each other flows
 The sympathizing tear.

4 When we asunder part,
 It gives us inward pain;
 But we shall still be joined in heart,
 And hope to meet again.

5 This glorious hope revives
 Our courage by the way;

Far down the ages now,
Her journey well nigh done,
The pilgrim Church pursues her way,
Until her crown be won.

2 The story of the past
Comes up before her view;
How well it seems to suit her still.
Old, and yet ever new.

3 'Tis the same story still
Of sin and weariness,
Of grace and love yet flowing down
To pardon and to bless.

4 No wider is the gate,
No broader is the way,
No smoother is the ancient path,
That leads to light and day,

5 Thus onward still we press
Through evil and through good,
Through pain and poverty and want,
Through peril and through blood.

6 Still faithful to our God,
And to our Captain true,

We follow where He leads the way,
The kingdom in our view.

DEAR Saviour, we are Thine,
By everlasting bands;
Our names, our hearts, we would resign,
Our souls, into Thy hands.

2 To Thee we still would cleave
With ever-growing zeal;
If millions tempt us Christ to leave,
O let them ne'er prevail!

3 Thy Spirit shall unite
Our souls to Thee, our Head;
Shall form in us Thine image bright,
That we Thy paths may tread.

4 Death may our souls divide
From these abodes of clay;
But love shall keep us near Thy side,
Through all the gloomy way.

5 Since Christ and we are one,
Why should we doubt or fear?
If He in heaven has fixed His throne,
He'll fix His members there.

THE Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is His new creation
By water and the word:
From heaven He came and sought her
To be His holy bride;
With His own blood He bought her,
And for her life He died.

2 Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation,
One Lord, one faith, one birth;
One holy name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

3 'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore;
Till, with the vision glorious,
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.

4 Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with Thee.

Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
Peace and comfort nowhere found.

Turns, a fugitive unblessed;

Where you die shall be my grave.

4 Mine the God whom you adore,
Your Redeemer shall be mine;
Earth can fill my heart no more,
Every idol I resign.

THROUGH the night of doubt and sorrow,

Onward goes the pilgrim band,

Singing songs of expectation,

Marching to the Promised Land.

And before us, through the darkness,

Gleaming clear the guiding light;

Brother clasps the hand of brother,

And steps fearless through the night.

2 One the strain which mouths of thousands

Lift as from the heart of one;

One the conflict, one the peril,

One the march in God begun;

One the gladness of rejoicing

On the resurrection shore,

With one Father o'er us shining

In His love for evermore.

3 Go we onward, pilgrim brothers,

Visit first the cross and grave,

Where the cross its shadow flingeth,

Where the boughs of cypress wave.

Then, a shaking as of earthquakes,

Then, a rending of the tomb,

Then, a scattering of all shadows,

And an end of toil and gloom.

 By redemption's wondrous story,
 By the Saviour crucified;
 Thanks to Thee for every blessing,
 Flowing from the fount of love;
 Thanks for present good unceasing,

 Near Thy bright and burning throne,
 We invoke Thee, God most holy,
 Through Thy well-belovéd Son;

Send the baptism of Thy Spirit,
 Shed the pentecostal fire;
 Let us all Thy grace inherit,
 Waken, crown each good desire.

3 Bind Thy people, Lord, in union,
 With the sevenfold cord of love;
 Breathe a spirit of communion

 Let Thy work be seen progressing;
 Bow each heart, and bend each knee,
 Till the world, Thy truth possessing,
 Celebrates its jubilee.

WHO are these like stars appearing,
 These, before God's throne who stand?
 Each a golden crown is wearing,
 Who are all this glorious band?
 Hallelujah! hark, they sing,
 Praising loud their heavenly King.

2 These are they who have contended
 For their Saviour's honor long,
 Wrestling on till life was ended,
 Following not the sinful throng:
 These, who well the fight sustained,
 Triumph through the Lamb have gained.

3 These are they whose hearts were riven,
 Sore with woe and anguish tried,
 Who in prayer full oft have striven
 With the God they glorified:
 Now, their painful conflict o'er,
 God has bid them weep no more.

4 Lo, the Lamb Himself now feeds them,
 On Mount Zion's pastures fair;
 From His central throne He leads them
 By the living fountain there:
 Lamb and Shepherd, Good Supreme,
 Free He gives the cooling stream.

Traveller, o'er yon mountain's height,

Aught of joy or hope foretell?
Traveller, yes; it brings the day,
Promised day of Israel.

Higher yet that star ascends:
Traveller, blessedness and light,
Peace and truth, its course portends.

Watchman, will its beams alone
Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Traveller, ages are its own,
See, it bursts o'er all the earth.

FLING out the banner: let it float
 Skyward and seaward, high and wide;
 The sun, that lights its shining folds,
 The cross, on which the Saviour died.

2 Fling out the banner: angels bend
 In anxious silence o'er the sign,
 And vainly seek to comprehend
 The wonder of the love divine.

3 Fling out the banner: heathen lands
 Shall see from far the glorious sight;
 And nations, crowding to be born,
 Baptize their spirits in its light.

4 Fling out the banner: let it float
 Skyward and seaward, high and wide:

Our glory only in the cross,

JESUS shall reign where'er the sun
 Does his successive journeys run;
 His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
 Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

2 For Him shall endless prayer be made;
 And praises throng to crown His head;
 His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise
 With every morning sacrifice.

3 People and realms of every tongue
 Dwell on His love with sweetest song;
 And infant voices shall proclaim
 Their early blessings on His name.

4 Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
 The prisoner leaps to loose his chains;
 The weary find eternal rest,
 And all the sons of want are blest.

5 Where He displays His healing power,
 Death and the curse are known no more;
 In Him the tribes of Adam boast
 More blessings than their father lost.

rise;
Exalt thy towering head and lift thine eyes:

And break upon thee in a flood of day.

See future sons, and daughters yet unborn,
In crowding ranks on every side arise,
Demanding life, impatient for the skies.
- 3 See barbarous nations at thy gates attend,
Walk in thy light, and in thy temple bend:
See thy bright altars thronged with prostrate kings,
While every land its joyous tribute brings.
- 4 The seas shall waste, the skies to smoke
decay,
Rocks fall to dust, and mountains melt away;
But fixed His word, His saving power remains;
Thy realm shall last, thy own Messiah reigns.

Come, kingdom of our God, Sweet reign of light and love, Shed peace, and hope, and joy abroad, And wisdom from above.

799

COME, kingdom of our God,
Sweet reign of light and love,
Shed peace, and hope, and joy abroad,
And wisdom from above.

2 Over our spirits first
Extend Thy healing reign;
There raise and quench the sacred thirst
That never pains again.

3 Come, kingdom of our God,
And make the broad earth Thine;

Stretch o'er her lands and isles the rod
That flowers with grace divine

4 Soon may all tribes be blest
With fruit from life's glad tree;
And in its shade, like brothers, rest,
Sons of one family,

5 Come, kingdom of our God,
And raise the glorious throne
In worlds by the undying trod,
When God shall bless His own.

WHEN shall the voice of singing
 Flow joyfully along,
 When hill and valley, ringing
 With one triumphant song,
 Proclaim the contest ended,
 And Him who once was slain,
 Again to earth descended,
 In righteousness to reign?

2 'Then from the craggy mountains
 The sacred shout shall fly;
 And shady vales and fountains
 Shall echo the reply:
 High tower and lowly dwelling
 Shall send the chorus round,
 All "Hallelujah" swelling
 In one eternal sound.

James Edmeston. 1822

The Lord shall build up Zion
 In glory and renown,
 And Jesus, Judah's lion,
 Shall wear His rightful crown.

3 Break forth in hymns of gladness;
 O waste Jerusalem!
 Let songs, instead of sadness,
 Thy jubilee proclaim;
 The Lord, in strength victorious,
 Upon thy foes hath trod;
 Behold, O earth! the glorious Salvation of our God!

Benjamin Gough 1865

802

O THAT the Lord's salvation
 Were out of Zion come,
 To heal His ancient nation,
 To lead His outcasts home.
 How long the holy City
 Shall heathen feet profane?
 Return, O Lord, in pity;
 Rebuild her walls again.

2 Let fall Thy rod of terror,
 Thy saving grace impart;
 Roll back the veil of error,
 Release the fettered heart.
 Let Israel, home returning,
 Her lost Messiah see;
 Give oil of joy for mourning,
 And bind Thy Church to Thee.

Henry Francis Lyte 1834

How beauteous, on the mountains,
 The feet of him that brings,
 Like streams from living fountains,
 Good tidings of good things;
 That publisheth salvation,
 And jubilee release,
 To every tribe and nation,
 God's reign of joy and peace.

2 Lift up thy voice, O watchman!
 And shout, from Zion's towers,
 Thy hallelujah chorus,—
 "The victory is ours!"

Now be the gospel banner
In every land unfurled,
And be the shout, "Hosanna!"
Re-echoed through the world:
Till every isle and nation,
Till every tribe and tongue,
Receive the great salvation,
And join the happy throng.—Cho.

2 What though the embattled legions
Of earth and hell combine?
His power, throughout their regions,
Shall soon resplendent shine:

Ride on, O Lord, victorious,
Immanuel, Prince of peace;
Thy triumph shall be glorious,
Thine empire still increase.—Cho.

3 Yes, Thou shalt reign for ever,
O Jesus, King of kings:
Thy light, Thy love, Thy favor,
Each ransomed captive sings
The isles for Thee are waiting,
The deserts learn Thy praise,
The hills and valleys greeting,
The song responsive raise.—Cho.

Hail to the Lord's Anointed, Great David's greater Son! Hail, in the time appointed, His reign on earth begun!

He comes to break oppression, To set the captive free, To take away transgression, And rule in equity.

804

HAIL to the Lord's Anointed,
Great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free,
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

2 He comes with succor speedy
To those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls condemned and dying,
Were precious in His sight.

3 He shall come down like showers,
Upon the fruitful earth,
And love and joy, like flowers,
Spring in His path to birth:
Before Him on the mountains
Shall peace, the herald, go;
And righteousness in fountains
From hill to valley flow.

4 For Him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end:

The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove;
His name shall stand forever,
That name to us is Love.

James Montgomery 1822

THE morning light is breaking;
The darkness disappears;
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
Brings tidings from afar,
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.

2 See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above;
While sinners, now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour's blessing—
A nation in a day.

3 Blest river of salvation!
Pursue thine onward way;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay:
Stay not till all the lowly Triumphant reach their home:
Stay not till all the holy Proclaim—"The Lord is come!"

1 O CHURCH of God, go forward!
The wilderness thy way;
Let not thy footsteps falter,
Nor in thy march delay.
Earth is no place for resting;
We sojourn but awhile,
Then follow Christ more closely,
Encouraged by His smile.

2 O Church of God, go forward;
The Land of Promise see,
Soon will we cross the Jordan,
And in fair Canaan be.

The heavenly home before us,
Why should we tarry here?
Although the way seems tedious,
Eternal joy is near.

3 'Tis God who says "Go forward"
Thy pathway through the sea,
Beside the smoking Sinai,
Along the flowery lea.
Soon thou wilt stand on Nebo,
Thy weary wanderings o'er;
Then spring from earth to heaven,
With Christ forevermore.

With the sweet word of peace
We bid our brethren go;
Peace, as a river to increase,
And ceaseless flow.

2 With the calm word of prayer
We earnestly commend
Our brethren to Thy watchful care,
Eternal Friend!

3 With the dear word of love
We give our brief farewell;
Our love below, and Thine above,
With them shall dwell.

4 With the strong word of faith
We stay ourselves on Thee;
That Thou, O Lord, in life and death
Their help shalt be.

5 Then the bright word of hope
Shall on our parting gleam,
And tell of joys beyond the scope
Of earthborn dream.

6 Farewell! in hope, and love,
In faith, and peace, and prayer;
Till He, whose home is ours above,
Unite us there!

Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle,
Though every prospect pleases,

In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown,

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, His story,
And you, ye waters, roll,

Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,

EVERY morning mercies new Fall as fresh as morning dew;
 Every morning let us pay
 Tribute with the early day;
 For Thy mercies, Lord, are sure;
 Thy compassion doth endure.
 2 Still the greatness of Thy love
 Daily doth our sin remove;
 Daily, far as east from west,
 Lifts the burden from the breast;
 Gives unbought to those who pray
 Strength to stand in evil day.
 3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
 That these gifts may never fail;
 And, as we confess the sin,
 And the tempter's power within,
 Feed us with the bread of life;
 Fit us for our daily strife.
 4 As the morning light returns,
 As the sun with splendor burns,
 Teach us still to turn to Thee,
 Ever blessed Trinity,

With our hands our hearts to raise,
 In unfailing prayer and praise.

CHRIST, whose glory fills the skies,
 Christ, the true, the only Light,
 Sun of righteousness, arise,
 Triumph o'er the shades of night:
 Dayspring from on high, be near;
 Daystar, in my heart appear.
 2 Dark and cheerless is the morn,
 Unaccompanied by Thee;
 Joyless is the day's return,
 Till Thy mercy's beams I see:
 Till they inward light impart,
 Glad my eyes, and warm my heart.
 3 Visit then this soul of mine,
 Pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
 Fill me, Radiancy divine,
 Scatter all my unbelief:
 More and more Thyself display,
 Shining to the perfect day

DAYSPRING P. M.

DAYSPRING of eternity,
Brightness of the Father's glory,
Dawn on us, that we may see
Clouds and darkness flee before Thee.
Drive afar, with conquering might,
All our night.

2 Let Thy grace, like morning dew,
Fall on hearts in Thee confiding,
Thy sweet comfort, ever new,

Fill our souls with strength abiding;
And Thy quickening eyes behold
Thy dear fold.

3 Lead us to the golden shore,
O Thou rising Sun of morning,
Lead where tears shall flow no more,
Where all sighs to songs are turning,
Where Thy glory sheds away
Perfect day.

Light of light, enlighten me!
Now anew the day is dawning;
Sun of grace, the shadows flee,
Brighten Thou my Sabbath morning!
With Thy joyous sunshine blest,
Happy is my day of rest.

2 Fount of all our joy and peace,
To Thy living waters lead me;
Thou from earth my soul release,

And with grace and mercy feed me;
Bless Thy word that it may prove Rich in fruits that Thou dost love.

3 Let me with my heart to-day,
"Holy, holy, holy," singing,
Rapt awhile from earth away,
All my soul to Thee up-springing,
Have a foretaste inly given,
How they worship Thee in heaven.

WHEN, streaming from the eastern skies,
The morning light salutes mine eyes,
O Sun of righteousness divine,
On me with beams of mercy shine:
Chase the dark clouds of guilt away,
And turn my darkness into day.
2 And when to heaven's all-glorious King
My morning sacrifice I bring,
And, mourning o'er my guilt and shame,

Ask mercy in my Saviour's name,
Then, Jesus, cleanse me with Thy blood,

FATHER, by Thy love and power
Comes again the evening hour;
Light has vanished, labors cease,
Weary creatures rest in peace.
Thou, whose genial dews distil
On the lowliest weed that grows,
Father, guard our bed from ill,
Lull Thy children to repose.
We to Thee ourselves resign,
Let our latest thoughts be Thine.

2 Saviour, to Thy Father bear
This our feeble evening prayer;
Thou hast seen how oft to-day
We like sheep have gone astray;
Worldly thoughts, and schemes of pride,
Wishes to Thy cross untrue,
Secret faults, and undescried
Meet Thy spirit-searching view.
Blesséd Saviour, yet through Thee,
Grant that these may pardoned be.

3 Holy Spirit, let Thy balm,
Fall on us in evening's calm;
Yet awhile, before we sleep,
We with Thee will vigils keep.
Lead us on our sins to muse,
Give us truest penitence;
Then the love of God infuse,
Breathing humble confidence;
Melt our spirits, mould our will,
Soften, strengthen, comfort still.

4 In our solitude be near,
Through the hours of darkness drear;
Then when shrinks the lonely heart,
Thou, O God, most present art.
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Watch o'er our defenceless head;
Let Thy angels' guardian host
Keep all evil from our bed;
Till the flood of morning rays
Wakes us to a song of praise.

 The evening calls us home;
 Once more to Thee, O Father,
 With thankful hearts we come;
 For all Thy countless blessings
 We praise Thy holy name,

 For this, we thank Thee most,

 The daylight dies,
 Let love awake, and pay
 Her evening sacrifice.

2 As Christ upon the cross
 His head inclined,
 And to His Father's hands,
 His parting soul resigned;

3 So now herself my soul
 Would wholly give
 Into His sacred charge,
 In whom all spirits live;

4 So now beneath His eye
 Would calmly rest,
 Without a wish or thought
 Abiding in the breast;

5 Save that His will be done,
 Whate'er betide;
 Dead to herself, and dead
 In Him to all beside.

6 Thus would I live: yet now
 Not I, but He,
 In all His power and love,
 Henceforth alive in me.

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
 Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
 Change and decay in all around I see;

 What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's

Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
 Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide

4 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless:
 Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
 Where is Death's sting? Where, Grave, thy

I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

I LOVE to steal awhile away
 From every cumbering care,
 And spend the hours of setting day
 In humble, grateful prayer.

2 I love, in solitude, to shed

 Where none but God can hear.

3 I love to think on mercies past,

And all my cares and sorrows cast

The heat and burden of the toilsome day,
Be with me also in the silent night,
Be with me when the daylight fades away.

So deign at evening to become my guest;
As Thou hast shared the labors of the day,
So also deign to share and bless my rest.

The day is gen-tly sink-ing to a close, Faint-er, and yet more faint, the sunlight glows;

THE day is gently sinking to a close,
Fainter, and yet more faint, the sunlight glows:
O Brightness of thy Father's glory, Thou,
Eternal Light of light, be with us now;
Where Thou art present, darkness cannot be;
Midnight is glorious noon, O Lord, with Thee.

3 Thou, who in darkness walking, didst appear
Upon the waves, and Thy disciples cheer,
Come, Lord, in lonesome days, when storms
assail,
And earthly hopes, and human succors fail:
When all is dark, may we behold Thee nigh,
And hear Thy voice, "Fear not, for it is I."

2 Our changeful lives are ebbing to an end;
Onward to darkness and to death we tend:
O Conqueror of the grave, be Thou our guide,
Be Thou our light in death's dark eventide;
Then in our mortal hour will be no gloom,
No sting in death, no terror in the tomb.

4 The weary world is mouldering to decay,
Its glories wane, its pageants fade away;
In that last sunset, when the stars shall fall,
May we arise, awakened by Thy call,
With Thee, O Lord, for ever to abide
In that blest day which has no eventide.

At even, ere the sun was set,
 The sick, O Lord, around Thee lay;
 O in what divers pains they met,
 O with what joy they went away.
 2 Once more 'tis eventide, and we,
 Oppressed with various ills, draw near;
 What if Thy form we cannot see?
 We know and feel that Thou art here.
 3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel;
 For some are sick, and some are sad,
 And some have never loved Thee well,
 And some have lost the love they had.

4 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
 For none are wholly free from sin;
 And they who fain would serve Thee best,
 Are conscious most of wrong within.
 5 O Saviour Christ, Thou too art Man;
 Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried;
 Thy kind but searching glance can scan
 The very wounds that shame would hide.
 6 Thy touch has still its ancient power,
 No word from Thee can fruitless fall;
 Hear in this solemn evening hour,
 And in Thy mercy heal us all.

My God, how endless is Thy love:
 Thy gifts are every evening new;

And morning mercies from above,
 Gently distil like early dew.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
 Great guardian of my sleeping hours;
 Thy sovereign word restores the light,
 And quickens all my drowsy powers.

3 I yield my powers to Thy command;
 To Thee I consecrate my days;
 Perpetual blessings from Thy hand
 Demand perpetual songs of praise.

God of the sun - light hours, how sad Would even - ing shad - ows be,
Or night, in deep - er sa - ble clad, If aught were dark to Thee.

863

God of the sunlight hours, how sad
Would evening shadows be,
Or night, in deeper sable clad,
If, aught were dark to Thee.

2 How mournfully that golden gleam
Would touch the thoughtful heart,
If, with its soft, retiring beam,
We saw Thy love depart.

3 But though the sunset hours may hide,
Those gentle rays awhile,
Yet they who in Thy house abide,
Shall ever share Thy smile.

4 Then let creation's volume close,
Though every page be bright;
On Thine, still open, we repose
With more intense delight.

HAIL, tranquil hour of closing day,
Begone, disturbing care;
And look, my soul, from earth away
To Him who heareth prayer.

2 How sweet the tear of penitence,
Before His throne of grace,
While, to the contrite spirit's sense,
He shows His smiling face.
3 How sweet, thro' long-remembered years,
His mercies to recall,

And pressed with wants, and griefs, and fears,
To trust His love for all.

4 How sweet to look, in thoughtful hope,
Beyond this fading sky,
And hear Him call His children up
To His fair home on high.

5 Calmly the day forsakes our heaven
To dawn beyond the west;
So let my soul, in life's last even,
Retire to glorious rest.

THE swift declining day,
How fast its moments fly!
While evening's broad and gloomy shade
Gains on the western sky.

2 Ye mortals, mark its pace,
And use the hours of light;
And know, its Maker can command
At once eternal night.

3 Give glory to the Lord,
Who rules the whirling sphere:
Submissive at His footstool bow,
And seek salvation there.

4 Then shall new lustre break
Through death's impending gloom,
And lead you to unchanging light
In your celestial home.

And if its sun arise and shine,
It shines by Thy command.

2 The present moment flies,
And bears our life away;
O make Thy servants truly wise,
That they may live to-day.

3 Since on this wingéd hour
Eternity is hung,
Waken, by Thine almighty power,
The aged and the young.

4 One thing demands our care,
O be it still pursued;
Lest, slighted once, the season fair
Should never be renewed.

5 To Jesus may we fly,
Swift as the morning light,
Lest life's young golden beams should die
In sudden, endless night.

GLORY to Thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light;
Keep me, O keep me, King of kings,
Beneath Thine own Almighty wings.

2 Forgive me, Lord, for Thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace, may be.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread,
The grave as little as my bed;

Teach me to die, that so I may Rise glorious at the awful day

4 O may my soul on Thee repose;
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close,
Sleep, that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

5 Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

THE day, O Lord, is spent,
Abide with us, and rest;
Our hearts' desires are fully bent
On making Thee our guest.
2 We have not reached that land,
That happy land, as yet,
Where holy angels round Thee stand,
Whose sun can never set.

Our day is almost o'er;
O Sun of righteousness, do Thou
Shine on us evermore.

O may I ever keep in mind,
The night of death draws near

2 Lord, keep me safe this night,
Secure from all my fears;
May angels guard me while I sleep,
Till morning light appears.

3 And when I early rise,
To view the unwearied sun,
May I set out to win the prize,
And after glory run.

4 And when my days are past,
And I from time remove,
O may I in Thy bosom rest,
The bosom of Thy love.

HEAR Thy children, gentle Jesus,
 While we breathe our evening prayer;
 Save us from all harm and danger,
 Take us 'neath Thy sheltering care.
 2 Shield us from the wiles of Satan,
 From the perils of this night;
 Safely may Thy guardian angels
 Keep us in their watchful sight.
 3 Gentle Jesus! look in pity
 From Thy glorious throne above;
 Though we sleep, Thy heart is wakeful,
 Still for us it beats with love.
 4 Shades of evening fast are falling,
 Day is fading into gloom;
 When our earthly life is ended,
 Lead Thy ransomed children home.

TARRY with me, O my Saviour!
 For the day is passing by;
 See! the shades of evening gather,
 And the night is drawing nigh.
 2 Deeper, deeper grow the shadows,
 Paler now the glowing west,
 Swift the night of death advances;
 Shall it be the night of rest?
 3 Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying,
 Lord, I cast myself on Thee;
 Tarry with me through the darkness;
 While I sleep, still watch by me.

 Lay my head upon Thy breast,
 Till the morning; then awake me,
 Morning of eternal rest!

 Keep we watch, lest foes alarm;
 Vain our bulwarks, and our towers,
 But for God's protecting arm.

 Did not God that labor bless;
 Vain, without His grace and favor,
 Every talent we possess.

3 Vainer still the hope of heaven,

SIX of my soul, Thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if Thou be near:
O may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes.

2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep,
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
Forever on my Saviour's breast.

3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.

4 If some poor wandering child of Thine
Have spurned, to-day, the voice divine,
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
Let him no more lie down in sin.

5 Watch by the sick; enrich the poor
With blessings from Thy boundless store;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.

Ere through the world our way we take;

Till, in the ocean of Thy love,
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

But He forgives my follies past,

While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.

2 All the world is God's own field,

First the blade, and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear:
Lord of Harvest, grant that we Wholesome grain and pure may be!

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take His harvest home;
From His field shall in that day
All offences purge away;
Give His angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast;
But the fruitful ears to store
In His garner evermore.

Gather Thou Thy people in Free from sorrow, free from sin:
There, forever purified,
In Thy presence to abide:
Come, with all Thine angels, come:
Raise the glorious Harvest-home!

HERE we, to-day, amidst our flowers
 And fruits, have come to own again
 The blessings of the summer hours,
 The early and the latter rain.

2 To see our Father's hand once more
 Reverse for us the plenteous horn
 Of Autumn, filled and running o'er
 With fruit, and flower, and golden corn.

3 Once more the liberal year laughs out
 O'er richer stores than gems or gold,
 Once more, with harvest song and shout,
 Is nature's bloodless triumph told.

4 O favors every year made new!
 O gifts with rain and sunshine sent!
 The bounty overruns our due,
 The fulness shames our discontent

5 We shut our eyes, the flowers bloom on;
 We murmur, but the corn ears fill;
 We choose the shadow, but the sun
 That casts it, shines behind us still.

 And piled with fruits, awake again
 Thanksgiving for the golden hours,
 The early and the latter rain.

 Is comely; but be not God's benefits forgot
 Amidst your mirth.

3 The God of Harvest praise;
 Hands, hearts, and voices raise
 With one accord;
 From field to garner throng,
 Bearing your sheaves along,
 And in your harvest song
 Bless ye the Lord.

CHRIST, by heavenly hosts adored,
Gracious, Mighty, Sovereign Lord,
God of nations, King of kings,
Head of all created things,
By the Church with joy confessed,
God o'er all forever blest;
Pleading at Thy throne we stand,
Save Thy people, bless our land.
2 On our fields of grass and grain
Drop, O Lord, the kindly rain;
O'er our wide and goodly land
Crown the labors of each hand;

Let Thy kind protection be
O'er our commerce on the sea;
Open, Lord, Thy bounteous hand,
Bless Thy people, bless our land.

3 Let our rulers ever be
Men that love and honor Thee;
Let the powers by Thee ordained,
Be in righteousness maintained:
In the people's hearts increase
Love of piety and peace;
Thus, united, we shall stand
One wide, free, and happy land.

PRaise, O praise our God and King,
Hymns of adoration sing;
For His mercies still endure
Ever faithful, ever sure.

2 Praise Him that He made the sun
Day by day his course to run;
And the silver moon by night,
Shining with her gentle light.

3 Praise Him that He gave the rain
To mature the swelling grain;

And hath bid the fruitful field
Crops of precious increase yield.

4 Praise Him for our harvest-store,
He hath filled the garner-floor;
And for richer food than this,
Pledge of everlasting bliss.

5 Glory to our bounteous King;
Glory let creation sing;
Glory to the Father, Son,
And blest Spirit, Three in One.

Might- y God! while an- gels bless Thee, May a mor- tal sing Thy name? Lord of men as

MIGHTY God! while angels bless Thee,
May a mortal sing Thy name?
Lord of men as well as angels,
Thou art every creature's theme.
Lord of every land and nation,
Ancient of eternal days,
Sounded through the wide creation
Be Thy just and endless praise.

2 For the grandeur of Thy nature,
Grand beyond a seraph's thought;
For the wonders of creation,
Works with skill and kindness wrought;
For Thy providence, that governs
Through Thine empire's wide domain,
Wings an angel, guides a sparrow;
Blesséd be Thy gentle reign.

3 For Thy rich, Thy free redemption,
Bright, though veiled in darkness long,
Thought is poor, and poor expression;
Who can sing that wondrous song?
Brightness of the Father's glory,
Shall Thy praise unuttered lie?
Break, my tongue, such guilty silence,
Sing the Lord who came to die.

4 From the highest throne of glory,
To the cross of deepest woe,
Thou didst stoop to ransom captives;
Flow, my praise, for ever flow:
Re-ascend, Immortal Saviour!
Leave Thy footstool, take Thy throne,
Thence return, and reign for ever,
Be the kingdom all Thine own.

PRaise to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days!
Bounteous Source of every joy,
Let Thy praise our tongues employ.
2 For the blessings of the field,
For the stores the gardens yield;
For the fruits in full supply,
Ripened 'neath the summer sky;
3 Flocks that whiten all the plain;
Yellow sheaves of ripened grain;

Clouds that drop their fattening dews;
Suns that temperate warmth diffuse;
4 All that spring with bounteous hand
Scatters o'er the smiling land;
All that liberal autumn pours
From her rich o'erflowing stores:
5 These to Thee, my God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow;
And for these my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

Sweet land of liberty,

Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

O LORD, be with us when we sail
Upon the lonely deep,
Our guard when on the silent deck
The nightly watch we keep.
2 We need not fear, though all around,
'Mid rising winds, we hear
The multitude of waters surge;
For Thou, O God, art near.
3 The calm, the breeze, the gale, the storm,

All, all are Thine, and held within

Rose high the angry wave,

5 So when the fiercer storms arise
From man's unbridled will,
Be Thou, Lord, present in our hearts
To whisper, "Peace, be still."

TOSSED upon life's raging billow,
 Sweet it is, O Lord, to know
 Thou hast pressed a sailor's pillow,
 And canst feel a sailor's woe:
 Never slumbering, never sleeping,
 Though the night be dark and drear,
 Thou the faithful watch art keeping,
 "All is well!" Thy constant cheer.

2 And though loud the wind is howling,
 Fierce though flash the lightnings red,
 Though the storm-clouds dark are scowling
 O'er the sailor's anxious head:

Thou canst calm the raging ocean,
 All its noise and tumult still,
 Hush the billow's wild commotion,
 At the bidding of Thy will.

3 Thus our hearts the hope will cherish,
 While to heaven we lift our eyes,
 Thou wilt save us ere we perish,
 Thou wilt hear our faintest cries:
 And, though mast and sail be riven,
 Life's short voyage soon is o'er:
 Safely moored in heaven's wide haven,
 Storms and tempests vex no more.

True Bridegroom of Thy spotless bride,
With all Thy human love, draw nigh.
Our human nature, Thy divine

As Cana's water turned to wine,
Its lost godlikeness is restored.

Thee too we worship, God and Lord,
And honor Thee, with praises meet,

Strengthen, and shelter 'neath Thy care,
The life of bridegroom and of bride.

ALL is bright and cheerful round us,
 All above is soft and blue;
 Spring at last hath come and found us;
 Spring and all its pleasures too:
 Every flower is full of gladness,
 Dew is bright, and buds are gay;
 Earth, with all its sin and sadness,
 Seems a happy place to-day.

2 If the flowers that fade so quickly,
 If a day that ends in night,
 If the skies that clouds so thickly
 Often cover from our sight,

If they all have so much beauty,
 What must be God's land of rest,
 Where His sons that do their duty,
 After many toils are blest?

3 There are leaves that never wither;
 There are flowers that ne'er decay:
 Nothing evil goeth thither;
 Nothing good is kept away.
 They that came from tribulation,
 Washed their robes and made them white,
 Out of every tongue and nation,
 Now have rest, and peace, and light.

ONCE in royal David's city
 Stood a lowly cattle shed,
 Where a mother laid her Baby,
 In a manger for His bed:
 Mary was that mother mild,
 Jesus Christ her little Child.

2 He came down to earth from heaven
 Who is God and Lord of all,
 And His shelter was a stable,
 And His cradle was a stall;
 With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
 Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

3 And, through all His wondrous childhood,
 He would honor and obey,
 Love, and watch the lowly maiden
 In whose gentle arms He lay;
 Christian children all must be Mild, obedient, good as He.

4 For He is our childhood's pattern;
 Day by day like us He grew;
 He was little, weak and helpless,
 Tears and smiles like us He knew;
 And He feelth for our sadness,
 And He shareth in our gladness.

5 And our eyes at last shall see Him,
 Through His own redeeming love;
 For that Child so dear and gentle
 Is our Lord in heaven above;
 And He leads His children on
 To the place where He is gone.

6 Not in that poor lowly stable,
 With the oxen standing by,
 We shall see Him; but in Heaven,
 Set at God's right hand on high;
 When like stars His children crowned,
 All in white shall wait around.

COME see the place where Jesus lay,
And hear angelic watchers say
"He lives, who once was slain:
Why seek the living 'midst the dead?
Remember how the Saviour said
That He would rise again."

2 O joyful sound! O glorious hour,
When by His own almighty power
He rose, and left the grave!
Now let our songs His triumph tell,
Who burst the bands of death and hell,
And ever lives to save.

3 The First-begotten of the dead,
For us He rose, our glorious Head,
Immortal life to bring;
What though the saints like Him shall die,
They share their Leader's victory,
And triumph with their King.

To Thee our ransomed souls we give,
To Thee our bodies trust.

THE God of love my Shepherd is,
My gracious, constant Guide;
I shall not want, for I am His:

2 In His green pastures do I feed,
And there lie down at will;

Bearing me home.

WE are soldiers of the cross,
Ours the old, old story;
Counting all our gains as loss
But the gain for glory.
In the path our fathers trod
With their faith unswerving;
Heroes of the Church of God,
So would we be serving.

2 As we raise our martial song,
Courage ne'er abating,
Angel bands, a holy throng,
On our steps are waiting.

Soon the journey will be o'er,
Passed each dark affliction;
Let us think how Jesus bore
Scourge and crucifixion.

3 See the heavenly mansions bright
Faithful hope adorning!
Far behind us looms the night,
But before, the morning:
Onward, onward to the goal,
Jesus goes before us;
Come, O come! each ransomed soul,
Sound on high the chorus.

AROUND the throne of God a band
Of glorious angels ever stand:
Bright things they see, sweet harps they hold,
And on their heads are crowns of gold.

2 Some wait around Him, ready still
To sing His praise and do His will;
And some, when He commands them, go
To guard His servants here below.

3 Lord, give Thine angels every day
Command to guide us on our way;
And bid them every evening keep
Their watch around us while we sleep.

4 So shall no wicked thing draw near
To do us harm or cause us fear;
And we shall dwell, when life is past,
With angels round Thy throne at last.

EVERY morning the red sun
Rises warm and bright;
But the evening cometh on,
And the dark, cold night:
There's a bright land far away,
Where 'tis never-ending day.

2 Every spring the sweet young flowers
Open fresh and gay,
Till the chilly autumn hours
Wither them away!

There's a land we have not seen,
Where the trees are always green.

3 Little birds sing songs of praise
All the summer long,
But in colder shorter days

They forget their song:
There's a place where angels sing
Ceaseless praises to their King.

4 Christ our Lord is ever near
Those who follow Him!
But we cannot see Him here,
For our eyes are dim:
There is a most happy place,
Where men always see His face.

5 Who shall go to that fair land?
All who love the right:
Holy children there shall stand,
In their robes of white;
For that reason, so bright and blest,
Is our everlasting rest.

Jesus is our Shepherd, Wiping every tear; Folded in His bosom, What have we to fear?

JESUS is our Shepherd,
Wiping every tear;
Folded in His bosom,
What have we to fear?

Only let us follow
Whither He doth lead,
To the thirsty desert,
Or the dewy mead.

2 Jesus is our Shepherd:
Well we know His voice
How its gentlest whisper
Makes our heart rejoice;
Even when He chideth,
Tender is His tone:
None but He shall guide us;
We are His alone.

3 Jesus is our Shepherd,
For the sheep He bled;
Every lamb is sprinkled
With the blood He shed;
Then on each He setteth
His own secret sign,—
“They that have My Spirit,”
These, “saith He,” are Mine.”

4 Jesus is our Shepherd;
Guarded by His arm,
Though the wolves may raven,
None can do us harm;
When we tread death's valley,
Dark with fearful gloom,
We will fear no evil,
Victors o'er the tomb.

When to Him fond parents brought Babes for whom they blessing sought,
Little ones like me.

2 Jesus did not answer nay,
Bid them come another day;
Jesus did not turn away
Little ones like me.

3 No, my Saviour's hand was laid,
Softly on each infant head;
Jesus, when He blessed them, said,
“Let them come to Me.”

Lambs are His peculiar care;
He will in His bosom bear
Little ones like me.

LIKE a cradle rocking, rocking,
Silent, peaceful, to and fro,
Like a mother's sweet looks dropping
On the little face below,
Hangs the green earth, swinging, turning,
Jarless, noiseless, safe and slow;
Falls the light of God's face bending
Down and watching us below.

2 And as feeble babes that suffer,
Toss and cry and will not rest,
Are the ones the tender mother
Holds the closest, loves the best,
So when we are weak and wretched,
By our sins weighed down, distressed,
Then it is that God's great patience
Holds us closest, loves us best.

3 O great Heart of God! whose loving Cannot hindered be nor crossed;
Will not weary, will not even
In our death itself be lost—
Love divine! of such great loving,
Only mothers know the cost—
Cost of love, which all love passing,
Gave a Son to save the lost.

SWEETLY sing the love of Jesus!
Love for you, and love for me;
Heaven's light is not more cheering,
Heaven's dews are not more free.
As a child in pain or terror,
Hides him in his mother's breast,
As a sailor seeks the haven,
We would come to Him for rest.
2 Gladly sing the love of Jesus!
Let us lean upon His arm.
If He love us what can grieve us?
If He keep us, what can harm?
Still He lays His hands in blessing
On each timid little face,
And in heaven the children's angels
Near the throne have always place.

3 Ever sing the love of Jesus!
Let the day be dark or clear,
Every pain and every sorrow
Bring His own to Him more near.
Death's cold wave need not affright us
When we know that He has died,
When we see the face of Jesus
Smiling on the Other Side!

Onesweetly solemn thought Comes to me o'er and o'er,—Nearer my home to-day, am I Than e'er I've been before ;

Comes to me o'er and o'er,—
Nearer my home, to-day, am I

Nearer my Saviour's glorious throne ;
Nearer the crystal sea ;

Where burdens are laid down ;
Nearer to leave the heavy cross ;
Nearer to gain the crown.

4 But, lying dark between,
Winding down through the night,
There rolls the deep and unknown stream
That leads at last to light.

5 E'en now, perchance, my feet
Are slipping on the brink,
And I, to-day, am nearer home,—
Nearer than now I think.

Strengthen my power of faith !

Upon the shore of death.

GENTLE Shepherd, Thou hast stilled
Now Thy little lamb's brief weeping;
Ah how peaceful, pale, and mild,

In his narrow bed he's sleeping,
And no sigh of anguish sore
Heaves that little bosom more.

2 In this world of care and pain,
Lord, Thou wouldst no longer leave him
To the sunny, heavenly plain

Dost Thou now with joy receive him:
Clothed in robes of spotless white,
Now he dwells with Thee in light.

3 Ah, Lord Jesus, grant that we
Where he lives may soon be living,
And the lovely pastures see
That his heavenly food are giving:
Then the gain of death we prove
Though Thou take what most we love.

DAYS and moments quickly flying
Speed us onward to the dead:

O, how soon shall we be lying
Each within his narrow bed!

2 Jesus, merciful Redeemer,
Rouse dead souls to hear Thy voice;
Wake, O, wake each idle dreamer
Now to make the eternal choice!

3 As a shadow life is fleeting;
As a vapor so it flies:

For the bygone years, retreating,
Pardon grant, and make us wise;

Strive and wrestle with our sin;
Stay not in our work, nor slumber
Till Thy holy rest we win.

We with all the dead shall stand;

GREAT GOD, what do I see and hear!
The end of things created!
The Judge of mankind doth appear
On clouds of glory seated!
The trumpet sounds; the graves restore
The dead which they contained before;
Prepare, my soul, to meet Him!

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise
At the last trumpet's sounding,
Caught up to meet Him in the skies,
With joy their Lord surrounding:
No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet Him.

V. 1. Bartholomäus Ringwaldt

3 But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
Behold His wrath prevailing;
For they shall rise, and find their tears
And sighs are unavailing:
The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling, they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet Him.

4 Great God, to Thee my spirit clings,
Thy boundless love declaring,
One wondrous sight my comfort brings,
The Judge my nature wearing.
Beneath His cross I view the day
When Heaven and earth shall pass away,
And thus prepare to meet Him.

See in solemn pomp appear:
All His saints, by men rejected,

DAY of wrath! O day of mourning!
 See once more the cross returning,
 Heaven and earth to ashes burning!
 O what fear man's bosom rendeth,
 When from heaven the Judge descendeth,
 On whose sentence all dependeth!

2 Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth;
 Through earth's sepulchers it ringeth;
 All before the throne it bringeth.
 Death is struck, and nature quaking,
 All creation is awaking,
 To its Judge an answer making.

3 What shall I, frail man, be pleading?
 Who for me be interceding,
 When the just are mercy needing?

King of majesty tremendous,
 Who dost free salvation send us,
 Fount of pity! then befriend us!

4 Think, good Jesus, my salvation
 Cost Thy wondrous incarnation;
 Leave me not to reprobation!
 Faint and weary Thou hast sought me,
 On the cross of suffering bought me.
 Shall such grace be vainly brought me?

5 Day of sorrows, day of weeping,
 When, in dust no longer sleeping,
 Man awakes in Thy dread keeping!
 To the rest Thou didst prepare him;
 By Thy cross, O Christ, uphold him;
 Spare, O God, in mercy spare him.

WHEN Thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come
 To take Thy ransomed people home,
 Shall I among them stand?

Shall such a worthless worm as I,
 Who sometimes am afraid to die,
 Be found at Thy right hand?

2 I love to meet among them now,
 Before Thy gracious feet to bow,
 Though vilest of them all;
 But can I bear the piercing thought,
 What if my name should be left out,
 When Thou for them shalt call?

3 O Lord prevent it by Thy grace;
 Be Thou my only hiding-place,
 In this the accepted day;
 Thy pardoning voice, O let me hear,
 To still my unbelieving fear,
 Nor let me fall, I pray.

4 Among Thy saints let me be found,
 Whene'er the archangel's trump shall sound,
 To see Thy smiling face;
 Then loudest of the throng I'll sing,
 While heaven's resounding mansions ring
 With shouts of sovereign grace.

And trees of life forever grow

2 There dwells the Lord, our King,

The Prince of peace,
On Zion's sacred height,
His kingdom still maintains,
And glorious, with His saints in light,

With groves of living joys,
With all the fruits of paradise,

THINE earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love,—
But there's a nobler rest above:
To that our longing souls aspire,
With cheerful hope and strong desire.

2 No more fatigue, no more distress,
Nor sin nor death shall reach the place;
No groans shall mingle with the songs
Which warble from immortal tongues.

3 No rude alarms of raging foes;
No cares to break the long repose
No midnight shade, no clouded sun;

 On the freshest pastures feeds us,

 Celestial fruits on earthly ground

Where not a care shall stir the breast,
 Nor sorrow entrance find?

2 Is there a blissful home,
 Where kindred minds shall meet,
 And live, and love, nor ever roam

For thee, O dear, dear country, Mine eyes their vigils keep; For very love, beholding Thy happy name, they weep.

The mention of thy glo-ry Is unction to the breast, And medicine in sickness, And love, and life, and rest.

978

For thee, O dear, dear country,
Mine eyes their vigils keep;
For very love, beholding
Thy happy name, they weep.
The mention of thy glory
Is unction to the breast,
And medicine in sickness,
And love, and life, and rest.
For thee, &c.

2 O one, O only mansion,
O paradise of joy,
Where tears are ever banished,
And smiles have no alloy;
The Lamb is all thy splendor,
The Crucified thy praise;
His laud and benediction
Thy ransomed people raise.
For thee, &c.

3 With jasper glow thy bulwarks,
Thy streets with emerald blaze;
The sardius and the topaz
Unite in thee their rays;
Thine ageless walls are bonded
With amethyst unpriced;
The saints build up its fabric;
The corner-stone is Christ.
For thee, &c.

4 Thou hast no shore, fair ocean;
Thou hast no time, bright day;
Dear fountain of refreshment
To pilgrims far away.
Upon the Rock of Ages
They raise thy holy tower;
Thine is the victor's laurel,
And thine the golden dower.
For thee, &c.

BRIEF life is here our portion;
Brief sorrow, short-lived care;
The life that knows no ending,
The tearless life, is there.

2 O happy retribution:
Short toil, eternal rest;
For mortals and for sinners
A mansion with the blest.

3 And now we fight the battle,
But then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting
And passionless renown.

4 But He whom now we trust in Shall then be seen and known;
And they that know and see Him
Shall have Him for their own.

5 The morning shall awaken,
The shadows shall decay,
And each true-hearted servant
Shall shine as doth the day.

6 There God our King and portion,
In fulness of His grace,
Shall we behold forever,
And worship face to face.

2 Thy loveliness oppresses
All human thought and heart,
And none, O peace, O Zion,
Can sing thee as thou art.
New mansion of new people,
Whom God's own love and light
Promote, increase, make holy,
Identify, unite.—CHO.

3 And there the band of Prophets
United praise ascribes,
And there the twelve-fold chorus
Of Israel's ransomed tribes:
And there the Sole-Begotten
Is Lord in regal state;
He, Judah's mystic Lion,
He, Lamb Immaculate.—CHO.

O state that fears no strife!

TEN thousand times ten thousand,
In sparkling raiment bright,
The armies of the ransomed saints
Throng up the steep-s of light:
'Tis finished, all is finished,
Their fight with death and sin:
Fling open wide the golden gates,

2 What rush of hallelujahs
Fills all the earth and sky;
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumph nigh.
O day, for which Creation
And all its tribes were made;
O joy, for all its former woes
A thousand fold repaid.

3 O then what raptured greetings
On Canaan's happy shore;
What knitting severed friendships up
Where partings are no more.
Then eyes with joy shall sparkle,
That brimmed with tears of late:
Orphans no longer fatherless,
Nor widows desolate.

4 Bring near Thy great salvation,
Thou Lamb for sinners slain;
Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
Then take Thy power and reign!
Appear, Desire of nations!
Thine exiles long for home:
Show in the heavens Thy promised sign!
Thou Prince and Saviour, come!

UPWARD where the stars are burning,
Silent, silent in their turning,

Round the never-changing pole;

Upward where the sky is brightest,

Upward where the blue is lightest,

Lift I now my longing soul.

2 Far beyond that arch of gladness,

Far beyond these clouds of sadness,

Are the many mansions fair.

Far from pain and sin and folly,

In that palace of the holy,

I would find my mansion there!

3 Where the Lamb on high is seated,

By ten thousand voices greeted,

Lord of lords, and King of kings.

Son of Man, they crown, they crown Him

Son of God, they own, they own Him,

With His name the palace rings.

4 Blessing, honor, without measure,

Heavenly riches, earthly treasure,

Lay we at His blessed feet.

Poor the praise that now we render:

Loud shall be our voices yonder,

When before His throne we meet.

COME to the land of peace,

From shadows come away;

Where all the sounds of weeping cease,

And storms no more have sway.

2 Come to the bright and blest,

Gathered from every land;

For here thy soul shall find its rest

Amid the shining band.

3 In this divine abode

Change leaves no saddening trace;

Come, trusting spirit, to thy God,

Thy holy resting-place.

4 "Come to our peaceful home,"

The saints and angels say,

"Forsake the world, no longer roam,

O wanderer, come away!"

Felicia Dorothea Hemans alt. Briggs' Col. 1845

Work never can bring weariness,

For work itself is love.

2 There is no grief in heaven;

For life is one glad day;

And tears are of those former things

Which all have passed away.

3 There is no sin in heaven;

Behold that blessed throng

All holy is their spotless robe!

All holy is their song!

4 There is no death in heaven;

For they who gain that shore

Have won their immortality,

And they can die no more.

5 Lord Jesus, be our guide;

O lead us safely on,

Till night and grief and sin and death

Are past, and heaven is won!

HARK! the sound of holy voices,
 Chanting o'er the crystal sea,
 "Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Lord, to Thee:"
 Multitudes which none can number,
 Like the stars in glory stand,
 Clothed in white apparel, holding
 Conquering palms in every hand.

2 Marching with Thy cross, their banner,
 They have triumphed, following
 Thee, the Captain of salvation,
 Thee, their Saviour and their King.
 Gladly, Lord, with Thee they suffered;
 Gladly, Lord, with Thee they died;
 And by death, to life immortal
 They were born and glorified.

3 Now they reign in heavenly glory,
 Now they walk in golden light,
 Now they drink, as from a river,
 Holy bliss and infinite;
 Love and peace they taste for ever,
 And all truth and knowledge see
 In the beatific vision
 Of the blessed Trinity.

HEAR what God, the Lord, hath spoken;
 "O my people, faint and few,
 Comfortless, afflicted, broken!
 Fair abodes I build for you;
 Scenes of heartfelt tribulation
 Shall no more perplex your ways;
 You shall name your walls Salvation,
 And your gates shall all be Praise.

2 There, like streams that feed the garden,
 Pleasures without end shall flow;
 For the Lord, your faith rewarding,
 All His bounty shall bestow:
 Still in undisturbed possession,
 Peace and righteousness shall reign;
 Never shall you feel oppression,
 Hear the voice of war again.

3 Ye, no more your suns descending,
 Waning moons no more shall see,
 But, your griefs forever ending,
 Find eternal noon in Me:
 God shall rise, and shining o'er you,
 Change to day the gloom of night;
 He, the Lord, shall be your glory,
 God, your everlasting light."

BLESSED city, heavenly Salem,
Vision dear of peace and love,
Who, of living stones art build
In the height of heaven above,
And, with angel hosts encircled,
As a bride dost earthward move;

2 From celestial realms descending,
Bridal glory round thee shed,
Meet for Him whose love espoused thee,
To thy Lord shalt thou be led;
All thy streets, and all thy bulwarks
Of pure gold are fashioned.

3 Bright thy gates of pearl are shining,
They are open evermore;
And by virtue of His merits
Thither faithful souls do soar,
Who for Christ's dear name, in this world
Pain and tribulation bore.

4 Many a blow and biting sculpture
Polished well those stones elect,
In their places now compacted
By the heavenly Architect,
Who therewith hath willed for ever
That His palace should be decked.

THE Homeland! O the Homeland!

The land of souls freeborn!

No gloomy night is known there,

But aye the fadeless morn:

I'm sighing for that Country,

My heart is aching here;

There is no pain in the Homeland

To which I'm drawing near.

2 My Lord is in the Homeland,

With angels bright and fair;

No sinful thing nor evil,

Can ever enter there;

The music of the ransomed

Is ringing in my ears,

And when I think of the Homeland,

My eyes are wet with tears.

3 For loved ones in the Homeland

Are waiting me to come

Where neither death nor sorrow

Inva'de their holy home:

O dear, dear native Country!

O rest and peace above!

Christ bring us all to the Homeland

Of His eternal love.

ON the fount of life eternal

Gazing wistful and athirst,

Yearning, straining, from the prison

Of confining flesh to burst,

Here the soul an exile sighs

For her native Paradise.

2 Who can paint that lovely city,

City of true peace divine,

Whose pure gates, forever open,

Each in pearly splendor shine;

Whose abodes of glory clear,

Naught defiling cometh near?

3 There no stormy winter rages;

There no scorching summer glows;

But through one perennial spring-tide,

Blooms the lily with the rose;

And the Lamb, with purest ray,

Scatters round eternal day.

4 There the saints of God, resplendent

As the sun in all its might,

Evermore rejoice together,

Crowned with diadems of light;

And from peril safe at last,

Reckon up their triumphs past.

5 Happy they, who with them seated

Shall in all their glory share!

O that we, our days completed,

Might be but admitted there!

There with them the praise to sing

Of our glorious God and King.

6 Look, O Jesus, on Thy soldiers,

Worn and wounded in the fight;

Grant, O grant us, rest forever,

In Thy beatific sight;

And Thyself our guerdon be

Through a long eternity.

WAKE, awake! for night is flying;
The watchmen on the heights are crying,
Awake, Jerusalem, at last!

Midnight hears the welcome voices,
And at the thrilling cry rejoices:

Come forth, ye virgins, night is past!

The Bridegroom comes; awake!

Your lamps with gladness take;
Hallelujah!

And for His marriage feast prepare,
For ye must go to meet Him there.

2 Zion hears the watchmen singing
And all her heart with joy is springing,
She wakes, she rises from her gloom;
For her Lord comes down all glorious,
The strong in grace, in truth victorious,
Her star is risen, her light is come!

Ah come, Thou blessed Lord,

O Jesus, Son of God,

Hallelujah!

We follow till the halls we see

Where Thou hast bid us sup with Thee.

3 Now let all the heavens adore Thee,
And men and angels sing before Thee,
With harp and cymbal's clearest tone;
Of one pearl each shining portal,
Where we are with the choir immortal,
Of angels round Thy dazzling throne;
Nor eye hath seen, nor ear
Hath yet attained to hear

What there is ours,

But we rejoice, and sing to Thee
Our hymns of joy eternally.

The Psalter

A

SELECTION OF PSALMS

ARRANGED FOR RESPONSIVE READING
IN THE HOUSE OF GOD

WITH SELECTIONS FOR CHANTING, AND TABLES OF LESSONS

BY

T. RALSTON SMITH

PASTOR OF WESTMINSTER CHURCH, BUFFALO

MAYNARD, MERRILL, & CO.
NEW YORK

COPYRIGHT, 1892, BY CHARLES E. MERRILL & CO.

NOTE

IN this arrangement of the Psalms, the revised version is used, substituting the renderings preferred by the American Committee of Revisers.

The divisions follow, in the main, the structure of the Hebrew parallelisms. In no other way can the reading be genuinely responsive.

Without infringing the liberty of choosing, the plan contemplates a consecutive course, extending through half the year. In repeating, the selections for the two parts of the day exchange places, so that the entire series adapts itself to both the morning and evening services each year. When there are only four Lord's days in a month, the selections appointed for the fifth may be substituted at discretion for those of the preceding day. For a fifth Lord's day in February, very rarely occurring, the choice of selections is left to the Minister.

There is no attempt at classifying the Psalms, as the Scriptural order is familiar, and its observance profitable. For special occasions, however, appropriate Psalms are needed, and these are suitably indicated.

The letters M and E, following the dates, signify Morning and Evening.

The lines printed in Italics are to be read by the Minister.

The lines printed in the Roman letter, and set inward from the margin, are to be read by the people.

In a few instances, lines to be read by the Minister and the people together are distinguished by SMALL CAPITALS.

THE PSALTER

1 Ps. 1, 2, 3 (part).

JANUARY, FIRST LORD'S DAY, MORNING.

JULY, FIRST LORD'S DAY, EVENING.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked,

*Nor standeth in the way of sinners,
Nor sitteth in the seat of scoffers.*

*But his delight is in the law of Jehovah;
And in his law doth he meditate day and night.*

And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water,

That bringeth forth its fruit in its season,

Whose leaf also doth not wither;

And whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The wicked are not so;

But are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment,

Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For Jehovah knoweth the way of the righteous:

But the way of the wicked shall perish.

Why do the nations rage,

And the peoples meditate a vain thing?

The kings of the earth set themselves,

And the rulers take counsel together, Against Jehovah, and against his anointed,

*Saying, Let us break their bonds asunder,
And cast away their cords from us.*

*He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh:
The Lord shall have them in derision.*

Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath,

And vex them in his sore displeasure:

Yet I have set my king

Upon my holy hill of Zion.

I will tell of the decree:

*Jehovah said unto me, Thou art
my Son;*

This day have I begotten thee.

Ask of me, and I will give thee the nations for thine inheritance,

And the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

*Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron;
Thou shalt dash them in pieces*

like a potter's vessel.

Now therefore be wise, O ye kings:

Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

Serve Jehovah with fear,

And rejoice with trembling.

Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish in the way,

For his wrath will soon be kindled.

Blessed are all they that take refuge in him.

I cry unto Jehovah with my voice,

And he answereth me out of his holy hill.

*I laid me down and slept;
I awaked; for Jehovah sustaineth
me.*

I will not be afraid of ten thousands of the people,

That have set themselves against me round about.

*Arise, O Jehovah; save me, O my God:
For thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone;
Thou hast broken the teeth of the wicked.*

*Salvation belongeth unto Jehovah:
Thy blessing be upon thy people.*

2 Ps. 4, 5 (part), 8.

JANUARY, FIRST LORD'S DAY, E.

JULY, SECOND LORD'S DAY, M.

Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness:

Thou hast set me at large when I was in distress:

*Have mercy upon me, and hear
my prayer.*

O ye sons of men, how long shall my glory be turned into dishonour?

How long will ye love vanity, and seek after falsehood?

But know that Jehovah hath set apart him that is godly for himself:

Jehovah will hear when I call unto him.

Stand in awe, and sin not:

Commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still.

*Offer the sacrifices of righteousness,
And put your trust in Jehovah.*

Many there are that say, Who will show us any good?

Jehovah, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

*Thou hast put gladness in my heart,
More than they have when their grain and their new wine are increased.*

In peace will I both lay me down and sleep:

For thou, Jehovah, alone makest me dwell in safety.

*Give ear to my words, O Jehovah,
Consider my meditation.*

Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God:

For unto thee do I pray.

O Jehovah, in the morning shalt thou hear my voice;

In the morning will I order my prayer unto thee, and will keep watch.

*O Jehovah, our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all the earth!*

Who hast set thy glory upon the heavens.

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou established strength,

*Because of thine adversaries,
That thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.*

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers,

The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

*What is man, that thou art mindful of
him?*

And the son of man, that thou visitest him?

For thou hast made him but little lower than God,

And crownest him with glory and honour.

Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands;

Thou hast put all things under his feet:

*All sheep and oxen,
Yea, and the beasts of the field;*

The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea,

Whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O Jehovah, our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

3 Ps. 13, 15, 16.

JANUARY, SECOND LORD'S DAY, M.
JULY, SECOND LORD'S DAY, E.

*How long, O Jehovah, wilt thou forget me
for ever?*

How long wilt thou hide thy face
from me?

*How long shall I take counsel in my soul,
Having sorrow in my heart all the day?*
How long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

Consider and answer me, O Jehovah my God:

Lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him;

Lest mine adversaries rejoice when
I am moved.

*But I have trusted in thy lovingkindness;
My heart shall rejoice in thy salvation:*

I will sing unto Jehovah,
Because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

Jehovah, who shall sojourn in thy tabernacle?

Who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

*He that walketh uprightly, and worketh
righteousness,*

And speaketh truth in his heart.

*He that slandereth not with his tongue,
Nor doeth evil to his friend,*

Nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

*In whose eyes a reprobate is despised;
But he honoureth them that fear Jehovah.*

He that sweareth to his own hurt,
and changeth not.

*He that putteth not out his money to usury,
Nor taketh reward against the innocent.*

He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

Preserve me, O God:

For in thee do I take refuge.

*O my soul, thou hast said unto Jehovah,
Thou art my Lord:*

I have no good beyond thee.

As for the saints that are in the earth,

They are the excellent in whom is all my delight.

Their sorrows shall be multiplied that give gifts for another god:

Their drink offerings of blood will
I not offer,

Nor take their names upon my lips.

Jehovah is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup:

Thou maintainest my lot.

The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places;

Yea, I have a goodly heritage.

I will bless Jehovah, who hath given me counsel:

Yea, my reins instruct me in the night seasons.

I have set Jehovah always before me:

Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

*Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory
rejoiceth:*

My flesh also shall dwell in safety.

*For thou wilt not leave my soul to Sheol;
Neither wilt thou suffer thy Holy*

One to see corruption.

Thou wilt show me the path of life:

In thy presence is fullness of joy;

In thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

4 Ps. 18 (part).

JANUARY, SECOND LORD'S DAY, E.
JULY, THIRD LORD'S DAY, M.

I love thee, O Jehovah, my strength.

Jehovah is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer;

My God, my strong rock, in him
will I take refuge;

My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.

I will call upon Jehovah, who is worthy to be praised :

So shall I be saved from mine enemies.

*The cords of death compassed me,
And the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.*

*The cords of Sheol were round about me :
The snares of death came upon
me.*

*In my distress I called upon Jehovah,
And cried unto my God :
He heard my voice out of his temple,
And my cry before him came into his ears.*

*Then the earth shook and trembled,
The foundations also of the mountains quaked
And were shaken, because He was wroth.*

*There went up a smoke out of his nostrils,
And fire out of his mouth devoured :
Coals were kindled by it.*

*He bowed the heavens also, and came down ;
And thick darkness was under his feet.*

*And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly :
Yea, he flew swiftly upon the wings of the wind.*

*He made darkness his hiding place, his pavilion round about him ;
Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.*

*At the brightness before him his thick clouds passed,
Hailstones and coals of fire.*

*Jehovah also thundered in the heavens,
And the Most High uttered his voice ;
Hailstones and coals of fire.*

*And he sent out his arrows, and scattered them ;
Yea, lightnings manifold, and discomfited them.*

*Then the channels of waters appeared,
And the foundations of the world were laid bare,*

*At thy rebuke, O Jehovah,
At the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.*

*He sent from on high, he took me ;
He drew me out of many waters.*

*He delivered me from my strong enemy,
And from them that hated me, for they were too mighty for me.*

They came upon me in the day of my calamity :

But Jehovah was my stay.

*He brought me forth also into a large place ;
He delivered me, because he delighted in me.*

*Jehovah rewarded me according to my
righteousness ;*

According to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

*For I have kept the ways of Jehovah,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.*

*For all his judgments were before me,
And I put not away his statutes
from me.*

5

Ps. 19, 20.

JANUARY, THIRD LORD'S DAY, M.
JULY, THIRD LORD'S DAY, E.

*The heavens declare the glory of God ;
And the firmament showeth his handywork.*

*Day unto day uttereth speech,
And night unto night showeth knowledge.*

*There is no speech nor language ;
Their voice cannot be heard.*

*Their line is gone out through all the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.*

In them hath he set a tabernacle
for the sun,

Who is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,

And rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course.

His going forth is from the end of the heaven,

*And his circuit unto the ends of it :
And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.*

The law of Jehorah is perfect, restoring the soul :

The testimony of Jehovah is sure,
making wise the simple.

The precepts of Jehovah are right, rejoicing the heart :

The commandment of Jehovah is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of Jehovah is clean, enduring forever :

The judgments of Jehovah are true, and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold :

Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned :

In keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can discern his errors ?

Clear thou me from hidden faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins ;

Let them not have dominion over me : then shall I be perfect,
And I shall be clear from great transgression.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight,

O Jehovah, my rock, and my redeemer.

Jehovah answer thee in the day of trouble ;
The name of the God of Jacob set thee up on high ;

Send thee help from the sanctuary,
And strengthen thee out of Zion ;

Remember all thy offerings,
And accept thy burnt sacrifice ;

Grant thee thy heart's desire,
And fulfil all thy counsel.

We will triumph in thy salvation,
And in the name of our God we will set up our banners :

Jehovah fulfil all thy petitions.

Now know I that Jehorah saveth his anointed ;

He will answer him from his holy heaven

With the saving strength of his right hand.

Some trust in chariots, and some in horses :

But we will make mention of the name of Jehovah our God.

They are bowed down and fallen :

But we are risen, and stand upright.

Save, Jehovah :

Let the King answer us when we call.

6 Ps. 21, 22 (part).

JANUARY, THIRD LORD'S DAY, E.

JULY, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, M.

The king shall joy in thy strength, O Jehovah ;

And in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice !

Thou hast given him his heart's desire,
And hast not withholden the request of his lips.

For thou meetest him with the blessings of goodness :

Thou settest a crown of fine gold on his head.

He asked life of thee, thou gavest it him ;
Even length of days for ever and ever.

His glory is great in thy salvation :

Honour and majesty dost thou lay upon him.

For thou makest him most blessed for ever :
Thou makest him glad with joy in thy presence.

For the king trusteth in Jehovah,
And through the lovingkindness of the Most High he shall not be moved.

Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies :

Thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

Thou shalt make them as a fiery furnace in the time of thine anger

Jehovah shall swallow them up in his wrath,
And the fire shall devour them.

Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth,

And their seed from among the children of men.

For they intended evil against thee :

They devised a device, which they are not able to perform.

For thou shalt make them turn their back,

Thou shalt make ready with thy bow-strings against the face of them.

Be thou exalted, O Jehovah, in thy strength :

So will we sing and praise thy power.

I will declare thy name unto my brethren :

In the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

Ye that fear Jehovah, praise him ;

All ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him ;

And stand in awe of him, all ye the seed of Israel.

For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted ;

Neither hath he hid his face from
him ;

But when he cried unto him, he heard.

Of thee cometh my praise in the great congregation :

I will pay my vows before them
that fear him.

The meek shall eat and be satisfied :

They shall praise Jehovah that seek after him :

Let your heart live for ever.

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn unto Jehovah :

And all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

For the kingdom is Jehovah's :

And he is the ruler over the nations.

All the fat ones of the earth shall eat and worship :

All they that go down to the dust shall bow before him,
Even he that cannot keep his soul alive.

A seed shall serve him ;

It shall be told of the Lord unto the next generation.

They shall come and shall declare his righteousness

Unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done it.

7 Ps. 23, 24, 26 (part).

JANUARY, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, M.

JULY, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, E.

Jehovah is my shepherd ;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures :

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul :

He guideth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil ; for thou art with me :

Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies :

Thou hast anointed my head with oil ; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and lovingkindness shall follow me all the days of my life :

And I will dwell in the house of Jehovah for ever.

*The earth is Jehovah's, and the fulness
thereof ;*

The world, and they that dwell
therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas,

And established it upon the floods.

*Who shall ascend into the hill of Jehovah ?
And who shall stand in his holy place ?*

*He that hath clean hands, and a pure
heart :*

Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity,
And hath not sworn deceitfully.

*He shall receive a blessing from Jehovah,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.*

This is the generation of them that seek after him,

That seek thy face, even Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates ;

And be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors :

And the King of glory shall come
in.

Who is the King of glory ?

Jehovah strong and mighty,
Jehovah mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates ;

Yea, lift them up, ye everlasting doors :

And the King of glory shall come
in.

Who is this King of glory ?

Jehovah of hosts,
He is the King of glory.

I will wash my hands in innocency ;

So will I compass thine altar, O
Jehovah :

*That I may make the voice of thanksgiving
to be heard,*

And tell of all thy wondrous works.

*Jehovah, I love the habitation of thy house,
And the place where thy glory
dwelleth.*

Gather not my soul with sinners,

Nor my life with men of blood :

In whose hands is mischief,

And their right hand is full of bribes.

But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity :

Redeem me, and be merciful unto
me.

My foot standeth in an even place :

In the congregations will I bless Jehovah.

8

Ps. 25.

JANUARY, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, E.

JULY, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, M.

*Unto thee, O Jehovah, do I lift up my soul.
O my God, in thee have I trusted,*

Let me not be put to shame ;

Let not mine enemies triumph over me.

Yea, none that wait for thee shall be put to shame :

They shall be put to shame that deal treacherously without cause.

Show me thy ways, O Jehovah :

Teach me thy paths.

Guide me in thy truth, and teach me ;

For thou art the God of my salvation ;

For thee do I wait all the day.

Remember, O Jehovah, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses :

For they have been ever of old.

Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions :

According to thy lovingkindness
remember thou me,

For thy goodness' sake, O Jehovah.

Good and upright is Jehovah :

Therefore will he instruct sinners in the way.

The meek will he guide in judgment :

And the meek will he teach his way.

All the paths of Jehovah are lovingkindness and truth

Unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

For thy name's sake, O Jehovah,

Pardon mine iniquity, for it is great.

What man is he that feareth Jehovah ?

Him shall he instruct in the way that he shall choose.

*His soul shall dwell at ease ;
And his seed shall inherit the land.
The secret of Jehovah is with them that fear him ;
And he will show them his covenant.*

*Mine eyes are ever toward Jehovah ;
For he shall pluck my feet out of the net.*

*Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon
me ;
For I am desolate and afflicted.*

*The troubles of my heart are enlarged :
O bring thou me out of my distresses.*

*Consider mine affliction and my travail ;
And forgive all my sins.*

*Consider mine enemies, for they are many ;
And they hate me with cruel hatred.*

*O keep my soul and deliver me :
Let me not be put to shame ; for I take refuge in thee.*

*Let integrity and uprightness preserve me,
For I wait for thee.*

*Redeem Israel, O God,
Out of all his troubles.*

9 Ps. 27.

JANUARY, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, M.

JULY, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, E.

*Jehovah is my light and my salvation ;
whom shall I fear ?*

*Jehovah is the strength of my life ;
of whom shall I be afraid ?*

When evil-doers came upon me to eat up my flesh,

Even mine adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.

*Though an host should encamp against
me,*

*My heart shall not fear :
Though war should rise against
me,
Even then will I be confident.*

*One thing have I asked of Jehovah, that will I seek after ;
That I may dwell in the house of Jehovah
all the days of my life,*

*To behold the beauty of Jehovah,
and to inquire in his temple.*

For in the day of trouble he shall keep me secretly in his pavilion :

In the covert of his tabernacle shall he hide me ;

He shall lift me up upon a rock.

And now shall my head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me ;

And I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy ;

*I will sing, yea, I will sing praises
unto Jehovah.*

Hear, O Jehovah, when I cry with my voice :

Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

*When thou saidst, Seek ye my face ; my heart said unto thee,
Thy face, Jehovah, will I seek.*

*Hide not thy face from me ;
Put not thy servant away in anger :*

*Thou hast been my help ;
Cast me not off, neither forsake me,
O God of my salvation.*

For my father and my mother have forsaken me,

But Jehovah will take me up.

*Teach me thy way, O Jehovah ;
And lead me in a plain path,
Because of mine enemies.*

Deliver me not over unto the will of mine adversaries :

For false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of Jehovah

In the land of the living.

*Wait for Jehovah :
Be strong, and let thy heart take courage ;
Yea, wait thou for Jehovah.*

10

Ps. 28, 29.

JANUARY, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, E.

AUGUST, FIRST LORD'S DAY, M.

My rock, be not thou deaf unto me:

*Lest, if thou be silent unto me,*I become like them that go down into the pit.*Hear the voice of my supplications, whenI cry unto thee,*When I lift up my hands toward majesty.*The voice of Jehovah breaketh the cedars;*Yea, Jehovah breaketh in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.*He maketh them also to skip like a calf;*Lebanon and Sirion like a young

11

Ps. 31, 32 (parts).

FEBRUARY, FIRST LORD'S DAY, M.

AUGUST, FIRST LORD'S DAY, E.

In thee, O Jehovah, do I take refuge; let me never be put to shame:

Deliver me in thy righteousness.

Bow down thine ear unto me; deliver me *speedily:*Be thou to me a strong rock, a house of defence to save me.*For thou art my rock and my fortress;*Therefore for thy name's sake lead me and guide me.

*Pluck me out of the net that they have laid privily for me;
For thou art my strong hold.*

*Into thy hand I commend my spirit;
Thou hast redeemed me, O Jehovah, thou God of truth.*

*Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee,
Which thou hast wrought for them that take refuge in thee, before the sons of men!*

*In the covert of thy presence shalt thou hide them from the plottings of man:
Thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.*

*Blessed be Jehovah:
For he hath showed me his marvellous lovingkindness in a strong city.*

*As for me, I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes:
Nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.*

*O love Jehovah, all ye his saints;
Jehovah preserveth the faithful,
And plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.*

*Be strong, and let your heart take courage,
All ye that wait for Jehovah.*

*Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven,
Whose sin is covered.*

*Blessed is the man unto whom Jehovah im-puteth not iniquity,
And in whose spirit there is no guile.*

*I acknowledged my sin unto thee,
And mine iniquity have I not hid:*

*I said, I will confess my transgressions
unto Jehovah;
And thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.*

For this let every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found:

*Surely when the great waters overflow they shall not reach unto
him.*

Thou art my hiding place; thou wilt preserve me from trouble;

Thou wilt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go:

I will counsel thee with mine eye upon thee.

Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding:

Whose trappings must be bit and bridle to hold them in,

Else they will not come near unto thee.

Many sorrows shall be to the wicked:

But he that trusteth in Jehovah, lovingkindness shall compass him about.

Be glad in Jehovah, and rejoice, ye righteous:

And shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

12

Ps. 33.

FEBRUARY, FIRST LORD'S DAY, E.

AUGUST, SECOND LORD'S DAY, M.

*Rejoice in Jehovah, O ye righteous:
Praise is comely for the upright.*

*Give thanks unto Jehovah with harp:
Sing praises unto him with the psaltery of ten strings.*

*Sing unto him a new song;
Play skilfully with a loud noise.*

*For the word of Jehovah is right;
And all his work is done in faithfulness.*

*He loveth righteousness and justice:
The earth is full of the lovingkindness of Jehovah.*

By the word of Jehovah were the heavens made ;

And all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth.

He gathereth the waters of the sea together as a heap ;

He layeth up the deeps in store-houses.

Let all the earth fear Jehovah :

Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

For he spake, and it was done ;

He commanded, and it stood fast.

Jehovah bringeth the counsel of the nations to nought :

He maketh the thoughts of the peoples to be of none effect.

The counsel of Jehovah standeth fast for ever,

The thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Blessed is the nation whose God is Jehovah ;

The people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

Jehovah looketh from heaven ;

He beholdeth all the sons of men ;

From the place of his habitation he looketh forth

Upon all the inhabitants of the earth ;

He that fashioneth the hearts of them all,

That considereth all their works.

There is no king saved by the multitude of a host :

A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.

A horse is a vain thing for safety :

Neither shall he deliver any by his great power.

Behold, the eye of Jehovah is upon them that fear him,

Upon them that wait for his lovingkindness ;

To deliver their soul from death,

And to keep them alive in famine.

Our soul hath waited for Jehovah :

He is our help and our shield.

For our heart shall rejoice in him,

Because we have trusted in his holy name.

Let thy lovingkindness, O Jehovah, be upon us,

According as we have waited for thee.

13

Ps. 34.

FEBRUARY, SECOND LORD'S DAY, M.

AUGUST, SECOND LORD'S DAY, E.

I will bless Jehovah at all times :

His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

My soul shall make her boast in Jehovah :

The meek shall hear thereof, and be glad.

O magnify Jehovah with me,

And let us exalt his name together.

I sought Jehovah, and he answered me,

And delivered me from all my fears.

They looked unto him and were lightened :

And their faces shall never be confounded.

This poor man cried, and Jehovah heard him,

And saved him out of all his troubles.

The angel of Jehovah encampeth round about them that fear him,

And delivereth them.

O taste and see that Jehovah is good :

Blessed is the man that taketh refuge in him.

O fear Jehovah, ye his saints :

For there is no want to them that fear him.

The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger :

But they that seek Jehovah shall not want any good thing.

Come, ye children, hearken unto me :

I will teach you the fear of Jehovah.

*What man is he that desireth life,
And loveth many days, that he may see good?*

*Keep thy tongue from evil,
And thy lips from speaking guile.*

*Depart from evil, and do good;
Seek peace, and pursue it.*

*The eyes of Jehovah are toward the righteous,
And his ears are open unto their cry.*

*The face of Jehovah is against them that do evil,
To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.*

*The righteous cried, and Jehovah heard,
And delivered them out of all their troubles.*

*Jehovah is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart,
And saveth such as are of a contrite spirit.*

*Many are the afflictions of the righteous:
But Jehovah delivereth him out of them all.*

*He keepeth all his bones:
Not one of them is broken.*

*Evil shall slay the wicked:
And they that hate the righteous shall be condemned.*

*Jehovah redeemeth the soul of his servants:
And none of them that take refuge in him shall be condemned.*

14 Ps. 35 (part), 36.

FEBRUARY, SECOND LORD'S DAY, E.
AUGUST, THIRD LORD'S DAY, M.

I will give thee thanks in the great congregation:

I will praise thee among much people.

Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me:

Neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

For they speak not peace:

But they devise deceitful words against them that are quiet in the land.

*Yea, they opened their mouth wide against
me;*

They said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it.

Thou hast seen it, O Jehovah; keep not silence:

O Lord, be not far from me.

*Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment,
Even unto my cause, my God and my Lord.*

*Judge me, O Jehovah my God, according to thy righteousness;
And let them not rejoice over me.*

Let them not say in their heart, Aha, so would we have it:

Let them not say, We have swallowed him up.

Let them be put to shame and confounded together that rejoice at my hurt:

Let them be clothed with shame and dishonour that magnify themselves against me.

Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause:

*Yea, let them say continually, Jehovah be magnified,
Who hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.*

And my tongue shall talk of thy righteousness,

And of thy praise all the day long.

The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart,

There is no fear of God before his eyes.

*For he flattereth himself in his own eyes,
That his iniquity shall not be found out and be hated.*

The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit:

He hath left off to be wise and to do good.

*He deviseth iniquity upon his bed ;
He setteth himself in a way that is not good ;
He abhorreth not evil.*

*Thy lovingkindness, O Jehovah, is in the heavens ;
Thy faithfulness reacheth unto the skies.*

Thy righteousness is like the mountains of God ;

*Thy judgments are a great deep :
O Jehovah, thou preservest man and beast.*

*How precious is thy lovingkindness, O God !
And the children of men take refuge under the shadow of thy wings.*

*They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house ;
And thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.*

*For with thee is the fountain of life :
In thy light shall we see light.*

*O continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee ;
And thy righteousness to the upright in heart.*

*Let not the foot of pride come against me,
And let not the hand of the wicked drive me away.*

*There are the workers of iniquity fallen :
They are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise.*

15 Ps. 37 (part).

FEBRUARY, THIRD LORD'S DAY, M.

AUGUST, THIRD LORD'S DAY, E.

*Fret not thyself because of evil-doers,
Neither be thou envious against them that work unrighteousness.*

*For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,
And wither as the green herb.*

*Trust in Jehovah, and do good ;
Dwell in the land, and feed on his faithfulness.*

*Delight thyself also in Jehovah ;
And he shall give thee the desires of thy heart.*

*Commit thy way unto Jehovah ;
Trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.*

*And he shall make thy righteousness to go forth as the light,
And thy judgment as the noonday.*

*Rest in Jehovah, and wait patiently for
him :*

*Fret not thyself because of him who pros-pereth in his way,
Because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.*

*Cease from anger, and forsake wrath :
Fret not thyself, it tendeth only to evil-doing.*

*For evil-doers shall be cut off :
But those that wait for Jehovah,
they shall inherit the land.*

For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be :

Yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and he shall not be.

*But the meek shall inherit the land ;
And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.*

*A man's goings are established of Jehovah ;
And he delighteth in his way.*

*Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast
down :*

For Jehovah upholdeth him with his hand.

*I have been young, and now am old ;
Yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken,
Nor his seed begging their bread.*

*The mouth of the righteous talketh of wisdom,
And his tongue speaketh judgment.*

*The law of his God is in his heart ;
None of his steps shall slide.*

*The wicked watcheth the righteous,
And seeketh to slay him.*

*Jehovah will not leave him in his hand,
Nor condemn him when he is judged.*

*Wait for Jehovah, and keep his way,
And he shall exalt thee to inherit the land:
When the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.*

*I have seen the wicked in great power,
And spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil.*

*But one passed by, and, lo, he was not:
Yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.*

*Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright:
For there is a happy end to the man of peace.*

*As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together:
The end of the wicked shall be cut off.*

*But the salvation of the righteous is of Jehovah:
He is their strong hold in the time of trouble.*

*And Jehovah helpeth them, and rescueth
them:
He rescueth them from the wicked,
and saveth them,
Because they have taken refuge in him.*

16

Psa. 40.

FEBRUARY, THIRD LORD'S DAY, E.
AUGUST, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, M.

*I waited patiently for Jehovah;
And he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.*

*He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay;
And he set my feet upon a rock,
and established my goings.*

*And he hath put a new song in my mouth,
even praise unto our God:
Many shall see it, and fear,
And shall trust in Jehovah.*

*Blessed is the man that maketh Jehovah his trust,
And respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.*

*Many, O Jehovah my God, are the wonderful works which thou hast done,
And thy thoughts which are to usward:*

*They cannot be set in order unto thee;
If I would declare and speak of
them,
They are more than can be numbered.*

Sacrifice and offering thou hast no delight in:

*Mine ears hast thou opened:
Burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.*

*Then said I, Lo, I am come;
In the roll of the book it is written of me:*

*I delight to do thy will, O my God;
Yea, thy law is within my heart.*

*I have published righteousness in the great congregation;
Lo, I will not refrain my lips,
O Jehovah, thou knowest.*

*I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart;
I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation:*

I have not concealed thy loving-kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Jehovah:

Let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

For innumerable evils have compassed me about,

Mine iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up;

They are more than the hairs of my head, and my heart hath failed me.

*Be pleased, O Jehovah, to deliver me:
Make haste to help me, O Jehovah.*

Let them be put to shame and confounded together

That seek after my soul to destroy it:

Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonour

That delight in my hurt.

Let them be desolate by reason of their shame

That say unto me, Aha, Aha.

Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee :

Let such as love thy salvation say continually,
Jehovah be magnified.

But I am poor and needy ;

Yet the Lord thinketh upon me :

Thou art my help and my deliverer ;

Make no tarrying, O my God.

17 Ps. 42, 43.

FEBRUARY, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, M.

AUGUST, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, E.

*As the hart panteth after the water brooks,
So panteth my soul after thee, O God.*

My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God :

When shall I come and appear before God ?

My tears have been my food day and night,

While they continually say unto me, Where is thy God ?

These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me,

How I went with the throng, and led them to the house of God,

With the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping holyday.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul ?

And why art thou disquieted within me ?

Hope thou in God : for I shall yet praise him

For the help of his countenance.

O my God, my soul is cast down within me :

Therefore do I remember thee from the land of Jordan,
And the Hermons, from the hill Mizar.

Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts :

All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

Yet Jehovah will command his lovingkindness in the day-time.

And in the night his song shall be with me,

Even a prayer unto the God of my life.

I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me ?

Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy ?

As with a sword in my bones, mine adversaries reproach me ;

While they continually say unto me, Where is thy God ?

Why art thou cast down, O my soul ?

And why art thou disquieted within me ?

Hope thou in God : for I shall yet praise him,

Who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation :

O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

For thou art the God of my strength ; why hast thou cast me off ?

Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy ?

O send out thy light and thy truth ; let them lead me :

Let them bring me unto thy holy hill,

And to thy tabernacles.

Then will I go unto the altar of God,

Unto God my exceeding joy :

And upon the harp will I praise thee, O God, my God.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul ?

And why art thou disquieted within me ?

Hope thou in God : for I shall yet praise him,
 Who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

18 Ps. 45.

FEBRUARY, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, E.

AUGUST, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, M.

My heart overfloweth with a goodly matter :

I speak the things which I have made touching the king :

My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

Thou art fairer than the children of men ; Grace is poured into thy lips :

Therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O mighty one,

Thy glory and thy majesty.

And in thy majesty ride on prosperously, Because of truth and meekness and righteousness :

And thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

Thine arrows are sharp ;

The peoples fall under thee ;

They are in the heart of the king's enemies.

Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever :

A sceptre of equity is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated wickedness :

Therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee

With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia ;

Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made thee glad.

Kings' daughters are among thy honourable women :

At thy right hand doth stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear ;

Forget also thine own people, and thy father's house ;

So shall the king desire thy beauty :

For he is thy Lord ; and worship thou him.

And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift ;

Even the rich among the people shall intreat thy favour.

The king's daughter within the palace is all glorious :

Her clothing is inwrought with gold.

She shall be led unto the king in broidered work :

The virgins her companions that follow her

Shall be brought unto thee.

With gladness and rejoicing shall they be led :

They shall enter into the king's palace.

Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children,

Whom thou shalt make princes in all the earth.

I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations :

Therefore shall the peoples give thee thanks for ever and ever.

19 Ps. 46 (part), 47, 48 (part).

MARCH, FIRST LORD'S DAY, M.

AUGUST, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, E.

God is our refuge and strength,

A very present help in trouble.

Therefore will we not fear, though the earth do change,

And though the mountains be moved in the heart of the seas ;

Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,

Though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God,

The holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her ; she shall not be moved :

God shall help her, and that right early.

The nations raged ; the kingdoms were moved :

He uttered his voice, the earth melted.

Jehovah of hosts is with us ;

The God of Jacob is our refuge.

O clap your hands, all ye peoples ;

Shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

For Jehovah Most High is terrible ;

He is a great King over all the earth.

*He shall subdue the peoples under us,
And the nations under our feet.*

*He shall choose our inheritance for us,
The glory of Jacob whom he loved.*

*God is gone up with a shout,
Jehovah with the sound of a trumpet.*

Sing praises to God, sing praises :

Sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

For God is the King of all the earth :

Sing ye praises with understanding.

God reigneth over the nations :

God sitteth upon his holy throne.

The princes of the peoples are gathered together

To be the people of the God of Abraham :

For the shields of the earth belong unto God ;

He is greatly exalted.

Great is Jehovah, and highly to be praised,

In the city of our God, in his holy mountain.

*Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole
earth,*

Is mount Zion, on the sides of the north,

The city of the great King.

*We have thought on thy lovingkindness,
O God,*

In the midst of thy temple.

As is thy name, O God,

*So is thy praise unto the ends of the earth :
Thy right hand is full of righteousness.*

Let mount Zion be glad,

*Let the daughters of Judah rejoice,
Because of thy judgments.*

Walk about Zion, and go round about her :

Number the towers thereof.

Mark ye well her bulwarks,

Consider her palaces ;

That ye may tell it to the generation following.

For this God is our God for ever and ever :

He will be our guide even unto death.

20

Ps. 51.

MARCH, FIRST LORD'S DAY, E.

SEPTEMBER, FIRST LORD'S DAY, M.

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness :

According to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

*Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin.*

For I acknowledge my transgressions :

And my sin is ever before me.

Against thee, thee only, have I sinned,

And done that which is evil in thy sight :

That thou mayest be justified when thou speakest,

And be clear when thou judgest.

*Behold, I was shapen in iniquity ;
And in sin did my mother conceive me.*

Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts :

And in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

*Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean :
Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.*

*Make me to hear joy and gladness ;
That the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.*

*Hide thy face from my sins,
And blot out all mine iniquities.*

*Create in me a clean heart, O God ;
And renew a right spirit within me.*

*Cast me not away from thy presence ;
And take not thy holy Spirit from me.*

*Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation :
And uphold me with a willing spirit.*

*Then will I teach transgressors thy ways ;
And sinners shall be converted unto thee.*

*Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation ;
And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.*

*O Lord, open thou my lips ;
And my mouth shall show forth thy praise.*

*For thou delightest not in sacrifice ; else would I give it :
Thou hast no pleasure in burnt offering.*

*The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit :
A broken and a contrite heart, O
God, thou wilt not despise.*

*Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion :
Build thou the walls of Jerusalem.*

Then shalt thou delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offering and whole burnt offering :

Then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

21 Ps. 53, and 57, 62 (parts).

MARCH, SECOND LORD'S DAY, M.

SEPTEMBER, FIRST LORD'S DAY, E.

The fool hath said in his own heart, There is no God.

*Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity ;
There is none that doeth good.*

*God looked down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there were any that did understand,
That did seek after God.*

*Every one of them is gone back ; they are together become filthy ;
There is none that doeth good, no,
not one.*

*Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge ?
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And call not upon God.*

*There were they in great fear, where no fear was :
For God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee ;*

Thou hast put them to shame, because God hath rejected them.

Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion !

*When God bringeth back the captivity of his people,
Then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.*

*Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens ;
Let thy glory be above all the earth.*

*My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed :
I will sing, yea, I will sing praises.*

Awake up, my glory ; awake, psaltery and harp :

I myself will awake right early.

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the peoples :

I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

For thy lovingkindness is great unto the heavens,

And thy truth unto the skies.

Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens ;

Let thy glory be above all the earth.

My soul waiteth in silence for God only :
From him cometh my salvation.

He only is my rock and my salvation :

He is my high tower ; I shall not be greatly moved.

With God is my salvation and my glory :
The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

Trust in him at all times, ye people ;

Pour out your heart before him :
God is a refuge for us.

Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie :

*In the balances they will go up ;
They are together lighter than vanity.*

Trust not in oppression,

And become not vain in robbery :

If riches increase, set not your heart thereon.

God hath spoken once.

Twice have I heard this ;

That power belongeth unto God :

Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth loving-kindness :

*For thou renderest to every man
according to his work.*

22 Ps. 63 (part), 66.

MARCH, SECOND LORD'S DAY, E.

SEPTEMBER, SECOND LORD'S DAY, M.

O God, thou art my God ; earnestly will I seek thee :

*My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh
longeth for thee,
In a dry and weary land, where no water is.*

*So have I looked upon thee in the sanctuary,
To see thy power and thy glory.*

For thy lovingkindness is better than life :
My lips shall praise thee.

So will I bless thee while I live :

I will lift up my hands in thy name.

My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness ;

And my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips ;

When I remember thee upon my bed,

And meditate on thee in the night watches.

Make a joyful noise unto God, all the earth :
Sing forth the glory of his name :
Make his praise glorious.

Say unto God, How terrible are thy works !
Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

*All the earth shall worship thee,
And shall sing unto thee ;*
They shall sing to thy name.

Come, and see the works of God ;
He is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

He turned the sea into dry land :
They went through the river on foot :
There did we rejoice in him.

He ruleth by his might for ever ;
His eyes observe the nations :
Let not the rebellious exalt themselves.

*O bless our God, ye peoples,
And make the voice of his praise
to be heard :*

*Who holdeth our soul in life,
And suffereth not our feet to be moved.*

For thou, O God, hast proved us :
Thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

Thou broughtest us into the net ;
Thou layedst a sore burden upon our loins.

Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads ;

*We went through fire and through water ;
But thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.*

I will come into thy house with burnt offerings,

*I will pay thee my vows,
Which my lips have uttered,
And my mouth hath spoken, when I was in distress.*

I will offer unto thee burnt offerings of fatlings,

*With the incense of rams ;
I will offer bullocks with goats.*

*Come, and hear, all ye that fear God,
And I will declare what he hath done for my soul.*

*I cried unto him with my mouth,
And he was extolled with my tongue.*

*If I regard iniquity in my heart,
The Lord will not hear :*

*But verily God hath heard ;
He hath attended to the voice of my prayer.*

*Blessed be God,
Who hath not turned away my prayer, nor his lovingkindness
from me.*

23 Ps. 65, 67.

MARCH, THIRD LORD'S DAY, M.
SEPTEMBER, SECOND LORD'S DAY, E.

*Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion :
And unto thee shall the vow be performed.*

*O thou that hearest prayer,
Unto thee shall all flesh come.*

*Iniquities prevail against me :
As for our transgressions, thou shalt forgive them.*

*Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee,
That he may dwell in thy courts :*

*We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house,
Thy holy temple.*

By terrible things thou wilt answer us in righteousness,

O God of our salvation ;

Thou that art the confidence of all the ends of the earth,

And of them that are afar off upon the sea :

Who by his strength setteth fast the mountains :

Being girded about with might :

Who stilleth the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves,

And the tumult of the peoples.

They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens :

Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

*Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it,
Thou greatly enrichest it ;*

*The river of God is full of water :
Thou providest them grain, when thou hast so prepared the earth.*

*Thou waterest her furrows abundantly ;
Thou settlest the ridges thereof :*

*Thou makest it soft with showers ;
Thou blessest the springing thereof.*

*Thou crownest the year with thy goodness ;
And thy paths drop fatness.*

They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness :

And the hills are girded with joy.

*The pastures are clothed with flocks ;
The valleys also are covered over with grain ;*

They shout for joy, they also sing.

*God be merciful unto us, and bless us,
And cause his face to shine upon us ;*

*That thy way may be known upon earth,
Thy salvation among all nations.*

*Let the peoples praise thee, O God ;
Let all the peoples praise thee.*

*O let the nations be glad and sing for joy :
For thou shalt judge the peoples with equity,*

And govern the nations upon earth.

*Let the peoples praise thee, O God ;
 Let all the peoples praise thee.
 The earth hath yielded her increase :
 God, even our own God, shall bless
 us.
 God shall bless us ;
 And all the ends of the earth shall fear him.*

24 Ps. 68 (part).

MARCH, THIRD LORD'S DAY, E.
 SEPTEMBER, THIRD LORD'S DAY, M.

*Sing unto God, sing praises to his name :
 Cast up a high way for him that rideth
 through the deserts ;
 His name is Jehovah ; and exult ye before him.*

*A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows,
 Is God in his holy habitation.*

*God setteth the solitary in families :
 He bringeth out the prisoners into prosperity :*

But the rebellious dwell in a parched land.

*O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people,
 When thou didst march through the wilderness ;*

*The earth trembled,
 The heavens also dropped at the presence of God :*

That Sinai trembled at the presence of God ; the God of Israel.

Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain, Thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.

*Thy congregation dwelt therein :
 Thou, O God, didst prepare of thy goodness for the poor.*

*The Lord giveth the word :
 The women that publish the tidings are a great host.*

*The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands upon thousands :
 The Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the sanctuary.*

Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led away captives ;

*Thou hast received gifts among men,
 Yea, among the rebellious also,
 that Jehovah God might dwell with them.*

Blessed be the Lord, who daily beareth our burden,

Even the God who is our salvation.

*God is unto us a God of deliverances ;
 And unto Jehovah the Lord belongeth escape from death.*

Because of thy temple at Jerusalem Kings shall bring presents unto thee.

*Princes shall come out of Egypt ;
 Ethiopia shall haste to stretch out her hands unto God.*

*Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth ;
 O sing praises unto the Lord ;*

*To him that rideth upon the heaven of heavens, which are of old ;
 Lo, he uttereth his voice, and that a mighty voice.*

*Ascribe ye strength unto God :
 His excellency is over Israel,
 And his strength is in the skies.*

O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places :

The God of Israel, he giveth strength and power unto his people.

BLESSED BE GOD.

25 Ps. 69 and 71 (parts).

MARCH, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, M.
 SEPTEMBER, THIRD LORD'S DAY, E.

*I will praise the name of God with a song,
 And will magnify him with thanksgiving.*

And it shall please Jehovah better than an ox,

Or a bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

*The meek have seen it, and are glad :
 Ye that seek after God, let your heart live.*

*For Jehovah heareth the needy,
And despiseth not his prisoners.*

*Let heaven and earth praise him,
The seas, and every thing that moveth therein.*

*For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah ;
And they shall abide there, and have it in possession.*

*The seed also of his servants shall inherit it ;
And they that love his name shall dwell therein.*

*In thee, O Jehovah, do I take refuge :
Let me never be put to shame.*

*Deliver me in thy righteousness, and rescue me :
Bow down thine ear unto me, and save me.*

*Be thou to me a rock of habitation,
Whereunto I may continually resort :*

*Thou hast given commandment to save
me ;
For thou art my rock and my fortress.*

*Rescue me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,
Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.*

*For thou art my hope, O Lord Jehovah :
Thou art my trust from my youth.*

*My mouth shall tell of thy righteousness,
And of thy salvation all the day ;
For I know not the numbers
thereof.*

*I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord Jehovah :
I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.*

*O God, thou hast taught me from my youth ;
And hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.*

*Yea, even when I am old and grayheaded,
O God, forsake me not ;
Until I have declared thy strength unto the next generation,
Thy might to every one that is to come.*

*Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high ;
Thou, who hast done great things,
O God, who is like unto thee ?*

*Thou who hast showed us many and sore
troubles,
Shalt quicken us again,
And shalt bring us up again from the depths of the earth.*

*Increase thou my greatness,
And turn again and comfort me.*

*I will also praise thee with the psaltery,
Even thy truth, O my God :*

*Unto thee will I sing praises with the harp,
O thou Holy One of Israel.*

*My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing praises unto thee ;
And my soul, which thou hast redeemed.*

*My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long :
For they are put to shame, for they are confounded, that seek my hurt.*

26

Ps. 72.

MARCH, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, E.

SEPTEMBER, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, M.

*Give the king thy judgments, O God,
And thy righteousness unto the king's son.*

*He shall judge thy people with righteousness,
And thy poor with judgment.*

*The mountains shall bring peace to the people,
And the hills, in righteousness.*

*He shall judge the poor of the people,
He shall save the children of the needy,
And shall break in pieces the oppressor.*

They shall fear thee while the sun endureth,

And so long as the moon, throughout all generations.

He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass :

As showers that water the earth.

In his days shall the righteous flourish ;

And abundance of peace, till the moon be no more.

He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,

And from the River unto the ends of the earth.

They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him ;

And his enemies shall lick the dust.

The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents :

The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

Yea, all kings shall fall down before him :

All nations shall serve him.

For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth ;

And the poor, that hath no helper.

He shall have pity on the poor and needy,

And the souls of the needy he shall save.

He shall redeem their soul from oppression and violence ;

And precious shall their blood be in his sight :

And they shall live ; and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba :

And men shall pray for him continually ;

They shall bless him all the day long.

There shall be abundance of grain in the earth upon the top of the mountains ;

The fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon :

And they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

His name shall endure for ever ;

His name shall be continued as long as the sun :

And men shall be blessed in him ;

All nations shall call him happy.

Blessed be Jehovah God, the God of Israel,
Who only doeth wondrous things :

And blessed be his glorious name for ever ;

And let the whole earth be filled with his glory.

AMEN, AND AMEN.

27 Ps. 77, 78, 79 (parts).

MARCH, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, M.

SEPTEMBER, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, E.

Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary :

Who is a great god like unto God ?

Thou art the God that doest wonders :

Thou hast made known thy strength among the peoples.

Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people,

The sons of Jacob and Joseph.

The waters saw thee, O God ;

The waters saw thee, they were afraid :

The depths also trembled.

The clouds poured out water ;

The skies sent out a sound :

Thine arrows also went abroad.

The voice of thy thunder was in the whirlwind ;

The lightnings lightened the world :

The earth trembled and shook.

Thy way was in the sea,

And thy paths in the great waters,

And thy footsteps were not known.

Thou leddest thy people like a flock,

By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Give ear, O my people, to my law :

Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

I will open my mouth in a parable ;

I will utter dark sayings of old :

Which we have heard and known,

And our fathers have told us.

*We will not hide them from their children,
Telling to the generation to come the praises of Jehovah,*

And his strength, and his wondrous works that he hath done.

*For he established a testimony in Jacob,
And appointed a law in Israel,*

*Which he commanded our fathers,
That they should make them
known to their children :*

That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born ;

Who should arise and tell them to their children :

*That they might set their hope in God,
And not forget the works of God,
But keep his commandments :*

*And might not be as their fathers,
A stubborn and rebellious generation ;*

*A generation that set not their heart aright,
And whose spirit was not stedfast with God.*

Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name :

And deliver us, and forgive our sins, for thy name's sake.

Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God ?

Let the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed
Be known among the heathen in our sight.

*Let the sighing of the prisoner come before
thee ;*

According to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to death ;

And render unto our neighbours sevenfold into their bosom

Their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.

*So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture
Will give thee thanks for ever :*

We will show forth thy praise to all generations.

28 Ps. 80, 61 (part).

MARCH, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, E.

SEPTEMBER, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, M.

*Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
Thou that ledest Joseph like a flock ;*

Thou that sittest above the cheru-bim, shine forth.

*Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up thy might,
And come to save us.*

Turn us again, O God ;

And cause thy face to shine, and
we shall be saved.

O Jehovah God of hosts,

How long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people ?

*Thou hast fed them with the bread of tears,
And given them tears to drink in large measure.*

Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours :

And our enemies laugh among themselves.

Turn us again, O God of hosts ;

And cause thy face to shine, and
we shall be saved.

Thou broughtest a vine out of Egypt :

Thou didst drive out the nations,
and plantedst it.

Thou preparedst room before it,

And it took deep root, and filled
the land.

The mountains were covered with the shadow of it,

And the boughs thereof were like cedars of God.

She sent out her branches unto the sea,

And her shoots unto the River.

Why hast thou broken down her fences,

So that all they that pass by the way do pluck her ?

The boar out of the wood doth ravage it,

And the wild beasts of the field feed on it.

Turn again, we beseech thee, O God of hosts :

Look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine,

And the stock which thy right hand hath planted,

And the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.

It is burned with fire, it is cut down :

They perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand,

Upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.

So shall we not go back from thee :

Quicken thou us, and we will call upon thy name.

Turn us again, O Jehovah God of hosts ;

Cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.

Hear my cry, O God ;

Attend unto my prayer.

From the end of the earth will I call unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed :

Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

For thou hast been a refuge for me,

A strong tower from the enemy.

I will dwell in thy tabernacle for ever :

I will take refuge in the covert of thy wings.

For thou, O God, hast heard my vows :

Thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

29 Ps. 81, 113 (part).

APRIL, FIRST LORD'S DAY, M.

SEPTEMBER, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, E.

Sing aloud unto God our strength :

Make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.

Take up the psalm, and bring hither the timbrel,

The pleasant harp with the psaltery.

Blow the trumpet in the new moon,

At the full moon. on our solemn feast day.

For it is a statute for Israel,

An ordinance of the God of Jacob.

He appointed it in Joseph for a testimony, When he went out over the land of Egypt :

Where I heard a language that I knew not.

I removed his shoulder from the burden :

His hands were freed from the basket.

Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee ;

I answered thee in the secret place of thunder ;

I proved thee at the waters of Meribah.

Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee :

O Israel, if thou wouldst hearken unto me !

There shall no strange god be in thee ;

Neither shalt thou worship any strange god.

I am Jehovah thy God,

Who brought thee up out of the land of Egypt :

Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

But my people hearkened not to my voice ; And Israel would none of me.

So I let them go after the stubbornness of their heart.

That they might walk in their own counsels.

Oh that my people would hearken unto me, That Israel would walk in my ways !

I should soon subdue their enemies,

And turn my hand against their adversaries.

The haters of Jehovah should submit themselves unto him :

But their time should endure for ever.

He should feed them also with the finest of the wheat :

And with honey out of the rock should I satisfy thee.

Praise ye Jehovah.

Praise, O ye servants of Jehovah,
Praise the name of Jehovah.

Blessed be the name of Jehovah

From this time forth and for evermore.

From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same

Jehovah's name is to be praised.

Jehovah is high above all nations,

And his glory above the heavens.

Who is like unto Jehovah our God,

That hath his seat on high,

That humbleth himself to behold

The things that are in heaven and in the earth ?

He raiseth up the poor out of the dust,

And lifteth up the needy from the dunghill ;

That he may set him with princes,

Even with the princes of his people.

PRaise YE JEHOVAH.

30

Ps. 84, 85.

APRIL, FIRST LORD'S DAY, E.

OCTOBER, FIRST LORD'S DAY, M.

How amiable are thy tabernacles,

O Jehovah of hosts !

My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of Jehovah ;

My heart and my flesh cry out unto the living God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house,

And the swallow a nest for herself,
where she may lay her young,

Even thine altars, O Jehovah of hosts,

My King, and my God.

*Blessed are they that dwell in thy house :
They will be still praising thee.*

Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee ;

In whose heart are the highways to Zion.

Passing through the valley of Weeping they make it a place of springs ;

Yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.

They go from strength to strength,

Every one of them appeareth before God in Zion.

O Jehovah God of hosts, hear my prayer :

Give ear, O God of Jacob.

Behold, O God our shield,

And look upon the face of thine anointed.

For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,

Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For Jehovah God is a sun and a shield :

Jehovah will give grace and glory :

No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

O Jehovah of hosts,

Blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

Jehovah, thou hast been favourable unto thy land :

Thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.

Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people,

Thou hast covered all their sin

Thou hast taken away all thy wrath :

Thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

Turn us, O God of our salvation,

And cause thine indignation toward us to cease.

Wilt thou be angry with us for ever ?

Wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations ?

Will thou not quicken us again :

That thy people may rejoice in thee?

*Show us thy lovingkindness, O Jehovah,
And grant us thy salvation.*

*I will hear what God Jehovah will speak :
For he will speak peace unto his people,
and to his saints :*

But let them not turn again to folly.

Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him :

That glory may dwell in our land.

Lovingkindness and truth are met together ;

Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

*Truth springeth out of the earth ;
And righteousness hath looked down from heaven.*

*Yea, Jehovah shall give that which is good ;
And our land shall yield her increase.*

*Righteousness shall go before him ;
And shall make his footsteps a way to walk in.*

31 Ps. 86, 87.

APRIL, SECOND LORD'S DAY, M.

OCTOBER, FIRST LORD'S DAY, E.

Bow down thine ear, O Jehovah, and answer me ;

For I am poor and needy.

*Preserve my soul ; for I am godly :
O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.*

*Be merciful unto me, O Lord ;
For unto thee do I cry all the day long.*

*Rejoice the soul of thy servant ;
For unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.*

*For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive,
And abundant in lovingkindness unto all them that call upon thee.*

*Give ear, O Jehovah, unto my prayer ;
And hearken unto the voice of my supplications.*

In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee ;

For thou wilt answer me.

There is none like unto thee among the gods, O Lord ;

Neither are there any works like unto thy works.

*All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord ;
And they shall glorify thy name.*

For thou art great, and doest wondrous things :

Thou art God alone.

Teach me thy way, O Jehovah ; I will walk in thy truth :

Unite my heart to fear thy name.

I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart ;

And I will glorify thy name for evermore.

For great is thy lovingkindness toward me ;

And thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol.

*O God, the proud are risen up against me,
And the congregation of violent men have sought after my soul,*

And have not set thee before them.

But thou, O Lord, art a God merciful and gracious,

Slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness and truth.

*O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me ;
Give thy strength unto thy servant,
And save the son of thy handmaid.*

*Show me a token for good ;
That they who hate me may see it, and be put to shame,*

Because thou, Jehovah, hast helped me, and comforted me.

*His foundation is in the holy mountains.
Jehovah loveth the gates of Zion
More than all the dwellings of Jacob.*

*Glorious things are spoken of thee.
O city of God.*

I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon as among them that know me :

Behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia;

This one was born there.

Yea, of Zion it shall be said, This one and that one was born in her ;

And the Most High himself shall establish her.

Jehovah shall count, when he writeth up the peoples,

This one was born there.

They that sing as well as they that dance shall say,

All my fountains are in thee.

32 Ps. 89 (part).

APRIL, SECOND LORD'S DAY, E.

OCTOBER, SECOND LORD'S DAY, M.

I will sing of the lovingkindnesses of Jehovah for ever :

With my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.

For I have said, Lovingkindness shall be built up for ever ;

Thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant ;

Thy seed will I establish for ever, And build up thy throne to all generations.

And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Jehovah ;

Thy faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

For who in the skies can be compared unto Jehovah ?

Who among the sons of the mighty is like unto Jehovah,

A God very terrible in the council of the holy ones,

And to be feared above all them that are round about him ?

O Jehovah God of hosts, Who is a mighty one, like unto thee, O Jehovah ?

And thy faithfulness is round about thee.

Thou rulest the pride of the sea :

When the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain ;

Thou hast scattered thine enemies with the arm of thy strength.

The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine :

The world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.

The north and the south, thou hast created them :

Tabor and Hermon rejoice in thy name.

Thou hast a mighty arm :

Strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

Righteousness and judgment are the foundation of thy throne :

Lovingkindness and truth go before thy face.

Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound :

They walk, O Jehovah, in the light of thy countenance.

In thy name do they rejoice all the day :

And in thy righteousness are they exalted.

For thou art the glory of their strength : And in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.

For our shield belongeth unto Jehovah ;

And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

Then thou spakest in vision to thy saints, And saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty ;

I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

I have found David my servant ;

With my holy oil have I anointed him :

*With whom my hand shall be established ;
Mine arm also shall strengthen
him.*

*He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father,
My God, and the rock of my salvation.*

*I also will make him my firstborn,
The highest of the kings of the earth.*

*My lovingkindness will I keep for him for evermore,
And my covenant shall stand fast with him.*

*His seed also will I make to endure for ever,
And his throne as the days of heaven.*

*Blessed be Jehovah for evermore.
AMEN, AND AMEN.*

33 Ps. 91, 30 (part).

APRIL, THIRD LORD'S DAY, M.
OCTOBER, SECOND LORD'S DAY, E.

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High

Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

*I will say of Jehovah, He is my refuge and my fortress ;
My God, in whom I trust.*

*For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,
And from the noisome pestilence.*

*He shall cover thee with his pinions,
And under his wings shalt thou take refuge :
His truth is a shield and a buckler.*

*Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night,
Nor for the arrow that flieth by day ;*

*For the pestilence that walketh in darkness,
Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.*

*A thousand shall fall at thy side,
And ten thousand at thy right hand ;
But it shall not come nigh thee.*

*Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold,
And see the reward of the wicked.*

*For thou, O Jehovah, art my refuge !
Thou hast made the Most High thy habitation ;*

*There shall no evil befall thee,
Neither shall any plague come nigh thy tent.*

*For he shall give his angels charge over thee,
To keep thee in all thy ways.*

*They shall bear thee up in their hands,
Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.*

*Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder :
The young lion and the serpent shalt thou trample under feet.*

*Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him :
I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.*

*He shall call upon me, and I will answer
him ;
I will be with him in trouble :
I will deliver him, and honour him.*

*With long life will I satisfy him,
And show him my salvation.*

*I will extol thee, O Jehovah ; for thou hast raised me up,
And hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.*

*Sing praise unto Jehovah, O ye saints of his,
And give thanks to his holy memorial name.*

*For his anger is but for a moment ;
His favour is for a lifetime :*

*Weeping may tarry for the night,
But joy cometh in the morning.*

*Hear, O Jehovah, and have mercy upon
me :
Jehovah, be thou my helper.*

*O Jehovah my God,
I will give thanks unto thee for ever.*

34

P̄s. 92, 93.

APRIL, THIRD LORD'S DAY, E.

OCTOBER, THIRD LORD'S DAY, M.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto Jehovah,

And to sing praises unto thy name,
O Most High :

To show forth thy lovingkindness in the morning,

And thy faithfulness every night.

With an instrument of ten strings, and with the psaltery ;

With a solemn sound upon the harp.

For thou, Jehovah, hast made me glad through thy work ;

I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

How great are thy works, O Jehovah !

Thy thoughts are very deep.

A brutish man knoweth not ;

Neither doth a fool understand this :

When the wicked spring as the grass, And when all the workers of iniquity do flourish ;

It is that they shall be destroyed for ever :

But thou, O Jehovah, art on high for evermore.

For, lo, thine enemies, O Jehovah, For, lo, thine enemies shall perish ; All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

But my horn hast thou exalted like the horn of the wild-ox :

I am anointed with fresh oil.

Mine eye also hath seen my desire on mine enemies,

Mine ears have heard my desire of the evil-doers that rise up against me.

The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree :

He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

They are planted in the house of Jehovah ; They shall flourish in the courts of our God.

They shall still bring forth fruit in old age ; They shall be full of sap and green :

To show that Jehovah is upright ; He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Jehovah reigneth : he is clothed with majesty ;

Jehovah is clothed with strength ;
he hath girded himself therewith :

The world also is established, that it cannot be moved.

Thy throne is established of old :
Thou art from everlasting.

The floods have lifted up, O Jehovah, The floods have lifted up their voice ; The floods lift up their waves.

Above the voices of many waters, The mighty breakers of the sea, Jehovah on high is mighty.

Thy testimonies are very sure : Holiness becometh thy house, O Jehovah, for evermore.

35 P̄s. 95 (part), 96.

APRIL, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, M.

OCTOBER, THIRD LORD'S DAY, E.

O come, let us sing unto Jehovah :

Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving,

Let us make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

For Jehovah is a great God,

And a great King above all gods.

In his hand are the deep places of the earth ; The heights of the mountains are his also.

The sea is his, and he made it ; And his hands formed the dry land.

*O come, let us worship and bow down ;
Let us kneel before Jehovah our Maker :*

*For he is our God,
And we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.*

To-day, O that ye would hear his voice !

*O sing unto Jehovah a new song :
Sing unto Jehovah, all the earth.*

*Sing unto Jehovah, bless his name ;
Show forth his salvation from day to day.*

*Declare his glory among the nations,
His marvellous works among all the peoples.*

For great is Jehovah, and highly to be praised :

He is to be feared above all gods.

*For all the gods of the peoples are idols :
But Jehovah made the heavens.*

*Honour and majesty are before him :
Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.*

Give unto Jehovah, ye kindreds of the peoples,

Give unto Jehovah glory and strength.

Give unto Jehovah the glory due unto his name :

Bring an offering, and come into his courts.

O worship Jehovah in the beauty of holiness :

Tremble before him, all the earth.

*Say among the nations, Jehovah reigneth :
The world also is established, that it cannot be moved :*

He shall judge the peoples with equity.

*Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth
rejoice ;*

*Let the sea roar, and the fulness
thereof ;*

*Let the field exult, and all that is therein ;
Then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy ;*

Before Jehovah, for he cometh ;

For he cometh to judge the earth :

He shall judge the world with righteousness,

And the peoples with his truth.

36

Ps. 97, 98.

APRIL, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, E.

OCTOBER, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, M.

*Jehovah reigneth ; let the earth rejoice ;
Let the multitude of isles be glad.*

*Clouds and darkness are round about
him :*

Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

A fire goeth before him,

And burneth up his adversaries round about.

His lightnings lightened the world :

The earth saw, and trembled.

The mountains melted like wax at the presence of Jehovah,

At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

*The heavens declare his righteousness,
And all the peoples have seen his glory.*

Put to shame be all they that serve graven images,

That boast themselves of idols :

Worship him, all ye gods.

Zion heard and was glad,

And the daughters of Judah rejoiced ;

Because of thy judgments, O Jehovah.

*For thou, Jehovah, art most high above all
the earth :*

Thou art exalted far above all gods.

O ye that love Jehovah, hate evil :

He preserveth the souls of his saints ;

He delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

Light is sown for the righteous,

And gladness for the upright in heart.

*Be glad in Jehovah, ye righteous ;
And give thanks to his holy memorial name.*

*O sing unto Jehovah a new song ;
For he hath done marvellous things :*

His right hand, and his holy arm,
hath wrought salvation for him.

*Jehovah hath made known his salvation :
His righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the nations.*

He hath remembered his lovingkindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel :

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

*Make a joyful noise unto Jehovah. all the
earth :*

Break forth and sing for joy, yea,
sing praises.

*Sing praises unto Jehovah with the harp ;
With the harp and the voice of melody.*

*With trumpets and sound of cornet
Make a joyful noise before the King, Jehovah.*

*Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof ;
The world, and they that dwell
therein ;*

*Let the floods clap their hands ;
Let the hills sing for joy together ;*

*Before Jehovah, for he cometh to judge the
earth :*

He shall judge the world with
righteousness,
And the peoples with equity.

37 Ps. 99, 100, 101.

APRIL, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, M.

OCTOBER, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, E.

*Jehovah reigneth ; let the peoples tremble :
He sitteth above the cherubim ;
let the earth be moved.*

*Jehovah is great in Zion ;
And he is high above all the peoples.*

Let them praise thy great and terrible name :

Holy is he.

*The king's strength also loveth justice ;
Thou dost establish equity,
Thou executest justice and righteousness in Jacob.*

*Exalt ye Jehovah our God,
And worship at his footstool :
Holy is he.*

*Moses and Aaron among his priests,
And Samuel among them that call upon
his name :*

They called upon Jehovah, and he answered them.

*He spake unto them in the pillar of cloud :
They kept his testimonies, and the statute that he gave them.*

Thou answeredst them, O Jehovah our God ;

Thou wast a God that forgavest
them,

Though thou tookest vengeance of their doings.

*Exalt ye Jehovah our God,
And worship at his holy hill ;
For Jehovah our God is holy.*

Make a joyful noise unto Jehovah, all ye lands.

Serve Jehovah with gladness :
Come before his presence with singing.

*Know ye that Jehovah is God :
It is he that hath made us, and we are his :
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.*

*Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
And into his courts with praise :
Give thanks unto him, and bless
his name.*

*For Jehovah is good ; his lovingkindness endureth for ever ;
And his faithfulness unto all generations.*

*I will sing of lovingkindness and judgment :
Unto thee, O Jehovah, will I sing
praises.*

I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way:

O when wilt thou come unto me?

I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

I will set no base thing before mine eyes:

I hate the work of them that turn aside;

It shall not cleave unto me.

A perverse heart shall depart from me:

I will know no evil thing.

*Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour,
him will I destroy:*

Him that hath a high look and a proud heart will I not suffer.

Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me:

He that walketh in a perfect way,
he shall minister unto me.

He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house:

He that speaketh falsehood shall not be established before mine eyes.

Morning by morning will I destroy all the wicked of the land;

To cut off all the workers of iniquity from the city of Jehovah.

38 Ps. 102 (part).

APRIL, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, E.
OCTOBER, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, M.

*Hear my prayer, O Jehovah,
And let my cry come unto thee.*

Hide not thy face from me in the day of my distress:

Incline thine ear unto me;

In the day when I call answer me speedily.

*For my days consume away like smoke,
And my bones are burned as a firebrand.*

My heart is smitten like grass, and withered;

For I forget to eat my bread.

*My days are like a shadow that declineth;
And I am withered like grass.*

*But thou, O Jehovah, shalt abide for ever:
And thy memorial name unto all generations.*

Thou shalt arise and have mercy upon Zion:

For it is time to have pity upon her, yea, the set time is come.

For thy servants take pleasure in her stones,

And have pity upon her dust.

So the nations shall fear the name of Jehovah,

And all the kings of the earth thy glory.

For Jehorah hath built up Zion,

He hath appeared in his glory;

He hath regarded the prayer of the destitute,

And hath not despised their prayer.

This shall be written for the generation to come:

And a people which shall be created shall praise Jehovah.

For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary;

From heaven did Jehovah behold
the earth;

To hear the sighing of the prisoner;

To loose those that are appointed to death;

That men may declare the name of Jehovah in Zion,

And his praise in Jerusalem;

*When the peoples are gathered together,
And the kingdoms, to serve Jehovah.*

*He weakened my strength in the way;
He shortened my days.*

I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days:

Thy years are throughout all generations.

*Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the
earth:*

And the heavens are the work of thy hands.

*They shall perish, but thou shalt endure :
Yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment ;*

As a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed :

But thou art the same,

And thy years shall have no end.

The children of thy servants shall continue,

And their seed shall be established before thee.

39

Ps. 103.

MAY, FIRST LORD'S DAY, M.

OCTOBER, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, E.

Bless Jehovah, O my soul ;

And all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless Jehovah, O my soul,

And forget not all his benefits :

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities ;

Who healeth all thy diseases ;

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction ;

Who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies :

Who satisfieth thy desire with good things ;

So that thy youth is renewed like the eagle.

Jehovah executeth righteous acts,

And judgments for all that are oppressed.

He made known his ways unto Moses,

His doings unto the children of Israel.

Jehovah is merciful and gracious,

Slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness.

He will not always chide ;

Neither will he keep his anger for ever.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins,

Nor rewarded us after our iniquities.

For as the heaven is high above the earth,

*So great is his mercy toward them
that fear him.*

As far as the east is from the west,

So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

Like as a father pitieth his children,

*So Jehovah pitieth them that fear
him.*

For he knoweth our frame ;

He remembereth that we are dust.

As for man, his days are as grass ;

As a flower of the field, so he flour-isheth.

For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone ;

And the place thereof shall know it no more.

*But the lovingkindness of Jehovah is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that
fear him,*

And his righteousness unto children's children ;

To such as keep his covenant,

And to those that remember his precepts to do them.

Jehovah hath established his throne in the heavens ;

And his kingdom ruleth over all.

Bless Jehovah, ye angels of his :

Ye mighty in strength, that fulfil his word,

Hearkening unto the voice of his word.

Bless Jehovah, all ye his hosts ;

Ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

Bless Jehovah, all ye his works,

In all places of his dominion :

Bless Jehovah, O my soul.

40

Ps. 104 (part).

MAY, FIRST LORD'S DAY, E.

NOVEMBER, FIRST LORD'S DAY, M.

Bless Jehovah, O my soul,

O Jehovah my God, thou art very great ;

Thou art clothed with honour and majesty.

Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment ;

*Who stretchest out the heavens
like a curtain :*

Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters ;

Who maketh the clouds his chariot ;
Who walketh upon the wings of the wind :

Who maketh winds his messengers ;
Flames of fire his ministers.

Who laid the foundations of the earth,
That it should not be moved for ever.

Thou coverdest it with the deep as with a vesture ;

The waters stood above the mountains.

At thy rebuke they fled ;
At the voice of thy thunder they hasted away ;

(The mountains rose, the valleys sank ;)
Unto the place which thou hadst founded for them.

Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over ;

That they turn not again to cover the earth.

He sendeth forth springs into the valleys ;
They run among the mountains :

They give drink to every beast of the field ;
The wild asses quench their thirst.

By them the fowl of the heaven have their habitation,

They sing among the branches.

He watereth the mountains from his chambers :

The earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle,
And herb for the service of man ;

That he may bring forth food out of the earth :

And wine that maketh glad the heart of man,

And oil to make his face to shine,
And bread that strengtheneth man's heart.

The trees of Jehovah are filled with moisture ;

The cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted ;

Where the birds make their nests :

As for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

The high mountains are for the wild goats ;
The rocks are a refuge for the conies.

He appointed the moon for seasons :
The sun knoweth his going down.

Thou makest darkness, and it is night ;
Wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their food from God.

The sun ariseth, they get them away,
And lay them down in their dens.

Man goeth forth unto his work
And to his labour until the evening.

O Jehovah, how manifold are thy works !
In wisdom hast thou made them all :

The earth is full of thy riches.

I will sing unto Jehovah as long as I live :
I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.

Bless Jehovah, O my soul.

PRaise YE JEHOVAH.

41 Ps. 107 (part).

MAY, SECOND LORD'S DAY, M.

NOVEMBER, FIRST LORD'S DAY, E.

O give thanks unto Jehovah ; for he is good :
For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.

Let the redeemed of Jehovah say so,
Whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the adversary ;

And gathered them out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the south.

They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way ;
They found no city of habitation.

Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.

Then they cried unto Jehovah in their trouble,

And he delivered them out of their distresses.

He led them also by a straight way,

That they might go to a city of habitation.

O that men would praise Jehovah for his lovingkindness,

And for his wonderful works to the children of men !

For he satisfieth the longing soul,

And the hungry soul he filleth with good.

Such as sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,

Being bound in affliction and iron ;

Because they rebelled against the words of God,

And contemned the counsel of the Most High :

Therefore he brought down their heart with labour ;

They fell down, and there was none to help.

Then they cried unto Jehovah in their trouble,

And he saved them out of their distresses.

He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,

And brake their bonds in sunder.

O that men would praise Jehovah for his lovingkindness,

And for his wonderful works to the children of men !

For he hath broken the gates of brass,

And cut the bars of iron in sunder.

Fools because of their transgression,

And because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

Their soul abhorreth all manner of food ;

And they draw near unto the gates of death.

Then they cry unto Jehovah in their trouble,

And he saveth them out of their distresses.

He sendeth his word, and healeth them,

And delivereth them from their destructions.

Oh that men would praise Jehovah for his lovingkindness,

And for his wonderful works to the children of men !

And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving,

And declare his works with singing.

42 Ps. 107 (part), 110.

MAY, SECOND LORD'S DAY, E.

NOVEMBER, SECOND LORD'S DAY, M.

Oh that men would praise Jehovah for his lovingkindness,

And for his wonderful works to the children of men !

Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the people,

And praise him in the seat of the elders.

He turneth rivers into a wilderness,

And watersprings into a thirsty ground ;

A fruitful land into a salt desert,

For the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

He turneth a wilderness into a pool of water,

And a dry land into watersprings.

And there he maketh the hungry to dwell,

That they may prepare a city of habitation ;

And sow fields, and plant vineyards,

And get them fruits of increase.

He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly ;

And he suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

Again, they are diminished and bowed down

Through oppression, trouble, and sorrow.

He poureth contempt upon princes,

And causeth them to wander in the waste, where there is no way.

Yet setteth he the needy on high from affliction,

And maketh him families like a flock.

*The upright shall see it, and be glad ;
And all iniquity shall stop her mouth.*

Whoso is wise shall give heed to these things,

And they shall consider the lovingkindness of Jehovah.

Jehovah saith unto my lord, Sit thou at my right hand,

Until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

Jehovah shall send forth the rod of thy strength out of Zion :

Rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

Thy people offer themselves willingly in the day of thy power, in holy attire ;

Out of the womb of the morning,
Thou hast the dew of thy youth.

*Jehovah hath sworn, and will not repent,
Thou art a priest for ever
After the order of Melchizedek.*

*Jehovah at thy right hand
Shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.*

He shall judge among the nations,

*He shall fill the places with dead bodies ;
He shall strike through the head
in many countries.*

*He shall drink of the brook in the way :
Therefore shall he lift up the head.*

Ps. 111. 112.

MAY, THIRD LORD'S DAY, M.

NOVEMBER, SECOND LORD'S DAY, E.

Praise ye Jehovah.

I will give thanks unto Jehovah with my whole heart,

In the council of the upright, and in the congregation.

The works of Jehovah are great,

Sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

His work is honour and majesty :

And his righteousness endureth
for ever.

He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered :

Jehovah is gracious and merciful.

He hath given food unto them that fear him :

He will ever be mindful of his covenant.

He hath showed his people the power of his works,

In giving them the heritage of the nations.

The works of his hands are truth and judgment ;

All his precepts are sure.

They are established for ever and ever,

They are done in truth and uprightness.

He hath sent redemption unto his people ;

*He hath commanded his covenant for ever :
Holy and reverend is his name.*

The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of wisdom ;

A good understanding have all they that do his commandments :

HIS PRAISE ENDURETH FOR EVER.

Praise ye Jehovah.

*Blessed is the man that feareth Jehovah,
That delighteth greatly in his commandments.*

His seed shall be mighty upon earth :

The generation of the upright shall be blessed.

Wealth and riches are in his house :

And his righteousness endureth for ever.

Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness :

He is gracious, and merciful, and righteous.

Well is it with the man that dealeth graciously and lendeth ;

He shall maintain his cause in judgment.

For he shall never be moved ;

The righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.

He shall not be afraid of evil tidings :

His heart is fixed, trusting in Jehovah.

His heart is established, he shall not be afraid,

Until he see his desire upon his adversaries.

He hath dispersed, he hath given to the needy ;

His righteousness endureth for ever :

His horn shall be exalted with honour.

The wicked shall see it, and be grieved ;

He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away :

The desire of the wicked shall perish.

44 Ps. 115, 116 (part), 117.

MAY, THIRD LORD'S DAY, E.

NOVEMBER, THIRD LORD'S DAY, M.

Not unto us, O Jehovah, not unto us,

But unto thy name give glory,

For thy lovingkindness, and for thy truth's sake.

Wherefore should the nations say,

Where is now their God ?

But our God is in the heavens :

He hath done whatsoever he pleased.

Their idols are silver and gold,

The work of men's hands.

They have mouths, but they speak not ;

Eyes have they, but they see not ;

They have ears, but they hear not ;

Noses have they, but they smell not ;

*They have hands, but they handle not,
Feet have they, but they walk not ;*

Neither speak they through their throat.

They that make them shall be like unto them ;

Yea, every one that trusteth in them.

O Israel, trust thou in Jehovah :

He is their help and their shield.

O house of Aaron, trust ye in Jehovah :

He is their help and their shield.

Ye that fear Jehovah, trust in Jehovah :

He is their help and their shield.

Jehovah hath been mindful of us ; he will bless us :

He will bless the house of Israel ;

He will bless the house of Aaron.

He will bless them that fear Jehovah,

Both small and great.

Jehovah increase you more and more,

You and your children.

Blessed are ye of Jehovah,

Who made heaven and earth.

The heavens are the heavens of Jehovah ;

But the earth hath he given to the children of men.

The dead praise not Jehovah,

Neither any that go down into silence ;

But we will bless Jehovah

From this time forth and for evermore.

PRAISE YE JEHOVAH.

I love Jehovah, because he heareth

My voice and my supplications.

Because he hath inclined his ear unto me,

Therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving,

And will call upon the name of Jehovah.

I will pay my vows unto Jehovah,

Yea, in the presence of all his people ;

*In the courts of Jehovah's house,
In the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.
PRAISE YE JEHOVAH.*

*O praise Jehovah, all ye nations;
Laud him, all ye peoples.
For his lovingkindness is great toward us;
And the truth of Jehovah endureth
for ever.
PRAISE YE JEHOVAH.*

45 Ps. 118 (part).

MAY, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, M.
NOVEMBER, THIRD LORD'S DAY, E.

*O give thanks unto Jehovah; for he is good:
For his lovingkindness endureth
for ever.*

*Let Israel now say,
That his lovingkindness endureth
for ever.*

*Let the house of Aaron now say,
That his lovingkindness endureth
for ever.*

*Let them now that fear Jehovah say,
That his lovingkindness endureth
for ever.*

*Out of my distress I called upon Jehovah:
Jehovah answered me and set me in a large place.*

*Jehovah is on my side; I will not fear:
What can man do unto me?*

*Jehovah is on my side among them that help me:
Therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.*

*It is better to take refuge in Jehovah
Than to put confidence in man.
It is better to take refuge in Jehovah*

*Than to put confidence in princes.
Jehovah is my strength and song;
And he is become my salvation.*

*The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous:
The right hand of Jehovah doeth
valiantly.*

*The right hand of Jehovah is exalted:
The right hand of Jehovah doeth
valiantly.*

*I shall not die, but live,
And declare the works of Jehovah.*

*Jehovah hath chastened me sore:
But he hath not given me over unto death.*

*Open to me the gates of righteousness:
I will enter into them, I will give thanks unto Jehovah.*

*This is the gate of Jehovah;
The righteous shall enter into it.*

*I will give thanks unto thee, for thou hast answered me,
And art become my salvation.*

*The stone which the builders rejected
Is become the head of the corner.
This is Jehovah's doing;
It is marvellous in our eyes.*

*This is the day which Jehovah hath made;
We will rejoice and be glad in it.*

*Save now, we beseech thee, O Jehovah:
O Jehovah, we beseech thee, send now prosperity.*

*Blessed be he that cometh in the name of Jehovah:
We have blessed you out of the house of Jehovah.*

Jehovah is God, and he hath given us light:

Bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.

Thou art my God, and I will give thanks unto thee:

Thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

O give thanks unto Jehovah; for he is good:

*For his lovingkindness endureth
for ever.*

46 Ps. 119 (v. 1).

MAY, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, E.
NOVEMBER, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, M.

*Blessed are they that are perfect in the way,
Who walk in the law of Jehovah.*

*Blessed are they that keep his testimonies,
That seek him with the whole
heart.*

*Yea, they do no unrighteousness ;
They walk in his ways.*

*Thou hast commanded us thy precepts,
That we should observe them diligently.*

*Oh that my ways were established
To observe thy statutes !*

*Then shall I not be put to shame,
When I have respect unto all thy commandments.*

*I will give thanks unto thee with uprightness of heart,
When I learn thy righteous judgments.*

*I will observe thy statutes :
O forsake me not utterly.*

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way ?

By taking heed thereto according to thy word.

*With my whole heart have I sought thee :
O let me not wander from thy commandments.*

*Thy word have I laid up in my heart,
That I might not sin against thee.*

*Blessed art thou, O Jehovah :
Teach me thy statutes.*

*With my lips have I declared
All the judgments of thy mouth.*

I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies,

As much as in all riches.

*I will meditate in thy precepts,
And have respect unto thy ways.*

*I will delight myself in thy statutes :
I will not forget thy word.*

Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live ;

So will I observe thy word.

Open thou mine eyes.

*That I may behold
Wondrous things out of thy law.*

I am a sojourner in the earth :

Hide not thy commandments from me.

*My soul breaketh for the longing
That it hath unto thy judgments at all times.*

Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed,

Who do wander from thy commandments.

Take away from me reproach and contempt ;

For I have kept thy testimonies.

*Princes also sat and talked against me :
But thy servant did meditate in thy statutes.*

*Thy testimonies also are my delight
And my counsellors.*

47 Ps. 119 (v. 49).

MAY, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, M.

NOVEMBER, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, E.

*Remember the word unto thy servant,
Because thou hast made me to hope*

*This is my comfort in my affliction :
For thy word hath quickened me.*

The proud have had me greatly in derision :

Yet have I not swerved from thy law.

*I have remembered thy judgments of old,
O Jehovah,*

And have comforted myself.

*Hot indignation hath taken hold upon me,
Because of the wicked that forsake thy law.*

Thy statutes have been my songs

In the house of my pilgrimage.

*I have remembered thy name, O Jehovah,
in the night,*

And have observed thy law.

This I have had,

Because I kept thy precepts.

Jehovah is my portion :

I have said that I would observe thy words.

*I entreated thy favour with my whole heart :
Be merciful unto me according to thy word.*

*I thought on my ways,
And turned my feet unto thy testimonies.*

*I made haste, and delayed not,
To observe thy commandments.*

The cords of the wicked have wrapped me round :

*But I have not forgotten thy law.
At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee*

Because of thy righteous judgments.

*I am a companion of all them that fear thee,
And of them that observe thy precepts.*

The earth, O Jehovah, is full of thy loving-kindness :

Teach me thy statutes.

*Thou hast dealt well with thy servant,
O Jehovah, according unto thy word.*

*Teach me good judgment and knowledge ;
For I have believed in thy commandments.*

*Before I was afflicted I went astray ;
But now I observe thy word.*

*Thou art good, and doest good ;
Teach me thy statutes.*

*The proud have forged a lie against me :
With my whole heart will I keep thy precepts.*

*Their heart is as fat as grease ;
But I delight in thy law.*

*It is good for me that I have been afflicted ;
That I might learn thy statutes.*

*The law of thy mouth is better unto me
Than thousands of gold and silver.*

Thy commandments make me wiser than mine enemies ;

For they are ever with me.

I have more understanding than all my teachers :

For thy testimonies are my meditation.

I understand more than the aged,

Because I have kept thy precepts.

*I have refrained my feet from every evil
way,*

That I might observe thy word.

I have not turned aside from thy judgments ;

For thou hast taught me.

How sweet are thy words unto my taste !

Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth !

*Through thy precepts I get understanding :
Therefore I hate every false way.*

*Thy word is a lamp unto my feet,
And light unto my path.*

*I have sworn, and have confirmed it,
That I will observe thy righteous judgments.*

I am afflicted very much :

Quicken me, O Jehovah, according unto thy word.

*Accept, I beseech thee, the free-will offerings of my mouth, O Jehovah,
And teach me thy judgments.*

*My soul is continually in my hand ;
Yet do I not forget thy law.*

*The wicked have laid a snare for me ;
Yet went I not astray from thy precepts.*

*Thy testimonies have I taken as a heritage
for ever ;*

For they are the rejoicing of my heart.

I have inclined my heart to perform thy statutes,

For ever, even unto the end.

*I hate them that are of a double mind ;
But thy law do I love.*

*Thou art my hiding place and my shield :
I hope in thy word.*

Depart from me, ye evil doers ;
That I may keep the commandments of my God.

Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live ;

And let me not be ashamed of my hope.

Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe,
And shall have respect unto thy statutes continually.

Thou hast set at nought all them that err
from thy statutes ;

For their deceit is falsehood.

Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross :

Therefore I love thy testimonies.

My flesh trembleth for fear of thee ;
And I am afraid of thy judgments.

49 Ps. 119 (v. 145).

JUNE, FIRST LORD'S DAY, M.

NOVEMBER, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, E.

I have called with my whole heart ; answer
me, O Jehovah :

I will keep thy statutes.

I have called unto thee ; save me,
And I shall observe thy testimonies.

I anticipated the dawning of the morning,
and cried :

I hoped in thy words.

Mine eyes anticipated the night watches,
That I might meditate in thy word.

Hear my voice according unto thy loving-
kindness :

Quicken me, O Jehovah, according to thy judgments.

They draw nigh that follow after wicked-
ness ;

They are far from thy law.

Thou art nigh, O Jehovah ;
And all thy commandments are truth.

Of old have I known from thy testimonies,
That thou hast founded them for ever.

Consider mine affliction, and deliver me ;
For I do not forget thy law.

Plead thou my cause, and redeem me :
Quicken me according to thy word.

Salvation is far from the wicked ;
For they seek not thy statutes.

Great are thy tender mercies, O Jehovah :
Quicken me according to thy judgments.

Many are my persecutors and mine adversaries ;

Yet have I not swerved from thy testimonies.

I beheld the treacherous and was grieved ;
Because they observe not thy word.

Consider how I love thy precepts :
Quicken me, O Jehovah, according
to thy lovingkindness.

The sum of thy word is truth ;
And every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever.

Princes have persecuted me without a cause ;
But my heart standeth in awe of thy words.

I rejoice at thy word,
As one that findeth great spoil.

I hate and abhor falsehood ;
But thy law do I love.

Seven times a day do I praise thee,
Because of thy righteous judgments.

Great peace have they who love thy law ;
And they have none occasion of stumbling.

I have hoped for thy salvation, O Jehovah,
And have done thy command-
ments.

My soul hath observed thy testimonies ;
And I love them exceedingly.

I have observed thy precepts and thy testimonies ;
For all my ways are before thee.

50 P^s. 121, 122, 123 (part).

JUNE, FIRST LORD'S DAY, E.

DECEMBER, FIRST LORD'S DAY, M.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the mountains :
From whence shall my help come?

My help cometh from Jehovah,
Who made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved :
He that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel
Shall neither slumber nor sleep.

Jehovah is thy keeper :
Jehovah is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day,
Nor the moon by night.

Jehovah shall keep thee from all evil ;
He shall keep thy soul.

Jehovah shall keep thy going out and thy coming in,
From this time forth and for evermore.

I was glad when they said unto me,
Let us go unto the house of Jehovah.

Our feet are standing
Within thy gates, O Jerusalem ;
Jerusalem, that art builded
As a city that is compact together :

Whither the tribes go up, even the tribes of Jehovah,

For an ordinance for Israel,
To give thanks unto the name of Jehovah.

For there are set thrones for judgment.
The thrones of the house of David.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem :
They shall prosper that love thee.

Peace be within thy walls,
And prosperity within thy palaces.

For my brethren and companions' sakes,
I will now say, Peace be within thee.

For the sake of the house of Jehovah our God
I will seek thy good.

Unto thee do I lift up mine eyes,
O thou that sittest in the heavens.
Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their master,
As the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress ;

So our eyes look unto Jehovah our God,
Until he have mercy upon us.

51 P^s. 124, 125, 126.

JUNE, SECOND LORD'S DAY, M.

DECEMBER, FIRST LORD'S DAY, E.

If it had not been Jehovah who was on our side,
Let Israel now say :

If it had not been Jehovah who was on our side,

When men rose up against us :

Then they had swallowed us up alive,
When their wrath was kindled against us :

Then the waters had overwhelmed us,
The stream had gone over our soul :
Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

Blessed be Jehovah,
Who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers :

The snare is broken, and we are escaped.

Our help is in the name of Jehovah,
Who made heaven and earth.

They that trust in Jehovah
Are as mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abideth for ever.

As the mountains are round about Jerusalem,

So Jehovah is round about his people,

From this time forth and for evermore.

For the sceptre of wickedness shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous ;

That the righteous put not forth their hands unto iniquity.

Do good, O Jehovah, unto those that are good,

And to them that are upright in their hearts.

But as for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways,

Jehovah shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity.

PEACE BE UPON ISRAEL.

When Jehovah brought back those that returned to Zion,

We were like unto them that dream.

*Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
And our tongue with singing :*

*Then said they among the nations,
Jehovah hath done great things for them.*

*Jehovah hath done great things for us ;
Whereof we are glad.*

*Turn again our captivity, O Jehovah,
As the streams in the South.*

*They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.
Though he goeth on his way weeping,
bearing forth the seed ;*

He shall come again with joy, bringing his sheaves with him.

52 ps. 127 (part), 128, 130, 131.

JUNE, SECOND LORD'S DAY, E.

DECEMBER, SECOND LORD'S DAY, M.

*Except Jehovah build the house,
They labour in vain that build it :*

*Except Jehovah keep the city,
The watchman waketh but in vain.*

*It is vain for you that ye rise up early,
and so late take rest,*

And eat the bread of toil :

For so he giveth unto his beloved sleep.

*Blessed is every one that feareth Jehovah,
That walketh in his ways.*

*For thou shalt eat the labour of thy hands :
Happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.*

Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine, in the innermost parts of thy house :

Thy children like olive plants, round about thy table.

Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed That feareth Jehovah.

Jehovah shall bless thee out of Zion :

And thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.

*Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children.
Peace be upon Israel.*

*Out of the depths have I cried unto thee,
O Jehovah.*

Lord, hear my voice :

*Let thine ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.*

*If thou, Jehovah, shouldst mark iniquities,
O Jehovah, who shall stand ?*

*But there is forgiveness with thee,
That thou mayest be feared.*

*I wait for Jehovah, my soul doth wait,
And in his word do I hope.*

*My soul waiteth for Jehovah,
More than watchmen wait for the morning ;*

Yea, more than watchmen for the morning.

O Israel, hope in Jehovah ;

*For with Jehovah there is lovingkindness,
And with him is plenteous redemption.*

*And he shall redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.*

Jehovah, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty ;

Neither do I exercise myself in great matters,

Or in things too wonderful for me.

Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul;

Like a weaned child with his mother,

My soul is with me like a weaned child.

O Israel, hope in Jehovah

From this time forth and for evermore.

53 Ps. 132, 133, 134.

JUNE, THIRD LORD'S DAY, M.

DECEMBER, SECOND LORD'S DAY, E.

Jehovah, remember for David

All his affliction;

How he swore unto Jehovah,

And vowed unto the Mighty One of Jacob:

Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house,

Nor go up into my bed;

I will not give sleep to mine eyes,

Or slumber to mine eyelids;

Until I find out a place for Jehovah,

A tabernacle for the Mighty One of Jacob.

Lo, we heard of it in Ephrathah:

We found it in the field of the wood.

We will go into his tabernacles;

We will worship at his footstool.

Arise, O Jehovah, into thy resting place;

Thou, and the ark of thy strength.

Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness;

And let thy saints shout for joy.

For thy servant David's sake

Turn not away the face of thine anointed.

Jehovah hath sworn unto David in truth;

He will not turn from it:

Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.

If thy children will keep my covenant

And my testimony that I shall teach them,

Their children also shall sit upon thy throne for evermore.

For Jehovah hath chosen Zion:

He hath desired it for his habitation.

This is my resting place for ever:

Here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

I will abundantly bless her provision:

I will satisfy her poor with bread.

Her priests also will I clothe with salvation:

And her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

There will I make the horn of David to bud:

I have ordained a lamp for mine anointed.

His enemies will I clothe with shame:

But upon himself shall his crown flourish.

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is
For brethren to dwell together in unity!

It is like the precious oil upon the head,
That ran down upon the beard,
even Aaron's beard;
That came down upon the skirt of his garments;

Like the dew of Hermon,

That cometh down upon the mountains of Zion:

For there Jehovah commanded the blessing,
Even life for evermore.

Behold, bless ye Jehovah, all ye servants of Jehovah,

Who by night stand in the house of Jehovah.

Lift up your hands to the sanctuary,
And bless ye Jehovah.

Jehovah bless thee out of Zion;

Ever he that made heaven and earth.

54 Ps. 135, 136 (part).

God.Praise ye Jehovah ; for Jehovah is good :
Sing praises unto his name ; for it is pleasant.For Jehovah hath chosen Jacob unto himself,And Israel for his own possession.For I know that Jehovah is great,
And that our Lord is above all gods.Whatsoever Jehovah pleased, that hath he done,In heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps.He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth ;He maketh lightnings for the rain ;He bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.Who smote the firstborn of Egypt, Both of man and beast.He sent signs and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt,
Upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.Who smote many nations,

JUNE, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, M.

DECEMBER, THIRD LORD'S DAY, E.

*I will give thee thanks with my whole heart :
Before the gods will I sing praises unto thee.I will worship toward thy holy temple,
And give thanks unto thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth :For thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.*

In the day that I called thou answeredst me,

Thou didst encourage me with strength in my soul.

All the kings of the earth shall give thee thanks, O Jehovah,

For they have heard the words of thy mouth.

Yea, they shall sing of the ways of Jehovah ;
For great is the glory of Jehovah.

For though Jehovah be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly :

But the haughty he knoweth from afar.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me ;

Thou shalt stretch forth thy hand against the wrath of mine enemies,

And thy right hand shall save me.

Jehovah will perfect that which concerneth me :

Thy lovingkindness, O Jehovah, endureth for ever ;

Forsake not the works of thine own hands.

O Jehovah, thou hast searched me, and known me.

Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising,

Thou understandest my thought afar off.

Thou searchest out my path and my lying down,

And art acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word in my tongue,
But, lo, O Jehovah, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before,
And laid thy hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me ;
It is high, I cannot attain unto it.

Whither shall I go from thy spirit ?

Or whither shall I flee from thy presence ?

*If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there :
If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, thou art there.*

*If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea ;*

*Even there shall thy hand lead me,
And thy right hand shall hold me.*

If I say, Surely the darkness shall overwhelm me,

And the light about me shall be night ;

*Even the darkness hideth not from thee,
But the night shineth as the day :*

The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

*Search me, O God, and know my heart :
Try me, and know my thoughts :*

And see if there be any way of wickedness in me,

And lead me in the way everlasting.

56 Ps. 141 (part), 144.

JUNE, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, E.

DECEMBER, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, M.

Jehovah, I have called upon thee ; make haste unto me :

Give ear unto my voice, when I call unto thee.

Let my prayer be set forth as incense before thee ;

The lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

*Set a watch, O Jehovah, before my mouth ;
Keep the door of my lips.*

*Incline not my heart to any evil thing,
To be occupied in deeds of wickedness*

With men that work iniquity :

And let me not eat of their dainties.

For mine eyes are unto thee, O Jehovah the Lord :

In thee do I take refuge ; leave not my soul destitute.

*Blessed be Jehovah my rock,
Who teacheth my hands to war,
And my fingers to fight:
My lovingkindness, and my fortress,
My high tower, and my deliverer;
My shield, and he in whom I take refuge;
Who subdueth my people under me.*

Jehovah, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him?

Or the son of man, that thou makest account of him?

Man is like to vanity:

His days are as a shadow that passeth away.

Bow thy heavens, O Jehovah, and come down:

Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

*Cast forth lightning, and scatter them;
Send out thine arrows, and discomfit them.*

*Stretch forth thy hand from above;
Rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters,
Out of the hand of aliens;*

*Whose mouth speaketh deceit,
And their right hand is a right
hand of falsehood.*

*I will sing a new song unto thee, O God:
Upon a psaltery of ten strings will
I sing praises unto thee.*

*It is he that giveth salvation unto kings:
Who rescueth David his servant
from the hurtful sword.*

Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hand of aliens,

*Whose mouth speaketh deceit,
And their right hand is a right
hand of falsehood.*

When our sons shall be as plants grown up in their youth:

And our daughters as corner stones hewn after the fashion of a palace;

When our garners are full, affording all manner of store;

And our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields;

*When our oxen are well laden;
When there is no breaking in, and no going forth,
And no outcry in our streets;
Happy is the people, that is in such a case;
Yea, happy is the people, whose God is Jehovah.*

57 Ps. 143 (part), 145.

JUNE, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, M.

DECEMBER, FOURTH LORD'S DAY, E.

Hear my prayer, O Jehovah; give ear to my supplications:

In thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

And enter not into judgment with thy servant;

For in thy sight no man living is righteous.

Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning;

For in thee do I trust:

Cause me to know the way wherein I should walk;

For I lift up my soul unto thee.

*I will extol thee, my God, O King;
And I will bless thy name for ever and ever.*

*Every day will I bless thee;
And I will praise thy name for ever and ever.*

*Great is Jehovah, and highly to be praised;
And his greatness is unsearchable.*

*One generation shall laud thy works to another,
And shall declare thy mighty acts.*

*Of the glorious majesty of thine honour,
And of thy wondrous works, will I meditate.*

And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts;

And I will declare thy greatness.

They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness,

And shall sing of thy righteousness.

*Jehovah is gracious, and merciful ;
Slow to anger, and of great loving-kindness.*

*Jehovah is good to all ;
And his tender mercies are over all his works.*

*All thy works shall give thanks unto thee,
O Jehovah ;*

And thy saints shall bless thee.

They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom,

And talk of thy power ;

To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts,

And the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.

*Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.*

*Jehovah upholdeth all that fall,
And raiseth up all those that are bowed down.*

*The eyes of all wait upon thee ;
And thou givest them their food in due season.*

*Thou openest thy hand,
And satisfiest the desire of every living thing.*

*Jehovah is righteous in all his ways,
And gracious in all his works.*

Jehovah is nigh unto all them that call upon him,

To all that call upon him in truth.

He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him ;

He also will hear their cry, and will save them.

*Jehovah preserveth all them that love him ;
But all the wicked will he destroy.*

*My mouth shall speak the praise of Jehovah ;
And let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.*

58 Ps. 146 (part), 147.

JUNE, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, E.

DECEMBER, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, M.

Praise ye Jehovah.

Praise Jehovah, O my soul.

While I live will I praise Jehovah :

I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help,

Whose hope is in Jehovah his God :

Who made heaven and earth,

The sea, and all that in them is ;

Who keepeth truth for ever.

Jehovah shall reign for ever,

Thy God, O Zion, unto all generations.

PRAISE YE JEHOVAH.

Praise ye Jehovah ;

*For it is good to sing praises unto our God ;
For it is pleasant, and praise is comely.*

*Jehovah doth build up Jerusalem ;
He gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.*

*He healeth the broken in heart,
And bindeth up their wounds.*

*He counteth the number of the stars ;
He giveth them all their names.*

*Great is our Lord, and mighty in power ;
His understanding is infinite.*

*Jehovah upholdeth the meek :
He bringeth the wicked down to the ground.*

*Sing unto Jehovah with thanksgiving ;
Sing praises upon the harp unto our God :*

*Who covereth the heaven with clouds,
Who prepareth rain for the earth,*

Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

*He giveth to the beast his food,
And to the young ravens which cry.*

He delighteth not in the strength of the horse :

He taketh no pleasure in the legs of a man.

Jehovah taketh pleasure in them that fear him,

In those that hope in his loving-kindness.

Praise Jehovah, O Jerusalem ;

Praise thy God, O Zion.

For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates :

He hath blessed thy children within thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders ;

He filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

He sendeth out his commandment upon earth ;

His word runneth very swiftly.

He giveth snow like wool ;

He scattereth the hoar frost like ashes.

He casteth forth his ice like morsels :

Who can stand before his cold ?

He sendeth out his word, and melteth them :

He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

He sheweth his word unto Jacob,

His statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation ;

And as for his judgments, they have not known them.

PRAISE YE JEHOVAH.

59 Ps. 148, 149, 150.

JULY, FIRST LORD'S DAY, M.

DECEMBER, FIFTH LORD'S DAY, E.

Praise ye Jehovah.

Praise ye Jehovah from the heavens :

Praise him in the heights.

Praise ye him, all his angels :

Praise ye him, all his host.

Praise ye him, sun and moon :

Praise him, all ye stars of light.

Praise him, ye heavens of heavens,

And ye waters that are above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of Jehovah :

For he commanded, and they were created.

He hath also established them for ever and ever :

He hath made a decree which shall not pass away.

Praise Jehovah from the earth,

Ye dragons, and all deeps :

Fire and hail, snow and vapour ;

Stormy wind, fulfilling his word :

Mountains and all hills ;

Fruitful trees and all cedars :

Beasts and all cattle ;

Creeping things and flying fowl :

Kings of the earth and all peoples ;

Princes and all judges of the earth :

Both young men and maidens ;

Old men and children :

Let them praise the name of Jehovah ;

For his name alone is exalted :

His glory is above the earth and heaven.

And he hath lifted up the horn of his people,

The praise of all his saints ;

Even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him.

PRAISE YE JEHOVAH.

Praise ye Jehovah.

Sing unto Jehovah a new song,

And his praise in the assembly of the saints.

Let Israel rejoice in him that made him :

Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

Let them praise his name in the dance :

Let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

For Jehovah taketh pleasure in his people :

He will beautify the meek with salvation.

Let the saints exult in glory :

Let them sing for joy upon their beds.

Let the high praises of God be in their mouth,

And a two-edged sword in their hand ;

*To execute vengeance upon the nations,
And punishments upon the peoples;*

*To bind their kings with chains,
And their nobles with fetters of iron;*

*To execute upon them the judgment written :
This honour have all his saints.*

PRASE YE JEHOVAH.

Praise ye Jchovah.

Praise God in his sanctuary :

Praise him in the firmament of his power.

Praise him for his mighty acts :

Praise him according to his excellent greatness.

Praise him with the sound of the trumpet :

Praise him with the psaltery and harp.

Praise him with the timbrel and dance :

Praise him with stringed instruments and the pipe.

Praise him upon the loud cymbals :

Praise him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

*Let everything that hath breath praise
Jehovah.*

PRASE YE JEHOVAH.

Ps. 90.

FOR THE END OF THE YEAR.

*Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place
In all generations.*

*Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,*

Even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

Thou turnest man to destruction ;

And sayest, Return, ye children of men.

*For a thousand years in thy sight
Are but as yesterday when it is past,
And as a watch in the night.*

*Thou carriest them away as with a flood ;
they are as a sleep :*

In the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up ;

In the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

For we are consumed in thine anger,

And in thy wrath are we troubled.

Thou hast set our iniquities before thee,

Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

For all our days are passed away in thy wrath :

We bring our years to an end as a sigh.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten,

Or even by reason of strength fourscore years ;

Yet is their pride but labour and sorrow ;

For it is soon gone, and we fly away.

Who knoweth the power of thine anger,

And thy wrath according to the fear that is due unto thee ?

So teach us to number our days,

That we may get us a heart of wisdom.

Return, O Jchovah ; how long ?

And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

*O satisfy us in the morning with thy
lovingkindness ;*

That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us,

And the years wherein we have seen evil.

Let thy work appear unto thy servants,

And thy glory upon their children.

And let the favour of Jehovah our God be upon us :

And establish thou the work of our hands upon us :

Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

A MONTHLY ORDER OF SELECTIONS FOR CHANTING

FIRST LORD'S DAY, MORNING.—BENEDICTUS. (Luke 1: 68.)

BLESSED be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited and redeemed his people;
And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us: in the house of his servant David.
As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets: which have been since the world began;

That we should be saved from our enemies: and from the hand of all that hate us.

GLORIA PATRI:

GLORY be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. AMEN.

EVENING.—CANTATE DOMINO. (Psalm 98.)

O SING unto the Lord a new song: for he hath done marvellous things.
With his own right hand, and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himself the victory.
He hath remembered his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.

Show yourselves joyful unto the Lord, all ye lands: sing, rejoice, and give thanks.

Praise the Lord upon the harp: sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.

With trumpets also and shawms: O show yourselves joyful before the Lord, the King.

GLORIA PATRI, or this Metrical Doxology:

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Be honor, praise, and glory given,
By all on earth, and all in heaven.

AMEN.

SECOND LORD'S DAY, MORNING.—JUBILATE DEO. (Psalm 100.)

O BE joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: Serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak good of his name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

[GLORIA PATRI.]

EVENING.—BONUM EST CONFITERI. (Psalm 92.)

IT is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy name, O most highest.

To tell of thy loving kindness early in the morning: and of thy truth in the night seasons;

Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the lute: upon a loud instrument, and upon the harp.

For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy works: and I will rejoice in giving praise for the operation of thy hands.

[GLORIA PATRI, or the Metrical Doxology.]

THIRD AND FIFTH LORD'S DAYS, MORNING.—VENITE, EXULTEMUS DOMINO. (Psalm 95.)

O COME, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and show ourselves glad in him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also.

O come, let us worship and fall down: and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

[GLORIA PATRI.]

EVENING.—DEUS MISEREATUR. (Psalm 67.)

GOD BE merciful unto us, and bless us: and show us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us;

That thy way may be known upon earth: thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations rejoice and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

[GLORIA PATRI, or the Metrical Doxology.]

FOURTH LORD'S DAY, MORNING.—LAUDATE DOMINUM. (Psalm 147.)

PRaise YE the Lord; for it is good to sing praises unto our God: for it is pleasant, and praise is comely.

He healeth those that are broken in heart: and bindeth up their wounds.

He covereth the heaven with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth: he maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains.

Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem: praise thy God, O Zion.

For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates: he hath blessed thy children within thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

[GLORIA PATRI.]

EVENING.—BENEDIC, ANIMA MEA. (Psalm 103.)

PRaise the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me praise his holy name.

Praise the Lord, O my soul: and forget not all his benefits;

Who forgiveth all thy sin: and healeth all thine infirmities;

Who saveth thy life from destruction: and crowneth thee with mercy and loving kindness.

O praise the Lord, all ye his hosts: ye servants of his that do his pleasure.

O speak good of the Lord, all ye works of his, in all places of his dominion: praise thou the Lord, O my soul.

[GLORIA PATRI, or the Metrical Doxology.]

MAGNIFICAT. (Luke 1: 46.)

MY SOUL doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath showed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

NUNC DIMITTIS. (Luke 2: 29.)

LORD, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word.

For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,

Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

To be a light to lighten the gentiles: and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

THE LESSONS FOR DIVINE SERVICE ON THE LORD'S DAY.

THE proper dignity of public worship is largely promoted, and the true end of instruction is best secured, by an orderly and comprehensive system of lessons, in which all parts of the Divine teaching shall have a place.

In the following arrangement, the four lessons for each Lord's Day are taken from as many grand divisions of the Scriptures; and each series presents a natural succession of topics.

Two years are required for the completion of the course. During this period, however, we are taken through the New Testament twice, though the selections for the second year differ, in most cases, from those of the first. Where the lessons are identical, the reason suggests itself.

The passages from the Gospels follow the order of the Harmony, and unfold the life and teachings of Christ. The Prophecies and Epistles are placed in their most probable chronological order. Thus each series of lessons is historically progressive, and by its very arrangement materially assists in the understanding of the divine oracles.

The Arabic numerals are used for both chapter and verse, as they are more readily noted than the Roman numerals. The colon (:) separates the verse figures from those denoting the chapters; while the dash is placed between the first verse and the last verse of the passage to be read.

Where no verses are given, the entire chapter is intended for reading. When the first verse, only, is indicated, the lesson is to begin with that verse, and proceed to the end of the chapter. In many instances the sense requires that the ordinary divisions of the chapters be disregarded. For example, "Genesis 1:26 to 2:7" signifies that the lesson is to begin with the twenty-sixth verse of the first chapter, and end with the seventh verse of the second. Any selection, however, may be shortened at discretion, where the "coherence of matter" will allow.

When there are only four Lord's Days in a month, the lessons assigned for the fifth may be substituted for those of the preceding day, if there is reason for preferring them. For a fifth Lord's Day in February, very rarely occurring, lessons may be chosen from omitted passages.
